Murray

Earl Wolfe of near Union was looking after business matters in Murray last Monday afternoon.

Parr Young was over to Mynard, where he purchased a load of shelled corn for the feeding of his cattle.

Harry Albin and the family were called to Plattsmouth last Sunday, where they visited friends and looked after business matters.

Frank Mrasek was in Omaha with a mixed load of stock, cattle and hogs, on Monday, which he had picked up at various farms in this vicinity.

The home of the McCullah sisters east of Murray is being repaired at this time, also new roofs are being placed on some of the other farm buildings.

Hobart Blake and wife and their little daughter were in Omaha last Sunday, where Mrs. Blake was receiving treatment for her health, which has not been the best of late.

Among those cutting wheat this week were Curtis Faris and W. O. Troop. The grain is ripening rapidly and in a few days a large number of the farmers will be busy with the harvest.

J. A. Scotten and his crew of workmen are busy building a new bridge north of the Amick school, replacing the old one at that point, which was too narrow to accommodate modern day traffic.

Josephine Martis has accepted the job of carrying the Omaha Bee News to the Murray readers and began work Monday evening. While she is not overly large, we are sure she will make a good carrier for this paper.

Mrs. Nelle Wehrlein was in Plattsmouth the latter part of last week, where she visited her friend, Mrs. Wade Porter, who has been very ill at her home for some time and has been confined to her bed for several weeks.

E. W. Thimgan of Plattsmouth was in Murray Monday afternoon looking after the locating of a number of the WPA sanitary-toilets. To date the force at Plattsmouth has made and installed over fifty of these sanitary units, which have been supplied to private parties and school districts as well as a few to business houses in the smaller towns over the county.

Putting School in Condition

J. A. Scotten and his crew of workmen have been placing the school building at Rock Bluffs in tip-top condition for the opening of school on September 6th. A new shingle roof has been placed on the building and new window frames and sash are being installed. Some time ago the school directors had a reinforced storm cave constructed, and this last spring installed two of the government's new WPA built sanitary toilets. A new steel book cabinet was also placed in the school room and a furnace installed during the last few years, making this old time school house one of the best arranged of the many rural schools over the county. The directors are E. B. Hutchison, Jack Stamp and Joe Shera.

University will conduct services. On July 4th, he will hold services at the church in Louisville, also with-out a pastor at this time.

Murray Public Library Open
The Murray public library will be open for the exchange of books on Saturday of this week from 7:45 to 8:15 p. m. This is the beginning of the summer schedule that will be in effect during the warm weather on alternate Saturday nights. Keep the dates in mind—July 3, 17 and 31 and August 14 and 28, as these will be the only times you can get in to exchange books or take out new ones during the coming two months.

Make Trip to Kansas
J. H. Browne, of Omaha, who has land interests in western Kansas, accompanied by Mrs. Browne, were in Murray last Saturday morning and departed for Ness City, Kansas, near where their land is located, to look after the harvesting of their wheat. They were accompanied by Mrs. Toplif and George Berger, the latter going along to help with the work of looking after the wheat harvest. Mr. and Mrs. Browne and Mrs. Toplif returned home on Tuesday evening of this week.

Attended Wedding Monday
Mrs. C. D. Spangler and daughter, Mrs. Margaret Todd and her son departed last Sunday for Brule, Nebraska, where they attended the wedding Monday evening of Miss Lois Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cole, who became the bride of Hugh Bruce, a teacher in the schools of the western part of the state. The wedding took place at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening at the home of the bride's parents.

Suffered a Third Stroke
Thomas Christian, of Weeping Water, who has been in the hospital in Omaha for some time, but was later discharged to return home, his condition being such that the medical experts could offer but little if any encouragement for his recovery, suffered a third stroke Monday evening. His daughter, Mrs. Hobart Blake, immediately hastened to his bedside at Weeping Water to render such aid and assistance as she could, although his condition is very serious.

Visiting Here After Years
Fred Crosser, who will be remembered by the older inhabitants of Murray as one of the first postmasters of the town, living here fifty years or more ago, but now a resident of Alva, Oklahoma, dropped into town last Monday and was visiting for the day and a few days following with the old timers. He had many interesting incidents to recount as he talked and visited with his many friends of the years long past. In company with George E. Nickles he drove over the surrounding territory, observing the changed condition of the country and especially Murray. When he went away from here 35 years ago, there was not a tree on the Main street of Murray and now the trees have grown until in some instances they nearly overlap the street.
Mr. Crosser also lived in Plattsmouth for a number of years, attending school there. He is an uncle of Lon D. Crosser, who recently moved from Murray to Omaha to make his home. He visited here until this (Thursday) morning before leaving for his home in the south.

TO ATTEND BALL GAME
From Wednesday's Daily—
Robert Hayes, Jr., Ronald Rebal and Gavin Farmer departed Tuesday night over the Burlington for Chicago where they will attend the baseball game today between the Chicago White Sox and Detroit. They expect to leave this evening on No. 11 over the Burlington and reach here on Thursday morning. The boys are members of the Junior American Legion baseball team and will play at Elmwood Thursday.

Have Pleasant Time
Mr. and Mrs. John Fischer and family went to Omaha Sunday to attend an afternoon luncheon in honor of Francis Fischer. Francis attended college in Chicago this year and came home a short time ago. He graduated from college this spring and will leave for Illinois in August to study for the priesthood. In the afternoon all went to Brown's park to see a ball game. They enjoyed themselves very much. St. Joseph and St. Venusian schools played the game. St. Venusian won. The score was 4-1. On returning home Mr. and Mrs. Fischer stopped at the sand pits north of this city. A large crowd was swimming there. Joe Fischer, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. John Fischer accompanied them home.

NEW AMUSEMENT PLACE
From Tuesday's Daily—
George E. Ellis of Weeping Water and E. W. LaRue, of Nebraska City, were here today arranging for the opening of their new duckpin establishment, one of the new and popular forms of recreation. They are locating in the north room on the Sixth street side of the Hotel Plattsmouth, this room being arranged for their occupancy and where they hope to be able to start the next week. The equipment will all be new and there will be four alleys so that there will be ample opportunity for the lovers of the sport to enjoy themselves. They will be able to handle clubs and groups of the players and it is hoped to have several teams of the ladies of the city organized as well as men.

FAMILY REUNION
The John Knabe family reunion was held at Louisville park on Sunday, June 20. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. John Knabe, Mrs. Dagget, and Miss Marie Vidlock, all of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murdock and Lohm, Robert, and LeRoy, and Miss Mary Krecklow, all of Weeping Water; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hockman of Union; Miss Alice Campbell of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fitch and Elmer, Lottie and Josephine of Nehawka. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knabe and children of Nehawka were unable to attend.

VISIT IN COLORADO
Mrs. J. L. Young in company with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Humann of Brainard, Nebr., have just returned from a trip to Colorado. Places of interest visited were: The Royal Gorge, Corley Mountain Highway, Colorado Springs, Denver, Berthand Pass, Fall River Pass, Estes Park and the Big Thompson canyon. The trip took two weeks.

MEETING OF RED CROSS
The annual meeting of the Cass county chapter A. R. C. will be held in the Methodist church at Union at 7:45 Friday, July 2, 1937.
Judge A. H. Duxbury will show films of his Washington trip when attending the national convention as delegate of our chapter. There will also be other items of interest to all.
