Nehawka

Monday of this week Marion Warren of east of Murray was in town where he purchased a tractor which he drove to his home.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry W. Walters were visiting for the day last Sunday in Lincoln, at the home of her parents, returning home last Monday.

Chester Stone was securing lumber and material for the feed bunk as he is going to feed cattle the coming winter and will put in the cattle in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson and son, Kenneth, were in Louisville last Sunday where they enjoyed a visit for the day at the home of a sister of Mr. Anderson, Mrs. Bedella Stander.

Fred Dow has been very poorly for the past more than a week with an attack of pleuresy which has caused him a great deal of pain. He is however having the malady treated and it is hoped that he will be feeling better soon.

Miss Helen Schumacher who is taking a course in nurse training at a Lincoln hospital was visiting at the home of her parents for the day last Sunday and was taken home Sunday evening by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schumacher.

Injured in an Accident.

While James S. Bryan, a driller for the Tobin quarries near Nehawka was having the air compressor moved to enable him to get at the work in better shape, the truck was backed against the compressor, catching Mr. Bryan and squeezing him badly, rubbing the skin from one side and from the other side under his arm and on the shoulder. Had not the truck stopped when it did the result would have been most serious. As it is he is very sore, altho the accident happened Friday of last week. He is able to get around but very little and that only with great effort.

Purchases New Car.

John Hobscheidt of south of Murray was in Nehawka last Saturday, making the purchase of a new Chrysler, turning in his car on the trade. Sunday Mr. Hobscheidt and the dealer here, departed for Des Moines to get the car, they driving over together and one will drive the new car back and the other the old one.

Tobin Quarries Very Busy.

Last Monday there was loaded at the quarry west of town some five car loads of stone for shipment via rail and at the same time the trucks were delivering a string of truck loads to the barges on the river, and with more than sixty workmen at the quarries it is no wonder that there is a large shipment every day. The pay roll through the local bank has been and is now a little in excess of $1,500 every two weeks. This must bring a better business to the entire community.

The Shepherd of the Hills.

Yes that was a very popular book and a number of these have followed in its wake written by Rev. Hillis, former pastor of the Christian at Lebanon, Missouri, and set in the rugged hills of the Ozarks of Missouri. Since the very entertaining stories by this writer have attracted many a visitor to the scenic and rugged mountains of the Ozarks.

When W. J. Wunderlich and wife, George Pollard and family of Nehawka and Dr. H. D. Hibbard and wife of Nebraska City were considering their vacation, they decided to visit this country. They spent nearly a week there enjoying the country which these books have so ably advertised and were well pleased with the outing.

Attended Convention.

J. H. Steffens who was elected delegate to represent the church and not the ministry, was in attendance at the annual Methodist conference at Fremont.

They Thought it Had Rained.

A number of people from Omaha and with a number of cars all provided with a large amount of fishing tackle, sallied out of Omaha early last Sunday and sought the banks of the Weeping Water creek, bent on having a good day out in the open and fishing in the limpid waters of the creek and expecting to be rewarded with a good catch, only to find when they got to the stream only an occasional pool of stagnant water and stretches of dry river bed with stones scattered over it. They were disappointed and so much so that they could not conceal the chagrin.

Visited Rock Bluffs.

The day on last Sunday hung heavily on the hands of V. P. Sheldon and to seek some new entertainment and see the country, they got in the reliable old car and headed for Rock Bluffs. Vilas thinks the roads there cannot be depended upon, for during the afternoon, after seeing some wonderful scenery they attempted to return home and following the winding roads, passed one point four times before being able to get out to the country which he knew and then on to home.

LIKE NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Otto of Auburn, came up Saturday afternoon for a visit with the relatives and friends here. They visited over Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ferrie, parents of Mrs. Otto and Sunday they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chriswiser at a family dinner that was much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto are now nicely settled in their new home and have become acquainted with a large number of friends. They report that Fred A. Rothert, former coach here and Mrs. B. C. Cohn of this city, have very attractive business houses in Auburn and are doing nicely.

NEW STORE MANAGER

Plattsmouth friends of the Zuckweiler family, residents here for many years, will be interested in learning that Dewey Zuckweiler, the son of the family is now the manager of a large store at Miller, South Dakota.

The store is a branch of the National Tea Co., and the Miller store is one of their newest establishments and one of the best in the city.

The Zuckweiler family will however also continue their farming interests near Miller. They have an abundance of feed for their stock but the small grain crop there was very light this year.

LOST

Mrs. Merrit Kerr, last year's leader, was at the meeting. Mrs. Smith was a guest of the girls for the evening.

Officers were elected. Clara Senf was elected president; Ruth Ann Hatt, vice-president; Jane Persinger, secretary, and Anna Mary McMaken, treasurer.

The program was the new subject, "Moslem Adventures." The meeting was held in Arabian style. All the girls sat on cushions on the floor. A low table was in the middle, and Arabian tea was served. Anna Mary McMaken was the teller of tales, and Mary Louise Walton was the leader.

At the close of the meeting Mamie Schwenneker led the devotionals, the story from the Bible of Ismal, the founder of the Arabs. Then Clara Senf gave the Arabian translation of it.

The president appointed her committees while the refreshments were being prepared. Committees for the year books and for invitations were appointed. Mary McCarroll, Ruth Ann Hatt, helped prepare the refreshments, and Shirley Jacobs and Clara Senf helped serve.

Modern Woodmen Meet
Cass Camp No. 332 of the Modern Woodmen of America held a very interesting meeting Tuesday evening at the lodge rooms in the Eagle building and which was very largely attended.

State Manager W. H. Carson and District Manager O. P. Tornblom were present and gave short talks on the benefits of this great order that has been a strong factor in the community life for many years.

After the meeting the members enjoyed delicious refreshments that had been arranged by the committee in charge.
