George Park, of Murray, was a visitor in Elmwood for a few hours on Tuesday of last week, also having some business matters to look after while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Meyers of Fairbury were visiting at the home of the parents of Mrs. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillett, over Easter and said the kiddies enjoy a fine time at Grandpa's.

Many of the people of Elmwood were over to the Callahan church on last Tuesday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Dan Schlaphoff. The funeral was very largely attended and it is estimated there were more than six hundred present.

On account of the prevalent Scarle fever in Elmwood and the number afflicted by this malady, there has been maintained a special trained nurse for the care of those exposed and for the examination of the students to prevent the spread of the disease through the school.

Emil Kuehn of Lexington, where he has been making his home for some time, was in Lincoln last week, where he came to take Gerald home for the Easter season, as Gerald was attending the state university and was going home to enjoy the Easter vacation.

Carl Schneider, of Lexington, where he is engaged in business, was a visitor in Elmwood over Easter and a guest of his wife and the remainder of the folks as well as attending the 39th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams, also attending the funeral of the late William G. Langhorst.

Charles Gerbeling, who has been visiting at a number of places during the last of his visits being with his son, Floyd Gerbeling and family at Plattsmouth, returned to Elmwood last Monday. Mr. Gerbeling was pleased to get back home again and see the many friends here. Uncle Charles has been enjoying good health.

J. R. Moore and family, of Omaha were in Elmwood visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Langhorst and as well attending the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Williams and attending on Monday the funeral of her uncle, William F. Langhorst, who died on last Sunday, the funeral being held at Wabash and the remains shipped to Ohio for interment, where he was buried beside the body of his wife, who died some time ago.

Celebrated Wedding Anniversary
Monday of last week marked the passing of the 39th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Williams, and the family saw fit to celebrate the occasion on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Williams were united in marriage March 21, 1888, at a short distance southwest of where the town of Murdock is now located. The bride was Mrs. Mary Kuehn.

Among those present on this occasion were all the children, Miss Anna Williams, who is a teacher in the Brock schools, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Reeder, of Plattsmouth and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneider, the former of Lexington, where he is engaged in business and the latter our local postmistress.

Many of the friends and relatives also came to extend congratulations and best wishes.

Visiting Son in North
Mr. and Mrs. George Hall departed Easter day for Brunswick in the northern part of the state, where they went to visit for a time with their son, Sumner Hall and family, who are farming near that place. They made the trip in their car.

Close Revival Services Easter
The revival services which have been held at the Christian church in Elmwood for some weeks were terminated with the services on Easter Sunday. The local pastor, Rev. Ernest F. Baker, was assisted in the conduct of the revival services by Rev. John Albers, of Lincoln, who is secretary of the Nebraska Christian Missionary association as well as a most active and successful evangelist.

On the evening of the closing of the services there were seven received into the church by baptism. One of the features of interest was the miniature model of Solomon's temple, which was made by Mr. Albers and which he used in his discourses. This was described at length in the Elmwood column last week.

Howard Liston Very Sick
Howard Liston, son of Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Liston, who has been so seriously ill with pneumonia, was taken to a hospital in Lincoln, the mother also going along to look after his welfare, but being worn out with the care and anxiety over the son's condition also became ill and had to become a patient at the hospital along with the son. The father is also well nigh worn out, but has managed to stand up under the strain.

When we were in Elmwood early last week the condition of Howard was so serious that but little hope was held for his recovery. Since he has been showing good improvement.

Down with Pneumonia
Among those who have been confined to their beds from illness is Mrs. Joe Parriott, who is suffering from a severe case of pneumonia. She had accompanied her husband to Lincoln and a draft in the windshield of their car allowed the wind to blow in on her, causing her to take a cold, which finally terminated in pneumonia. She is showing good improvement now.

Married 53 Years
On Sunday, March 28, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Tyson observed their 53rd wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter, Mrs. T. W. Robb, at Lincoln.

A most pleasant day was enjoyed and a fine dinner was served in honor of the occasion.

Those present besides Mr. and Mrs. Tyson, honor guests, were Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Tyson and son, James, of Omaha, Nebraska; Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Tyson and daughter, Marilyn of Murray; Floyd Tyson and James Brown, of Eaton Colorado; Mr. and Mrs. Marion McCroory of Elmwood and Mr. and Mrs. Robb and two children, John and Jane.

