

Tour is Planned for the Opening of Short Course

Erosion Control Projects to Be Studied by Farmers, Business men and Others.

Studying soil conservation practices and methods together with latest farm management developments, the 15th annual mortgage bankers short course will be held June 10-11, says Dr. F. D. Keim, chairman of the agronomy department at the college of agriculture.

Land owners, landlords, farm management companies, mortgage bankers and others will attend the two day session, which includes an inspection tour of soil erosion control projects the first day and a speaking program at the college on the final day.

Lawrence and Johnson county erosion control projects around CCC camps are to be visited the first morning. During the afternoon, the delegation will go over similar projects in Otoe and Johnson counties. The annual banquet is scheduled for the Lincoln hotel that evening. Speakers will include Charles Meade of the Mortgage Bankers association; C. W. Means of the soil conservation service, and George M. Darlington of the University of Nebraska.

Friday's program is billed for the college of agriculture. Short and long term leases will be discussed by Prof. L. F. Garey of the rural economics department, with Bruce Russell and J. C. Poppe leading discussion on the topic. D. L. Gross and Arthur Anderson are on the morning program also.

"Crops and cropping problems" is the topic assigned to Dr. F. D. Keim for the early afternoon. Ivan D. Wood, extension engineer, is to discuss the feasibility of pump irrigation in Nebraska. Erosion control practices as related to land appraisal is the topic of W. H. Robinson of the soil conservation service. Clifford Jorgensen of the First Trust company and Boyde Rist of the Wymore State bank are to lead the discussion.

Plattsmouth offers a splendid market for farm produce. Local dealers always pay top prices.

FAMILY REUNION AT ELMWOOD

County Treasurer and Mrs. John Turner and Dorothy Jean were at Elmwood and Lincoln Sunday, attending a family reunion of Mr. Turner's relatives at the former place and visiting with Mrs. Turner's father and decorating the grave of her mother in the capital city.

The Turner family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Clements at Elmwood, the latter one of the five children. Besides the father, O. S. Turner, of Elmwood, others present included Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Turner and children, of Marquette; Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Cook and son, of Alvo; Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Bothwell, of Elmwood and the John Turner family of Plattsmouth.

In the afternoon John and wife and daughter drove to Lincoln, where they enjoyed a brief visit with Mrs. Turner's father, William Bedson, of Los Angeles, who is in Lincoln for a short time looking after property interests, and also visited the grave of Mrs. Turner's mother in Wyuka cemetery.

Mr. Bedson plans a short visit here with his daughter and family before returning to his home in the west some two weeks hence.

HONOR PLATTSMOUTH MEN

Tarkio, Mo.—(Special to the Journal)—George Adam, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Adam, and Stuart Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Porter, graduates of the Plattsmouth high school, were honored at the final chapel of Tarkio College Monday in several school activities. Both men received awards for scholastic achievement. The third consecutive award for Adam, a junior, and the second for Porter, a sophomore. They were also presented letters in track and football. Adam is captain-elect of the track squad for the 1938 season.

FRANK BESTOR ILL

Frank Bestor is confined to his home on North Fourth street and unable to look after his usual work at the store. Mr. Bestor has been a sufferer from neuritis and rheumatism for some months and which has become so severe that he has been forced to remain home under the care of a physician.

Union Takes Game in Southeast League

Defeat the Plattsmouth Merchants by Score of 12 to 8 in a Hard Fought Game.

The Plattsmouth Merchants in the Southeast Nebraska league dropped a hard fought game Sunday to the Union team by the score of 12 to 8 and which gave Union its first victory of the season.

The locals had a lead of four to one up to the fifth inning when the boys from the Weeping Water creek proceeded to unlimber their heavy artillery on the slants of Streets and an error also aided in the securing of four runs. The Unionites again got busy in the sixth frame and added three more to mass a safe lead that the locals were unable to head.

Harley Streets maintained a fine batting lead and secured four hits out of five trips to the plate while Mel Hoback with two out of five led the Union hitting.

Both teams secured ten hits and five errors.

The box score of the game:

STAGE A RUNAWAY

Residents along Lincoln avenue Monday had the opportunity of witnessing a rather unusual sight in this day and age, a runaway horse madly dragging a wagon down the avenue to almost Main street before stopped.

John Bates had been doing some plowing at a place south of the BREX shop yards and was loading the plow and equipment into the wagon when one of the horses became frightened at something and started to run and soon was going at a high rate of speed down toward the business section of the city, crashing into a trailer house of Frank Krejci on 3rd street.

The runaway was checked near the Cloldt service station after a run of almost a mile, one horse being badly cut in running into the side of the trailer. Sheriff Homer Sylvester was notified that the robbery of a Burlington box car had been discovered at Gibson where a large number of batteries were found. It was thought that the car might have been broken in here in the local yards. The sheriff and Officer Jarvis Lancaster investigated and looked over the tracks and yard but no signs of broken seals could be found or that anything might have been thrown from a moving train.

HOLD FAMILY GATHERING

The H. L. Kruger home in this city was the scene of a very pleasant family gathering on Sunday and which featured a fine dinner and visit among the members of the family from this section.

Those here to enjoy the day were E. J. Kruger of Nehawka, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kruger, Jr., and Ralph Kruger of Nebraska City, Mr. and Mrs. George Bates and daughter, Shirley, Weeping Water.

DOING VERY WELL

Mr. and Mrs. Don C. York were at Omaha Sunday where they spent a few hours visiting with friends and while there also called at the Methodist hospital to visit with Mrs. B. S. Ramsey, who is taking treatment there. Mrs. Ramsey is doing very well under the treatment altho she will have to spend some time there.

OLD RESIDENT HERE

Louis Otnatt, of Nebraska City, a former resident of Plattsmouth was here Sunday to look after the care of his lot in the Oak Hill cemetery. Mr. Otnatt still has a very warm spot for Plattsmouth and the old time friends and was able to meet a number while here. Mr. Otnatt has been quite a civic leader in Nebraska City and was instrumental in the organization of the southside improvement club in that city which has secured many improvements for that part of Nebraska City.

HERE FROM McCOOK

Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Carneal and son, Thomas William, drove to Omaha to meet Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Waga and grandson of McCook, bringing them to this city to visit with relatives and friends on Sunday, driving back to Omaha Sunday evening with Mr. Wallace Warner. They spent Monday with their niece and family, Mrs. Gretchen Blunt and Mrs. Waga's sister, Anne. Mrs. Waga is a sister to Mrs. Carneal's mother, Mrs. Wm. S. Wetenkamp, Sr., and also Mr. Warner.
