ENDORSES CROP INSURANCE

Omaha.—Payne H. Midyette of Talahassee, Fla., legislative committee chairman of the National Association of Insurance Agents gave his endorsement Tuesday to crop insurance.

In his report to the association, holding its midyear meeting here, Midyette said crop insurance as proposed by Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace apparently is sound and should be conducted as a government and not a private enterprise.

He recalled that several companies years ago had tried crop insurance but had dropped it for various reasons. He said leading companies had sent representatives to Washington to study the current program and decided it should not be operated as a private enterprise. Midyette said he saw little possibility of administration sponsored health insurance legislation in this session of congress because of the many ramifications of the subject.

START HOUSING PROJECT

Omaha.—Workmen began pouring concrete for the superstructure of Logan Fontenelle homes, the PWA 2 million dollar north side housing project. Everett S.
