Frank Trotter, Nehawka, Kills Self Early Today

Well Known Resident of Community Commits Suicide by Shotgun Route at Early Hour.

The Nehawka community was stirred this morning by the suicide of Frank Trotter, 45, which occurred at an early hour today when he took the shotgun route in ridding himself of life.

Mr. Trotter had left his place of residence this morning shortly after 6:30 and had gone along the highway east of Nehawka, walking some three and a quarter miles from the town for his rash act. He had seated himself along the side of the road and removed the shoe and sock from his right foot, and used the large toe as a means of pulling the trigger of a single barrel .12 gauge shotgun. He had placed the muzzle in his moun and the charge tore his head very badly and left little to be recognized.

The discovery of the tragedy was made by John Finkle and Wilmer Morton of Union, highway employes, who came along the highway later in the morning on their way out to roadwork.

Mr. Trotter was a service man and a member of the Nehawka American Legion post and had made his home in that community for the past several years.

He is survived by the mother residing at Douglas and several brothers and sisters, one of whom, Clifford C. Trotter, resides at Nehawka.

TO MOVE TO OMAHA

Word has come that Robert Hill has been transferred from the Chicago to the Omaha office of the Moist Transfer company. Mr. and Mrs. Hill and family will move to Omaha as soon as school closes. They are former Plattsmouth residents and will be glad to return to their home state.
