From Thursday's Daily—
Visiting in the City—

Mrs. A. W. Propst and daughter, Clara Lynn, of Jacksonville, Florida, were here Wednesday as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Larue. They are visiting the relatives and old friends in this section of the state. The propst family formerly made their home here, Union and Nebraska City.

Honored on Anniversary—

Last night Mr. and Mrs. John Hiber were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bestor at a dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiber's daughter, Miss Mary Hiber at 108 Drake Court, Omaha, in celebration of their 55th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiber were married in Plattsmouth at the St. John's Catholic church by Rev. Father Lynch on November 10, 55 years ago. They have seven children and eight grandchildren, all living. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rokahr of Phoenix, Arizona, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hiber of Riverton, Wyo., were not able to be present, but all of the rest were present.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hiber and son, Edwin, from Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bestor of Plattsmouth and daughter, Lois of Lincoln; John Kenneth Bestor and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bestor of Plattsmouth; Miss Eleanor Hiber of Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hiber of Hastings, Nebraska; Miss Hulda Spahn of Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiber received many messages, telephone calls, telegrams, and cards of congratulation besides receiving many flowers and gifts.

Attend Omaha Banquet—

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Robertson were at Omaha Wednesday evening where they participated in the formal banquet given by the Red Cross of Constantine for their ladies.

The banquet was held at the Hotel Fontenelle where a very fine program was presented with Dr. L. M. Kuhns as the chairman of the program and William C. Ramsey as the toastmaster.

The tables were beautifully arranged in the colors of purple and gold, with chrysanthemums and the gold tapers tied with purple tulle. Favors for the ladies were exquisite Dresden figures.

A very fine and scholarly paper on "Religion and Art in the Greek Church," prepared by Dr. David C. Hilton, of Lincoln, was given.

This was the thirty-fifth anniversary of the establishing of the chapter in Omaha and was marked by a fine talk by Lewis E. Smith, grand secretary of the A. F. & A. M. of Nebraska. Mr. Smith told reminiscences of the early days of the chapter and compared the conditions now and then, this being very much appreciated.

From Friday's Daily—

K. B. Club Meets—

The K. B. club met with Miss Laura Meisinger last night. First prize was won by Mrs. Frank Bestor.

Mrs. Emil Ptak won second prize and Mrs. H. A. Schneider won third. Mrs. Schneider also won the table prize. Miss Margaret Scotten was a guest.

Celebrates Birthday—

A birthday dinner for L. C. Hoschar was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hoschar on last Sunday. Mr. L. C. Hoschar being father of Dan. All the children of Mr. Hoschar and their families were present except one daughter, Mrs. Leslie Potts who is in Kearney at the hospital. Mr. Hoschar celebrated his 67th birthday. The following were there: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hoschar and family, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Addleman and daughter, Leslie Potts and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hoschar and daughter, Marvin Stapp, James Hoschar, Miss Margaret Hoschar, Miss Opal Zech and the guest of honor, L. C. Hoschar.

Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Geary and Bobbie Roman came and joined in on the fun.

To Attend Golden Wedding—

Mrs. M. D. Brown is leaving Saturday for a visit at West Frankfort, Illinois, where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn. Mr. and Mrs. Dunn are observing their fiftieth wedding anniversary and the daughter will join the other members of the family in the observance.

Missionary Society Meets—

The Women's Foreign Missionary society met at the Methodist church yesterday. Besides a good attendance of members there was a large number of visitors from Omaha and Weeping Water, some of whom spoke. Many Standard Bearers also attended.

Miss Beulah Reitz gave a very interesting talk about her experiences as a missionary at Rhodesia, South Africa. Mrs. Hal Garnett and Mrs. Merrit Kerr sang a duet, accompanied by Mrs. O. Q. Hudson. Tea was served, after which Miss Reitz told some more of her experiences.

To Visit West Coast—

Mrs. R. R. Bennett, of Big Springs, Texas, arrived Thursday afternoon for a short stay here with relatives. She is leaving Saturday in company with her grandmother, Mrs. Phillip Thierolf for the west coast. They go to Los Angeles where Mrs. Thierolf will spend the winter with her daughter, Elsie Thierolf. Mrs. Bennett will go from there to Medford, Oregon, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Rosencrans, then returning to her home in the south.

From Saturday's Daily—

Visiting in City—

Mrs. James Warren, of San Francisco, is here for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Warren, parents of her husband. Mrs. Warren is returning home from Huston, Minnesota, where she has been attending the fifty-fifth wedding anniversary of her parents.

Lewiston Social Club—

The Lewiston Social Circle met at the home of Mrs. Louis Burbee for an all day meeting, on Nov. 9. Mrs. Will Cook was the assistant hostess.

The meeting opened with roll call, followed by the reading of the last minutes. As the next meeting will be in the nature of a Christmas meeting, it was suggested that each one bring a gift for a gift drawing. The next meeting it, at the home of Mrs. S. Y. Smith on December 14, with Mrs. Donald Harris assisting. The meeting was turned over to the project leaders after the members sang a song and gave the Flag Salute.

The leaders, Mrs. Will Cook and Margaret Moore, presented the lesson on "The Family Christmas". They read the commandments for Christmas, stressing the need for the true Christmas spirit that too often is neglected. Some practical ideas were given for gifts to be made at home, including aprons, string bags, greeting cards, and toys for children.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in visiting.