Celebrate Golden Wedding
On March 29, 1887, Christina B. Frei and Rev. F. L. Wiegert were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents in Clay Center, Nebraska. They observed their Golden Wedding anniversary at their home in Elmwood on Monday, March 23, at which time more than one hundred guests called to offer congratulations. They were the recipients of many lovely greeting cards and flowers. Rev. and Mrs. Wiegert are the parents of eight children, five of whom are still living. There are also nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild. The children and their families gathered at the Wiegert home on Easter Sunday for a family dinner, those present being Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schroeder and Yvonne, of Wahoo; Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Greene and Shirley of Elmwood; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wiegert and Jayne of Omaha; Mrs. Charles B. Stahly and Jack Jurissen of Fremont; Mr. and Mrs. R. Manners and Marcia Kay of Seward; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Rueter of Elmwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Meierhenry of Arlington.

Death of Charlie Buell
Charlie Buell was taken by death suddenly and untimely on Monday after a sickness of only a few days duration. His passing came as a great shock to the entire community where he had spent his entire life. Mr. Buell was highly honored and respected by all who knew him. He was one of the best farmers in the county, owning a fine farm near Murdock, which he took great pride in keeping up in the best of shape at all times.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Elmwood with Rev. Fintel and Rev. Sala in charge, interment being in the cemetery at Wabash. A number of relatives from a distance were here to attend the funeral, among them James Woodard, of Omaha; Mrs. Jessie Woodard and Pearl, of Lincoln; Stewart Lyle and son Bobby of Denver, Colorado; Mr. and Mrs. Nobel Buell of Cheyenne, Wyoming; Mrs. Frank Davis of Odessa, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leavitt of Lincoln and Mrs. Paul Hanke of Wichita, Kansas.

The pall bearers were Martin Borneimer, James Mills, Herman Kupke, Joe Gustin, Jess Brakbage and Fred Lake.

The church was filled to capacity with sorrowing relatives and friends, this funeral being one of the largest attended ever held in Elmwood, as the many friends of the deceased gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to a just and upright citizen, whose passing has brought keen sorrow to the entire community.

Charlie McKinley Buell, son of the late George H. and Lilla I. Buell, was born near Murdock, Nebraska, September 4, 1893, and died March 29, 1937 in Lincoln at the age of 43 years, 6 months and 25 days. He married Floy Elizabeth Lyle on December 14, 1921 in Elmwood. To this union were born five children, all surviving—Idella, Merle, George, Wanda Jean and Lyle.

He leaves besides his immediate family, two brothers, Frank E. and Fred E. of Murdock, and one sister, Mrs. A. Rosenkoetter of Elmwood. Two sisters preceded him in death. He accepted Christ in his early boyhood and became a member of the M. E. church at Murdock later uniting with the Methodist church in Elmwood, in which faith he continued to live and died.

He has been one of the Stewards of the church for many years. His services on the Official Board have been greatly appreciated. He with his family have made a very commendable record in Sunday School and church attendance. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen and served on the Board of Education. Having lived his entire life in this community, he leaves a host of friends to cherish his memory and his sudden death was a shock and deep sorrow to all.

While active in church and community he was a faithful husband and a valued friend and his passing is deeply regretted by all who knew him.

Pioneer Passes to Reward

Mrs. A. W. Neihart passed away last Tuesday morning at her home in Elmwood after an illness of several days with pneumonia. Mrs. Neihart was one of the early residents and for many years was a school teacher in the schools of the county. She had only a year or so ago recovered from a very severe injury which she sustained in a fall and which kept her bedfast for a number of months. Through all this she continued cheerful and steadfast and was getting along nicely until she was stricken with pneumonia.

In the passing of Mrs. Neihart the community loses one of the oldest, most highly honored and loved ladies—one who was a friend to everyone and beloved by all.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon from the Methodist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Fintel, and interment was in the Elmwood cemetery.

Clara Hollenbeck Neihart was born on a farm three miles west of Weeping Water, April 1, 1862. Her parents, Henry and Eliza Hollenbeck, took the third homestead in Cass county. This homestead was located about two miles north of Elmwood. Here Clara grew to womanhood. Her education was secured at the school on the farm. She was fortunate in having splendid teachers. She continued her education at the Weeping Water academy. She began teaching school when she was quite young and taught almost continuously for thirty years. She taught twenty years in Cass county. The school known as Sodon College was her first school and also her last school. Through these years she has created lasting friendships among the young people.

She was married to A. W. Neihart December 6, 1884 at Nebraska City. Here Mr. Neihart and his brother Monroe were in the photography business. Mr. and Mrs. Neihart soon moved to Weeping Water and while here, they united with the Congregational church. Later the Neiharts located in to all, giving promise of a brilliant career.

