

Old Time Resident Pays Visit to Old Home

B. W. Robbins, Retired General Freight Agent of the Denver & Rio Grande Here.

Bushrod W. Robbins, of Denver, who a year ago was retired as the general freight agent of the Denver & Rio Grande Western railroad, Tuesday was here to visit once familiar scenes of his boyhood days.

Mr. Robbins was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Robbins, who for many years resided in the residence property at Eleventh and Main street which Mr. Robbins built in the early eighties. The father came here in the late seventies and in 1878 the mother and the rest of the family arrived here.

B. W. Robbins when a boy in 1883 started in on his railroad career here and in 1885 was located at Pacific Junction, then one of the important points on the line west and the Burlington maintained large offices at that place. He remained there until in 1888 when he left for Denver to continue his work for the Burlington for the next two years and then entered the employ of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad where he had a very successful career.

This is his first visit here in many years and in company with W. T. Richardson, a brother-in-law, he was busy looking up old friends of his youth who are but few, as the years have taken their toll of those with whom he was most intimately associated.

ACCEPTS NEW POSITION

From Monday's Daily—
Miss Jacqueline Grassman today started in on her new duties at the Thomas Walling Co., abstractors. Miss Grassman has been engaged as an extra operator at the local telephone exchange since her graduation last June and feels that the new work will give her a wider field to develop.

ATTEND FUNERAL SERVICES

From Tuesday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs and John and George returned yesterday afternoon from Clay Center where they spent the week-end and attended the funeral of Phyllis Johnson, small daughter of old friends there.

Preparing for Young Citizen Contest Here

Will Hold County Contest Here on Saturday, October 16 with Co. Superintendent in Charge

The annual Young Citizens contest which is held under the supervision of the county superintendent of schools with the co-operation of the county commander of the American Legion, is to be staged on Saturday, October 16th.

Miss Peterson, the county superintendent, is arranging for the event which will probably be staged at the court house here as it has been in the past.

The contest will bring representatives from many schools over the county to this city for the examinations that will determine the selection of the four young people to be sent to the district meeting at Omaha, from which representatives will be named to compete in the final state contest.

The date of the state contest will be given later as the selections are made in the various contests.

THE LIFE BEYOND

When the sun no more gives its light,
And the shadow over us is cast;
The days of our lives will be over,
For we have gone to our eternal rest.

But the lights in the heaven above,
That will stream over our soul;
Are the true beams of sunshine
There is where we will reach our goal.

The angels will sing hallelujahs,
Praising God Almighty on high;
We could not join in their chorus,
If we once not had to die.

The mortal life on this great earth,
Though happy and gay it may seem;
It is not really what it should be,
For it does not really fulfill our dream.

When our dear ones from us depart,
Our hearts are filled with woe;
Yet there is an inner joy we feel,
When to better land they go.

Our tolls upon this great earth,
Some day they must stop and cease;
As there will be a better place prepared for us,
Where we can take the life with ease.

Though our hearts may be filled with sorrow,
Yet we must not fall into despair;
When a better and happier life awaits them,
Where everything will be bright and fair.

—Dedicated and composed in the memory of William H. Tritsch—

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Cyril Kalina, who has been at Omaha recuperating from the effects of an operation, has so far recovered that she has been able to return home and will recuperate here. She is doing very well and it is hoped in a short time may resume her usual activity.

ILL ON WEST COAST

Plattsmouth friends will regret to learn that J. B. Coleman, formerly of this city, is ill at his home on the west coast. Mr. Coleman moved from here to Washington and has since made his home in the northern portion of that state.

Otoe County Arson Case to be Tried Here

State of Nebraska vs. Paul Winton to be Heard Here on Change of Venue Allowance.

On a change of venue from Otoe county, the case of the State of Nebraska vs. Paul Winton will be tried here at the November term of the district court.

The case is one in which the defendant was charged by the state with arson, it being alleged that he had a part in the destruction of a frame dwelling in Prairie City addition to Nebraska City, which was burned on April 6, 1937.

The defendant and his attorney, Lloyd E. Peterson entered the motion for the change of venue on the ground that the defendant could not secure a fair trial in his own county and asked that he be given a venue to Cass county, the same being granted by District Judge Wilson.

PATRICIA ANN CHAPPELL

Patricia Ann, second daughter of Vilas and Lola Adkins Chappell was born at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Christina Chappell a few miles southwest of Nehawka, July 12, 1936 and passed away at the family home southwest of Nehawka September 29, 1937.

"Little Patty" as she was called, was ill but a few days. The passing of this little golden haired, blue eyed girl, who such a short time ago was the very picture of health, has left a vacancy in the home, which only time will heal.

Patty was a general favorite with everyone, because of her bright, winsome disposition. As a little ray of sunshine she fitted about the home playing with her older sister, Kathleen and baby sister, Barbara Jean. Her smile will ever be a pleasant memory.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her mother, father, two sisters, Kathleen and Barbara Jean, two grandmothers, Mrs. Christina Chappell and Mrs. John Adkins, and a host of other relatives and friends.

The little pink rose is gone. We loved her. To us it seems too soon. But God knows what is best, and He has called her home.

Perhaps she has been called to add a spot of beauty—a needed flower in the heavenly gardens—a blossom that will grow in greater beauty there.

The funeral services were held from the Methodist church at Nehawka on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union conducted the services and a large number of the friends of the family were in attendance.

A vocal number was given by Betty Ross with Mrs. Sturm at the piano.

The interment was at the Mt. Pleasant cemetery and with the Hobson funeral home of Weeping Water in charge.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS

Captain H. L. Gayer late Monday received the message of the death of his mother, Mrs. Amanda Gayer, 81, who passed away after an illness of some duration. Mrs. Gayer has been in serious condition for some time and the members of the family were called to the home at Bogalosa, Louisiana, to be with her. Six sons and three daughters were able to be with her while she was still conscious. Mr. and Mrs. Gayer returned Friday from the south and remained with the mother as long as possible.
