Replacing Dead Trees

The American Legion is considering the planting of trees in prominent public places to replace those killed last year by the drought. This is a splendid idea, and one that is being carried out over the state generally as part of the Legion's program of service.

I. O. O. F. District Meeting

The district meeting of members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was held here Wednesday, being quite largely attended. The lodges at Avoca, Elmwood, Nehawka and Weeping Water comprise this district and all were represented at the convention, which was held at the I. O. O. F. hall. District Deputy Grand Master C. H. Gibson was in charge of the meeting as presiding officer. The opening feature was a banquet, served at 6:30 by members of Woodland Rebekah lodge, and attended by the visiting delegates as well as a number of the grand lodge officers. Mr. Gibson acted as toastmaster. Speakers included Cyrus Livingston, Harry Linder of Elmwood, Elmer Hallstrom of Avoca and George Paulis of Nehawka, each of whom spoke on some phase of man's life and how he is made better as a result of following the principles of Odd Fellowship—in the home, as a neighbor and a good American citizen.

At the conclusion of the after-dinner program, there was a brief recess until 8 o'clock when lodge was convened in regular order and the initiatory work was put on by a team made up of members of the different lodges represented at the convention. This was one of the interesting features of the meeting.

After the degree work, an open forum discussion was engaged in of matters "for the good of the order," and continued until a late hour, at which time a lunch was served and the meeting adjourned.

Each year the various districts, made up of neighboring lodges, hold this sort of conventions, out of which come a fine exchange of ideas and the further inculcation of the fine principles of Odd Fellowship among those attending.

"There is a destiny which makes us brothers; None goes on his way alone; "All that we send into the lives of others, Comes back into our own." —Edwin Markham. And that, in short, epitomizes the aims of Odd Fellowship.

Made Great Change.

Mr. Weichert who has been a woodman for his life, growing up in the timber, with the assistance of Dean Switzer chopped down the large trees in the yard of Dr. W. H. Tuck. The trees were over two feet in diameter and one had only a rim of good wood to sustain it. This will make Dr. Tuck much firewood for the coming winter. The appearance of the home and surroundings is greatly changed.

Will Make Home in West.

Dennie Oldham who was recently married and who has been running their truck as well as hauling produce to Omaha had a letter from his brother who is in Santa Monica where he is employed, conveying an offer of employment for Dennie and with the wife departed Wednesday of this week for the west where they are expecting to make their home in the future. Dennie is getting a position as landscape gardener.

Modern Home on Wheels.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shields have received their trailer which they recently had especially constructed for them, which is like a modern home only smaller. The trailer has sleeping apartments, drawing room, kitchenette, and bath with lavatory, electric lights and brakes operated by electricity and in fact modern in every way. Last Sunday the trailer was tried out and after having traveled for one hundred and sixty miles carried by the auto it was not perceived that there was any additional gas used over the same distance without the trailer, making near twenty-three miles to the galloon with Claude Reese and family and Mr. and Mrs. Shields they traveled from Weeping Water to Lincoln, then back through Greenwood and Ashland to Gretna where they visited and later went on into Omaha, coming down through Plattsmouth to Murray and back via Murray to Weeping Water.

The construction is rigid, being built of steel and painted a chocolate brown with aluminum roof. They are well pleased with the home on wheels.

New Couple Comes to Town.

Twins were born in Weeping Water last Sunday, a boy and a girl, to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Christian. Happiness reigns supreme for the fond parents and with enough overflowing for the grandparents. All are getting along nicely.

Plattsmouth Woman's Club Hears Musicale

Mrs. E. H. Wescott Has Charge of Final Program of Year—Reports of District Convention.

From Tuesday's Daily—

An outstanding musical program was presented at the meeting of the Plattsmouth Woman's club last evening at the home of Mrs. R. B. Hayes. Mrs. E. H. Wescott planned the concert.

Miss Inez Eberhardt offered an unusual treat in bassoon solo numbers. She explained briefly the nature of the musical instrument and something of its background. Her numbers were "Down in the Deep Cellar" and "Love's Old Sweet Song." Mrs. L. S. Devoe accompanied.

A group of two musical readings were given by Miss Bernice Wieland. Mrs. Devoe accompanied as she read "The Boy Who Stuttered and the Girl Who Lipped" and "The Three Trees."

Miss Mildred Knoflicek, accompanied by her sister, Beatrice, played "Romance" and "Schon Rosmarin." Mildred is showing great advancement in every public appearance. The women were enthusiastic over her presentation last evening.

Lee Knolle, instructor in music in the high school, sang "The Pool Hath Said 'There is No God'" and "O'Hara's 'The Living God.'" Mrs. Knolle accompanied for her husband.

Mrs. Everett Pickens closed the musical program with a group of piano solos. She played "Scherzo," Schumann's Sonata in G Minor; "General Lavine" by Debussy; and "Beautiful Ohio." This is Mrs. Pickens first appearance in Plattsmouth musical programs. She received hearty applause.

Mrs. L. S. Devoe presided at the business meeting. Reports of the district convention which was held in Weeping Water March 9 and 10 were given by delegates and others attending. Announcement was made of the annual banquet which is to be held Monday evening, May 3. Mrs. James Mauzy announced that arrangements are being made for moving the piano into the library.

High school guests were Misses Shirley Seiver and Frances McCart, Juniors. Probably the largest attendance of the year was present for the meeting. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Leslie Niel and Miss Pearle Staats.

CHICKEN POX CASE

Janis Schmidtman, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schmidtman, became ill Saturday evening and was broken out with chickenpox Sunday morning. Although not in pain, Janis is very uncomfortable today.
