IMPROVEMENT STARTS SOON

Kearney, Neb.—Work will begin here Monday on a $20,000 improvement project at the Buffalo county fair grounds, S. A. Wilson, fair board secretary, and county WPA officials announced.

Approval at Washington and Lincoln was obtained for a WPA project to spend $6,648 for labor and some federal funds for materials in the construction of a new horse, cow and hog barns, and a new bandstand and stage dressing rooms at the fair grounds.

Wilson said the cost of the entire project would be approximately $20,000, including the salvage of lumber from the present buildings which will be torn down to make way for new construction.

Last year a new grandstand was erected, and streets at the fair grounds graded and graveled. Other improvement work is also planned.

NAME STREET FOR JEFFERS

North Platte.—When W. M. Jeffers became vice president of the Union Pacific, the mayor and city council of North Platte, on Oct. 16, 1928 by formal resolution, changed the name of "Locust street," on which stands the house in which he was born, to "Jeffers street."

Omaha.—Promotion of William Jeffers to the presidency of the Union Pacific comes as the realization of a life's ambition. Said Jeffers Monday, "I would rather be president of the Union Pacific than president of the United States."

DO YOU KNOW—

That it took George L. Hathaway, a World War Veteran, three years to construct a table inlaid with 50,619 pieces of wood gathered from all parts of the world. He started it in 1923 while a patient in a San Diego hospital and the only tools used were a small saw and a pocket knife.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bickert of Eagle became the bride of Lester Donlan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Donlan of Lincoln at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning at Blessed Sacrament church in Lincoln. Rev. Patrick Harte, of Beatrice, read the marriage service in the presence of 160 guests.

Miss Genevieve Bickert, sister of the bride, was the bride's only attendant. Everett Donlan, brother of the bridegroom served as best man.

Following the marriage service, a breakfast was served at Hotel Cornhusker for twenty-one guests.

After a wedding trip to Denver, Mr. and Mrs. Donlan, will reside on a farm near Lincoln.

Best wishes are extended the couple by their many friends in this community.

Obituary.

Orville Robertson, oldest son of James and Mary Robertson was born on February 25, 1884, in Gibbons, Nebraska. He died Sunday morning, April 4, 1937, at his home in Eagle at the age of 53 years, 1 month and 10 days. He was united in marriage to Myrtle B. Fentiman on February 25, 1909 and to this union was born six children.

Surviving are his wife, Myrtle, three sons, Lester O., of San Diego, Calif., Maurice of Unadilla, Nebr., and Burke at home; three daughters, Mrs. Arthur Lindell, Murdock, Nebr., Edith and Violet at home; one brother, Lynn of Nashua, Montana; three sisters, Mrs. Edith Brown, Portland, Oregon, Mrs. Alpha Burnham, North St. Paul, Minn., and Mrs. Viola Gladfelder, Lincoln, Nebr., and other relatives. His parents, one sister and one brother preceded him in death.

He spent his early boyhood in various places but since 1890, he has lived in and around Elmwood. During most of his life he engaged in farming near Unadilla, Alvo and Eagle, but for the last five years he and his son, Maurice owned and operated a trucking business at Eagle.

During the last four days of his illness every member of the immediate family except Lester were constantly at his bedside. Lester, who is in aviation service of the United States navy, was unable to be present as he embarked April 2nd from San Diego, on the U. S. S. Ranger with the United States fleet for a two month cruise in Hawaiian waters participating in naval war maneuvers.

A kind and loving husband and father, a helpful neighbor and a sincere friend has gone to his reward.

On Wednesday, April 7 at one p. m., short services were held at the home with Rev. E. C. Murphy of Prairie Home in charge. At 2 o'clock Rev. Murphy and Rev. Pintel conducted the funeral services at the M. E. church in Elmwood. The text was chosen from the Lord's prayer, "Thy will be done." Mrs. Guy Clements played the pipe organ prelude. Mrs. Don Springer played "Nearer My God to Thee" with variations as a piano solo. The men's trio composed of Messrs F. A. Paine, Fred Rudolph and George Youngberg sang "Beulah Land." "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Peace Be Still." Mr. Paine sang the solo "Home of the Soul."

The pall bearers were Guy Jones, William Coppel, Robert Otley, Harry Peckham, Lester Westland and Sid James.

The body was laid to rest in the Elmwood cemetery.
