

Boosters Pay a Visit to Cass County Fair

Plattsmouth Delegation at Weeping Water Thursday Afternoon Is Quite Large.

The Plattsmouth boosters at the Cass county fair Thursday, brought out one of the largest groups that has attended the four day festival at Weeping Water.

The boosters were accompanied by the local band under the direction of Peter Gradoville and furnished some excellent music for the demonstration of the visitors from this city.

The greetings of the Plattsmouth visitors was given by E. H. Westcott and expressed the appreciation of the residents of this section for the excellent county fair that is held each year in our neighboring city. He also extended the invitation to the fair attendants to be here next week for the Korn carnival. R. W. Knorr of the King Korn Committee also extended an invitation.

Frank A. Cloldt, popular vocalist, was heard on the program with a number of fine offerings that received the enthusiastic reception of the audience.

Miss Wilma Swatek was also featured in two readings as well as James Sandin, whose work as a dramatic reader is so well known, both of the young people scoring a real hit with the crowd.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

From Saturday's Daily—Mrs. Cyril Kalina of this city was operated on this morning at the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha.

Mr. Kalina and Mrs. W. A. Swatek, sister of Mrs. Kalina were at the hospital.

HEAR RADIO BROADCAST

From Friday's Daily—Last evening members of the Masonic order, Eastern Stars and families were gathered at the Masonic lodge rooms in response to the nationwide call for the observance of the anniversary of the adoption of the constitution of the United States.

The lodges of Nebraska had been requested by Grand Master William A. Robertson to join in the program which was sponsored by the District of Columbia lodges, presenting Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, who was to speak on "The Constitution."

The program of the evening opened with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by Mrs. E. H. Westcott, who also led the group in community singing.

Milo Price, member of the high school faculty, gave a very fine talk on the constitution and its history. Wayne A. Bennett was the master of ceremonies of the evening.

The address of Senator Borah was a masterful effort of the great senator and constitutional lawyer.

INSTALL NEW PASTOR

Thursday evening at 8 o'clock Father J. R. Sinkule was installed as the pastor of the Holy Rosary church in the west part of the city. The installation was conducted by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor George Agius, pastor of the St. John's church and head of the Plattsmouth deanery.

There were three visiting priests here for the ceremony, Father James Hennessey of Manley, Father Ghroy of Falls City and Father Sherry of Julian.

Following the installation benedictions were offered.

The priests enjoyed a very pleasant visit after the services at the Holy Rosary parsonage and reviewing their experiences in the work of the church.

HONOR BIRTHDAYS

Saturday evening, Sept. 11th, a large party of friends of Mrs. Caesar Baumgart and her brother, Norman Renner, were entertained at a dance given at the Bannak platform in honor of their birthdays.

The evening was enjoyed to the utmost by the large group and who joined in the well wishes to the guests. In addition to the dancing features refreshments were served to the members of the party. The music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Meisinger.

At a late hour all departed for home wishing the guests of honor many more such happy events. The guests also received some handsome gifts.

OBITUARY

Stella Bernice Royer Wallace, was born January 21, 1922, in Arriba, Colorado, and died September 10, 1927. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Enos Royer, three sisters, Mrs. Ona Welmer, Misses Blanche and Evelyn Royer and three brothers, Delbert, Alford and Ray of Omaha.

Daughters of the American Revolution Here

Nine Chapters of the Society Here for Group Conference—Have Luncheon, Address.

Fontenelle chapter Daughters of the American Revolution entertained nine chapters at a district conference Thursday, Sept. 16th at the First Methodist church.

Miss Pearl Staats, regent of Fontenelle chapter, presided at all sessions. Devotionals and pledge of allegiance to the flag preceded the opening session. A discussion of committee work, led by various state chairmen, occupied the morning. Patriotic education literature was on display.

The luncheon was served at the dining room of the Stewart cafe. Seventy were served. The decorations were garden flowers. Miss Jean Knorr entertained with a group of piano selections.

At the afternoon session Mr. Petrus Petersen of Lincoln spoke on "The Constitution." Mr. Petersen is an authority on this subject and the address was especially interesting.

Mrs. E. H. Westcott sang "Good-bye Summer," by Lynnes and "Land of Mine" by McDermott.

The state regent, Mrs. Reuben D. Knight of Alliance, outlined the work for the coming year.

Other state officers present were: Mrs. Walter James, McCook; Mrs. A. J. Lazure, Fort Calhoun; Mrs. Chatter Westlunnes, Stromsburg.

The local chapter was assisted by its out of town members, Miss Violet Dodge and Mrs. Janet McMaken of Omaha and Mrs. Mayme Sullivan Phillipson of Fort Dearborn chapter, Chicago. A collection for the scholarship fund netted $6.00.

