The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hansen and Milford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heier, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Heier, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wendt, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Ragoos, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. ARRIVES IN WASHINGTON

Warren in extending his greetings also informed the parents that Judge and Mrs. A. H. They have had a fine trip and have seen a great deal of the country, particularly in Virginia.

Many Pay Tribute to Emil Hobscheidt at Last Rites

St. John's Church Filled to Overflowing as Residents of Community Gather for last Tributes.

The feeling of the community at the untimely death of Emil Michael Hobscheidt was strikingly shown Wednesday by the large number that gathered at the St. John's Catholic church to pay their last tributes to his memory.

Friends from this city and Murray filled the church and many stood outside the church structure as the services were conducted.

The impressive requiem mass was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor George Agius, pastor of the church, who also paid tribute to the memory of the young man that had been stricken down in the first dawn of his young manhood, bringing the comfort of the scriptures and the church to the bereaved ones.

The music of the mass was sung by the choir of the young people of St. John's church, with John Cloidt as the soloist, who sang "Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling," "O Love Divine" and "Lead Kindly Light."

The pall bearers were selected from the school friends and neighbors who bore the body to the last rest in the Catholic cemetery, they being Ralph Timm, Joseph R. Case, Arthur Kopp, Dale Hanson, Thomas Kriskey and Sheldon Smith.

MANY IN PASTURE CONTEST

Entries in Nebraska's third annual pasture improvement contest, designed to encourage better grazing land management practices, have exceeded the expected number, with upwards of 900 farmers officially participating. Such was the announcement from the college of agriculture by Elvin F. Frolik, contest director and assistant extension agronomist. The deadline for entering was May 1. Many counties exceeded their goals and as a result the 1937 entries surpass those of last year by several score. Farmers in more than 50 counties have entered.

Throughout the summer months, farmers interested in improving their grazing land will keep records on their management practices. Next fall these records will be picked up and summarized by Frolik and his co-workers. The contest will end with a clinic and dinner at Omaha in November.

Encouragement for spring seeding of permanent pastures was not given to the contest entries. Rather they were advised to rely more upon temporary pastures during the summer months and to fall seed into pastures this fall if moisture conditions are favorable. Seeding conditions in most areas this spring has not been considered favorable enough for securing a stand of grasses.

This is the first visit of the family back in the old home for some time and the occasion is one of the greatest pleasure to the relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bains are planning on locating in Kansas City, Missouri, after the visit here and where Mr. Bains will be employed.

Request Return of Social Security Cards at Once

Employers Having Cards of Employees Requested to Turn Over Account Numbers at Once.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 12.—Employers having in their possession employees' social security account number cards were advised today by Fred M. Wilcox, regional director of the Social Security Board, that the cards should be turned over promptly to the individuals to whom they belong.

The account number cards, Mr. Wilcox emphasized, are the property of employees to whom they were issued, and the cards should be at all times in the possession of employees, who are cautioned to preserve them carefully.

Instances in which the cards are being retained by employers have been brought to his attention, Mr. Wilcox said. This has happened, he explained, in cases where employers held the cards sent to them by post offices for distribution to employees, and where new employees have given their cards to employers so that the account numbers could be recorded on the employers' records. In some of these instances, employers have not known what to do with the cards.

In these cases, and in all others where account number cards are given to employers, Mr. Wilcox emphasized that they should be turned over to employees promptly.

He also pointed out that employers, in reporting their social security account numbers to employers, need not give their account cards to employers. The only requirement, Mr. Wilcox stated, is that employees furnish employers the account numbers—not the cards.

WOMAN IS CENTENARIAN

Leroy, N. Y.—Mrs. Anna Clark Elmer celebrated her 100th birthday by offering no recipe to her friends for long life. WHILE RHUBARB REIGNS

By Betty Barclay

Here are two new recipes to help you celebrate the return of the rhubarb season. The first is for a delicious conserve that will brighten spring breakfast menus. The second is for a novel punch that provides a delicious thirst quencher.

Rhubarb-Pineapple-Nut Conserve
2 cups canned Hawaiian pineapple juice
2 quarts diced pink rhubarb unpeeled (about 3 lbs.)
6 1/4 cups sugar

1 cup sliced Brazil nuts
Juice and grated rind of 1 large orange

Combine pineapple juice, diced rhubarb, juice and grated rind of orange and sugar, mix thoroughly. Bring fruit to a boil in a porcelain preserving kettle. Boil rapidly until thick, about 25 minutes. Be careful that mixture does not stick to bottom of kettle. Add nuts and seal in clean hot glasses. Makes ten 9-ounce glasses.

Rhubarb-Pineapple Punch
3 cups diced rhubarb
3 cups water
1 cup sugar
1 cup canned Hawaiian pineapple juice
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 1/2 cups ginger ale

Crushed ice
Simmer the rhubarb, water and sugar until rhubarb is tender. Then strain and cool. Add the pineapple juice and lemon juice, and just before serving add the crushed ice and ginger ale. Eight servings.

DROPS NAME OF SIMPSON

Monts, France.—The Duke of Windsor's fiancée assumed her maiden name of Wallis Warfield, her spokesman, Herman L. Rogers of New York, announced, following legal action in London. Her name—under which she will marry the former British monarch—is now "Mrs. Wallis Warfield," he said. He emphasized it was "Mrs.," not "Miss."

Application for the change, dropping the name of Simpson, was made to a London court five days ago. The former Baltimore woman's solicitors advised her by telephone the change had been legalized, Rogers said. The marriage date, he added, will not be announced before May 17.
