See Valuable Publicity in KOIL Program Here

Arrangements Complete for "Salute Broadcast" on Tuesday—A Full Hour's Program Planned

The program for the New KOIL salute broadcast from Plattsmouth next Tuesday Sept. 14, at 4:30 p. m. is all set, with the full talent group arranged.

Eleven entertainers and two announcers will be accompanied by at least two engineers and two advance men. Principal talent group for the broadcast and for the half hour of free entertainment which follows will be the Cornhuskers, variety act heard over KOIL each morning from 6:30 to 6:45 o'clock. The Master Singers will also be along.

Had Hughes, KOIL's Vagabond Dreamer, Pappy Pruner, and One-Man Stock Company, will serve as master of ceremonies for the show, also entertaining with his comedy monologues. Frank Sammons will handle the man-on-the-street part of the local broadcast, and Don Kelley, of Musical Clock fame, will broadcast the description and laudatory message about Plattsmouth and our sixth annual King Korn Carnival.

The Master Singers are a quartet of students from the University of Nebraska who are frequently heard on KOIL from the Lincoln studios. They are Arthur Barnebey, Walter Rensch, William Miller and Robert Bellamy.

The scope of entertainment offered by the larger group is almost unlimited. The Cornhuskers who will make the trip here are Alene McKinney, xylophone; Verne Baethe, guitar; Stan Lowell, string bass; Russ Gibson, trumpet; Billy Shepherd, clarinet and an accordion player.

Latest word from the studio says there is some possibility Clarinetist Billy Shepherd will not make the trip here, but will be replaced by Irma Perry Cartright. "Irma and Her Fiddle."

Each one of the Cornhusker group also does novelty and solo work, so KOIL listeners and Plattsmouth residents are assured of a real variety show.

The talent is due to arrive here with the KOIL Mobile Unit, the KOIL bus, and the KOIL airplane an hour or more before the broadcast begins. They will gather at the platform at the corner of 5th and Main street and start exactly on time, 4:29 p. m. The radio program itself will last exactly half an hour, but the rest of the show will not be held to any definite routine.

Ten Towns to be Honored
Two salute broadcasts a day will be given during the opening week of KOIL's new 5000-watt transmitter, at 12:30 and 4:30 p. m., Monday, Sept. 13, through Friday, Sept. 17. Five Iowa and five Nebraska towns will be visited on the tour.

The schedule—with every broadcast entirely different—will include, in order, Missouri Valley, Iowa; Blair, Nebraska—Monday; Wahoo and Plattsmouth—Tuesday; Atlantic and Harlan, Iowa—Wednesday; Fremont and Columbus, Nebr.—Thursday, and Glenwood and Red Oak, Iowa—Friday.

In addition to the program furnished by KOIL, two local people will participate in the broadcast.

From Thursday's Daily—

Texas Visitors Here—

Mrs. Ruseel Perry (Mable Lee Coppenbayer before her marriage) and daughter, Virginia Lee, of Harlingen, Texas arrived yesterday afternoon for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Don C. York and family and Mrs. Addie Perry and Miss Helene Perry.

Visit with Old Friends—

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hankison and baby daughter, of Aurora, Ill., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lushinsky, Jr., Mr. Hankinson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hankinson who formerly resided here. Ben Hankinson will be remembered here as "Zarta" the tight rope walker. They are now in the lumber and fuel business at Aurora, Ill.

Honor California Guests—

Last night at the home of Richard Beverage a dinner party was given for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warren who are here visiting. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren, Miss Edna Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warren and two children, Alph Beverage, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beverage and Dickie.

Returns from West—

Miss Olive Jones has returned from Seattle where she spent her month's vacation visiting her niece, Mrs. Floyd Ralston. She brought back several twigs from the different types of pine trees grown in Washington. They will be at the library until they wilt.

Returns from Northwest—

Mrs. Val Burkel, who has been enjoying an extended visit with relatives in the Pacific northwest, returned home last evening. She has been at Seattle and Tacoma with her sister, Mrs. May Foster and her brother, Robert Sampson. While there she met many of the old time friends that formerly resided in this section. She was accompanied by Miss Olive Jones.

Have Interesting Trip—

Mrs. M. B. Allen, of this city, has just returned from an outing in the northwest, motoring there with her son, Delbert Allen, of Kansas City. They visited many places of interest in the mountain regions, seeing mines in operation and also visited the oil fields en route, inspecting the wells and also the refining processes of the oil. Their main stop was at Libby, Montana, and from where they toured over the surrounding country. They visited the Custer battlefield during the trip. At Idaho Falls, Idaho, they visited Mrs. Olson, a niece of Mrs. Allen and at Pocatello with two brothers of Mrs. Allen, George and Oscar Feriel.

From Friday's Daily—

Visit Relatives Here—

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Minford of Omaha, for a great number of years residents of Murray, are spending a few days in Cass county visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Albert Wiles of Plattsmouth, and their son, Will Minford, of Murray.

Social Workers Flower Club—

The Social Workers Flower club held their last meeting at the pretty country home of Mrs. James Waga. Mrs. George Mumm and Mrs. Jack Stamp had charge of a very interesting program that was enjoyed by the members and a number of visitors. The table in the dining room at the home of Mrs. Waga was beautifully decorated with roses and ferns where the members were seated and a delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostesses who were Mrs. Sam Gilmour, Mrs. Jack Stamp, and Mrs. James Waga.