SUFFERS SEVERE CUT

From Friday's Daily—Dick March suffered a severe laceration of the forehead this morning when returning home from Weeping Water. Mr. March with his family were at the fair Thursday and the family remained there while Dick started to drive home early today in order to be here for his work. The car struck a pile of loose gravel while going at a good rate of speed and was overturned. He suffered a severe cut on the forehead and which required several stitches to close.

MAKES FINE SHOWING

Miss Edna Mae Petersen, who is one of the Plattsmouth students at the Peru state teacher's college, has made a very fine record in the examinations that are given the students before they are received in the college. She received A honors in English and high standings on all of her subjects in the tests. Her physical examination showed her to be in excellent health and well able to carry on the educational work. She is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Petersen of this city.

NEW BOOKS

Some new books on the pay shelf at the library are "Citadel," by A. J. Cronin and "Wind From the Mountains" by L. Gulbranson. On the seven-day shelf are "Dark Valley," by Jackson Gregory, "West of the Pecos" by Zane Grey, "Twenty-four Hours a Day" by Faith Baldwin, and "Jane of Lantern Hill" by L. M. Montgomery.

MARRIED AT UNION

At the home of Rev. W. A. Taylor at Union on Wednesday occurred the marriage of Miss Marion E. Bartlett and Mr. Raymond Allis, both of Omaha. The bridal couple were accompanied by Ruth Allis, sister of the groom and Edward Johnston, also of Omaha.

IS SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

William H. Tritsch, who was taken to Omaha the last of the week for treatment for injuries, is reported as doing very well and it is hoped may be able to return home soon. Mr. Tritsch was injured in a fall from a hay rack and has suffered a great deal from the effects of the injury.

STRIKE ALKALI WATER

Well drillers who have been working at the Charles Spangler place a mile north of Murry, have drilled a shaft 200 feet deep and struck water of a strong alkali. The drillers will continue the work and hope to sink deeper and locate a good flow of water.

MAKES GUILTY PLEA

Milton Prall, Junior, was arraigned in county court Thursday afternoon charged with uttering and passing forged checks. The defendant made a plea of guilty to the charge and was bound over by Judge A. H. Duxbury to the district court.

WILL ENJOY EUROPEAN TRIP

Henry Mogenson, of the Nebraska State bank of Weeping Water, left Thursday for New York City where he will attend the American Legion national convention in that city. After the close of the convention, Mr. Mogenson is sailing for Europe to spend a short time visiting. He will visit Paris and the battlefields of east France where American troops made history in 1917-18 and will then go to his native land, Denmark. At Copenhagen, the Danish capital Mr. Mogenson will visit a brother and expects to look over the scenes where his ancestors made their home. The trip is one that will give him a fine opportunity of viewing several of the countries and the post-war conditions.

UNDERGOING TREATMENT

Old Plattsmouth friends will regret to learn that Mrs. William Holly, of Omaha, former resident here, is at the St. Joseph hospital. Mrs. Holly some time ago had her hand badly lacerated in a power wringer while at work at her home and the hand has not healed as was hoped for. It has been found necessary to try skin grafting on the injured hand. The grafting has not healed as rapidly as it should.

REJOICE IN NEW SON

From Thursday's Daily—One of the happiest officials at the court house today was Deputy Sheriff Cass Sylvester—the cause—the arrival early today of a fine son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester. The little one is progressing nicely.

ELECT NEW TEACHER

From Friday's Daily—Yesterday at the meeting of the board of education Miss Frances Schmitt of Lincoln was elected to teach the second grade, the vacancy left when Miss Helen Farley resigned to accept a position at York, Nebraska. Mrs. Carl Keil has been substituting. Miss Schmitt will start her work Monday.

Miss Schmitt attended the University of Nebraska, and has taught at the Grand Island school for seven years.

HAVE A FINE SON

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Goucheour are rejoicing in the arrival of a fine eight pound son which arrived at their home Tuesday. The mother and little one are doing nicely and the occasion has brought much happiness to all of the family. Mrs. Goucheour was formerly Miss Velma Boetel. This is the nineteenth grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. John Boetel.

YOUNG PEOPLE WEDDED

On Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the parsonage of the Eight Mile Grove Lutheran church, occurred the marriage of Miss Lucille F. Meisinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Meisinger, of Cedar Creek to Mr. James Elvin Davis.

The wedding was very quiet, attended only by the parents of the bride and Mrs. A. Lentz, who witnessed the ceremony.

The marriage lines were read by Rev. A. Lentz, pastor of the church of which the bride and her family have long been members.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis will make their home at the Meisinger farm and reside with the parents of the bride.

The bride was born and has grown up in the Cedar Creek community where her family have long been prominent residents and has a very large circle of friends.

The groom is a native of Barton county, Missouri, and has made his home here for some time.