Of a genial and friendly nature, he made warm and lasting friendships as evidenced in his associations with his fellow men. These qualities were recognized first in college days in his membership in Acacia and Delta Theta Phi fraternities; later in other organization; Springfield Lodge No. 112 A. F. & A. M., in which he served as master; Nebraska Chapter No. 3, Royal Arch Masons, in which he served as excellent high priest; Mt. Zion Commandery No. 5, Knights Templar, and Hugh J. Kearns post of the American Legion, which he served as commander. For many years he has served as president of the Plattsmouth chapter of the American Red Cross and chairman of the Associated Charities. He was also a member of the Plattsmouth Chamber of Commerce.

For many years William G. Kieck has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, in which he filled many offices, being a member and chairman of the governing board at the time of his death. His Christian principles were evidenced as a dutiful son, a faithful husband, a loving father and a sincere friend.

Judge Kieck departed this life March 30, 1937, leaving surviving, his widow and children; 5, Knights Templar, and Hugh J. Kearns post of the American Legion, which he served as commander. For many years he has served as president of the Plattsmouth chapter of the American Red Cross and chairman of the Associated Charities. He was also a member of the Plattsmouth Chamber of Commerce.

“His life was gentle, and the elements So mix'd in him that Nature might stand up And say to all the world, 'This was a man!'”

Rev. Wright concluded his tribute with the beauty of “Tennyson's ‘Crossing the Bar.’”

Frank A. Clويد gave the beautiful number, “Face to Face” at the close of the services at the church. E. H. Westcott was the accompanist. The American Legion had charge of the services from the church and the flag draped casket was borne through the ranks of the Legion and Templars at the last resting place in Oak Hill cemetery.

At the grave the American Legion ritualistic services were given by Commander H. L. Gayer and R. J. Larson as the chaplain.

E. H. Westcott, for many years the Sunday school teacher of Judge Kieck, gave a short prayer at the grave.

The final honors that a part of the passing of a man that has served his country, the last salute, was given by the Nebraska post uniformed firing squad under the command of W. H. Kruger, past district commander. Taps were sounded by W. R. Holly as the casket was placed in the last resting place of man.

The services brought many here from out of the city, members of the legal profession and personal friends from all parts of east Nebraska and especially a large group from Sarpy county, boyhood home of Judge Kieck.

Among those from Omaha were Judges James M. Fitzgerald and W. H. Rhoades, W. R. Fitzpatrick, Leslie L. Turpin, former court reporter here, and Mrs. Erma Begley, widow of the late Judge James T. Begley, Judge Jesse L. Root.

Fairmont, where their daughter Nona was born.

Here, they burned out, and they came to Elmwood in the spring of 1888, where they have been in the photography and jewelry business ever since.

During the pastorate of Rev. J. R. Woodcock, the Neiharts united with the M. E. church in the year 1910. Nona was baptized by Rev. N. D. Lake in the year 1905.

Mrs. Neihart was not only a tireless school teacher, but she took an active part in all community and church interests. She was a faithful attendant at church services until she suffered a broken hip July 18, 1934. She was a remarkable and patient sufferer for a year. Then she has been able to be up and going again until her recent illness that took her life March 30, 1937. Mrs. Neihart lacked only two days of being 75 years old.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, her daughter, Mrs. Nona E. Bain, one brother, C. M. Hollenbeck, Omaha; a foster sister, Mrs. H. O. Maddox of Kansas City, Mo., and a host of relatives and friends.

Her brother, C. M. Hollenbeck is the only survivor of the Hollenbeck family.

CANE FROM OLD MEXICO

From Friday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Reierson, of Mitchell, South Dakota, who visited overnight at the Elmer Webb home six weeks ago while en route to Mexico on an extended motor trip, came through yesterday en route home and tarried for a short visit with Mrs. Reierson's cousin, Mrs. Webb and family. They tell of having had a wonderful vacation trip, but were anxious to get on home, and continued on their way, with Mitchell their objective at an early hour this morning.

On their trip through Mexico they had the services of a guide driver, and saw many interesting sights.

They brought back many souvenirs for friends, among them a handsome hand carved Mexican cane, finished in brilliant color and containing many scenes of life in early Mexico, which was presented to Adjutant Webb and should be the envy of all “cane toters” at future Legion conventions. A similar cane was brought to Mr. Reierson, a prominent Legion member at Mitchell, by his brother, who made a trip through old Mexico last year.

The Reierson brothers are engaged in the bakery and ice cream manufacturing business at Mitchell, and during the winter season, when the ice cream business falls off, are alternately able to take extensive vacation trips without hampering the conduct of their business, the trip this year being one of many similar leisure jaunts taken into different sections of the country.