Hold Joint Meeting—

The St. Mary's Guild and the Woman's Auxiliary of the St. Luke's church were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Roberts on high school hill.

This was the first meeting of the fall season and the ladies had a great deal of business as well as discussion of the plans for the coming fall and winter.

The afternoon was closed by the serving of delicious refreshments by the hostess that we very much enjoyed.

Missionary Society Meets—

The Methodist Women's Foreign Missionary society met with Mrs. R. B. Hayes yesterday. The past year's work was reviewed and the new year's work discussed and planned. There were fourteen members present. After adjournment of the meeting, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Grace Perry, served lovely refreshments.

From Saturday's Daily—

Visits Old Friends—

Mrs. C. E. Edwards, of Omaha, who was formerly Miss Myrtle Levings of this city, was here Friday for a short time visiting with the old friends and was a guest of Mrs. H. P. Goos and Miss Anna Heisel. While here she visited the home where she has spent her childhood days.

Entertains Pinochle Club—

Mrs. Edgar Newton was hostess Thursday to her pinochle club. In the playing Mrs. Lorene Urish received first prize and Miss Mary Holy, the second.

Visits at Des Moines—

Mrs. James Bulin leaves Sunday for Des Moines where she will spend a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Schaeffer, the latter formerly Alice Bulin. Mrs. Bulin will enjoy a visit with her new granddaughter, Sandra Sue, who was born a few days ago.

Motor to Sioux Falls—

Attorney and Mrs. W. A. Robertson, accompanied by their sons, James and William, departed this morning for Sioux Falls, South Dakota. After a short visit with Mr. Enos Jones, nephew of Mrs. Robertson, they will return to Plattsmouth, bringing with them Miss Rachel Robertson, who has been spending a short vacation at Sioux Falls.

Present Fine Concert—

Last night a very fine group attended an excellent concert at the Bekins building sponsored by the Plattsmouth Woman's club presenting Miss Mildred Knoffleek, violinist, and William Seymour, bass-baritone.

Mr. Seymour is a pupil of Mme. Theo. Moeller Herms. He sang "Aria" from "Don Giovanni," by Mozart, "Thy Beaming Eyes," by MacDowell, "Without a Song," by Youmans, and "Shortnin' Bread," by Jacques Wolfe. Mr. Seymour was here by courtesy of the federal music project.

Miss Knoffleek played "Concerto No. VII" by DeBeriot, "Romance" by Wieniawski, "Waltz" by Brahms, "Hejre Kat" by Hubay, "Chant" by Cameron-White, "From the Canebrake" by Gardner, "Schon Rosemarin" by Kreisler, and "Liebestreud" by Kreisler.

Grace Leidy Burger was the accompanist.

Inspect Dance Band—

Dr. and Mrs. F. R. Molak, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Keil and Mr. and Mrs. Hill Martin motored to Talmage last evening where they attended a dance making the trip to inspect the dance orchestra which has been one that was being considered for the King Korn coronation ball. The orchestra is a fourteen piece colored dance band.

Enjoy Birthday Party—

A number of little friends of Wynn Babbitt were guests at a delightful party given at the Babbitt home Friday afternoon, in recognition of Wynn's eighth birthday anniversary. The event was arranged by Mrs. Babbitt, assisted by Dorothy and Katherine Grosshans.

The entertainment consisted of games and contests, in which Clara Belle Rhoden, Anna Frances Schubeck, Marion Schlieske and Robert Kelly were the lucky prize winners.

The guest of honor received many lovely gifts in remembrance of the occasion.

At a suitable hour dainty refreshments were served.

Those who comprised the jolly party were: Billy Potter, Billy Howland, Raymond Stewart, Virgil Shyrook, Gordon Hopkins, Gene Lamberson, Bryce Baker, Kenneth Harold, Marion Schlieske, Billy Rose Canterbury, Darlene Shropshire, Clara Belle Rhoden, Junior Duncan, Mary Lou Walling, Anna Frances Schubeck, Jacqueline Krejci, Billy Mason, Robert Kelley, Ruth Ann Nelson, Howard Burcham, Dale Gray, Donald Gray, Miss Selma Diehm and the guest of honor, Wynn Babbitt.

QUILT SHOW AT KARNIVAL

The quilt show which will be a feature of the King Korn Carnival this year, promises to be a greater success than ever this year, as a very large number of quilts will be entered.

This year the show will be held in the Elks building, the large lodge room being used for this purpose and will make a fine place for the exhibit. Last year the room used was smaller and made it difficult to show the large array of artistic quilting. The classification of the quilts will be as follows:

- 1—Pieced quilts.
- 2—Applique and embroidered quilts.
- 3—Unique quilts.
- 4—Antique quilts.

There will be prizes given in each of the classifications and judging from the inquiries by exhibitors the competition this year will be very keen in all of the classes.

Mrs. John F. Wolf is the chairman of the committee in charge of the quilt show and those interested may call her for any information.

APPEALS CASE

The case of the State of Nebraska vs. Claude Lahoda, for petty larceny, has been appealed to the district court from the county court. The defendant was found guilty in the lower court and given a fine of $100 and costs and it is from this that the appeal was taken.

The bond in the case was set at $300 and which was supplied.

OMAHA PARTIES WEDDED

Wednesday night Judge A. H. Duxbury was called upon to join in marriage Miss Elizabeth A. Ritonge and Mr. Frank J. Sparano, both of Omaha. The bridal couple were married at the residence of the Duxbury family on west Pearl street.
