There were about forty present to enjoy the pleasant entertainment.

Present the "Mikado"

The students at the Mt. Scholastica college for girls and St. Benedict's college for boys, at Atchison, Kansas, recently presented "The Mikado," one of the Gilbert and Sullivan comic operas so popular in the late eighties and the early nineties.

The opera had in its cast a Plattsmouth young man, and a daughter of a former resident here, Fustine Nowack and Mary Lou Falter of Falls City. They both had leading parts in the opera and Miss Falter played "Yum-Yum," one of the leading roles. This role of "Yum-Yum" was one that was played in Plattsmouth many years ago by the maternal grandmother of Miss Falter, the late Mrs. George E. Dovey.

Patrolmen visit the city

From Monday's Daily—Two car loads of the highway patrol force, just put into service, were in the city today. They visited at the court house to meet the various officers with whom they might have contact.

The patrolmen made a very snappy appearance in their blue and gray uniforms and with their fast new V-8 cars that are emblazoned with the Nebraska state capitol building on the doors and rear.

The Cass county area is supplied from headquarters at Lincoln and Elkhorn.

Continues to improve

From Monday's Daily—The reports from the Clarkson hospital at Omaha today are to the effect that Mrs. John Sattler, Jr., is showing the most favorable condition that she has since her injuries in an auto wreck a week ago. Her special nurses have been taken off the case and she shows the most favorable reactions.

Mr. Sattler is now up and around but is still feeling the effects of the accident but it is hoped that in the next few days he may be able to return home.

Mrs. D. H. Ashbaugh is expected to return home today.

Benefit raises money for material for toy repair

From Tuesday's Daily—Revenue sufficient to bear the cost of materials that will be used in repairing toys for distribution to the needy children of Plattsmouth on Christmas eve was realized from last night's benefit card party sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and held at the Recreation Center.

The Auxiliary, aided by Guy Griffin of the Cass theatre, will undertake the collection of a large number of repairable toys on Saturday, December 11, with a matinee show to which every child bringing a discarded toy will be admitted free. Manager Griffin has furnished his theatre to the Auxiliary Ladies each year for the past several years, and a large number of desirable toys have been collected in this manner.

Repair of the toys will be in the hands of Recreation Center employees—necessary material and paint furnished from the proceeds of last night's card party.

The committee to arrange for material expenditures as needed to carry on the repair program is composed of Mrs. Otto Keck and Mrs. H. L. Gayer.

Pinocle Popular

Of a total of 80 or more players, all but one table were engaged in playing pinocle. The door prizes, a sewing cabinet from Bates Book Store and a cake from the Plattsmouth Bakery, went to Mrs. Chas. Manners and Miss Betty Bergman, respectively.

Prize winners in the card games were as follows: Pinocle (high scores in the order named)—Ed Creamer, Clyde Jackson, Mrs. R. T. Cuthrell, Leo Boynton, Esther Whiteley, Joe Libershal, Helen Vroman, Elmer Webb, Mrs. P. A. Hild, W. H. Puls, R. T. Cuthrell and Mrs. John West.

Bridge—Miss Laura Melsinger. Consolations—H. L. Gayer, Mrs. Raymond Larson, Mrs. Fay McClintock, Mrs. Otto Keck, Mrs. Kvaapl and Mrs. Hillard Grasmann.

The Auxiliary ladies express appreciation to the Journal for assistance in making the toy distribution program such a success each year. To Manager Griffin for use of his theatre and to the following business firms for contribution of prizes for the benefit card party:

Recreation Center for use of room and assistance of personnel; Knorr's Variety Store for use of dishes; Bates Book Store for the major door prize; Plattsmouth Bakery for the lovely cake; Norfolk Packing Co. for a gift of canned goods, and the following firms for table prizes: Home Dairy, Plattsmouth Creamery, H. M. Soenichsen Co., Mullen's Market, Egenberger's Store, Farney's Cafe, Jacobs Cafe, Weyrich & Hadraha, Fricke's Drug Store, Mauzy Drug Co., Etta Belle Beauty Shop, Hulda Weideman Beauty Shop, Ann's Beauty Shop and O. K. Beauty Shop.

Mynard U. B. Church

Paul L. Dick, pastor

The program presented last Sunday night by the Young Men's Bible class of the Plattsmouth M. E. Sunday school was well attended. The singing, led by Don York, was both enthusiastic and worshipful. Judge Duxbury's talk was enjoyed by many who spoke of the inspiration it brought to them.

The baptismal service conducted in the morning by Rev. A. B. Small of Nehawka was impressive. Four young men received the rite.

Universal Bible Sunday will be observed at the morning service December 5. Christian Endeavor at 7:30 in the evening. This is also the time for the monthly official board meeting. Another program by the choir is scheduled for the evening service December 14.

HAPPY HOME PROJECT CLUB

The Happy Home project club met at the home of Mrs. Franz Peterleit Tuesday, November 23 with Mrs. B. M. Hubbell assistant hostess. The meeting was opened by repeating the Collect. There were ten members present. The meeting was on "Planning the Leisure Hours," which was very interesting. Plans were made for our Xmas party December 16 at the home of Mrs. Henry Albert. Each one told of her hobby which she enjoyed most.

A delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses which everyone enjoyed.

The next meeting is in January at the home of Mrs. Harry Melsinger with Mrs. Elmer Morris assistant hostess. The lesson is on "Patterns and Their Use."

CLUB REPORTER

BOYS TO GO TO KEARNEY

From Wednesday's Daily—This afternoon in the county court the complaint against Kenneth Shyrook and William Valley was heard, the boys having pleaded guilty to entering several places and taking watches and other property.

The boys have been on parole for other offenses and accordingly the court entered the order to have them sent to the state industrial school at Kearney.

Joseph Smith, also implicated in the case was paroled as this was his first offense and he was given a lecture by the court to refrain from associations that he had in the past and to carry on his school work.

Called on sad mission

Mrs. E. C. Giles of this city and her brother, George C. Sheldon, of Nehawka, departed Monday for Ellensburg Depot, New York. They were called east by a message announcing the death of their father, Irwin L. Sheldon, 79.

Mr. Sheldon had not been in the best of health for some time and was suddenly stricken with the fatal attack, dying at 2:30 Sunday morning at his home.

He is survived by his widow and the two children, Mrs. Giles and Mr. Sheldon.

The funeral services were held on Wednesday at Ellensburg Depot.

Draws down fine

Howard Novak, a magazine solicitor, was arrested Monday afternoon by Chief of Police Joe Libershal, the arrest being made under the provisions of the recently adopted "Green River" ordinance. The ordinance prohibits the solicitation of order or sales of goods from house to house over the city or the distribution of bills.

The young man made a plea of guilty to the charge as preferred and was accordingly fined $5 and costs amounting to $8.50 which was paid in and he sent on his way.

Nebraska Masonic Head Goes to Texas

William A. Robertson to Represent State at 100th Anniversary of Grand Lodge of Texas.

Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. William A. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Evers departed for Waco, Texas, where they are expecting to spend several days.

Mr. Robertson, who is the grand master of the A. F. & A. M. of Nebraska, is to represent this state at the one hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the grand lodge of Texas and which is gathering at Waco this year.

The grand lodge of Texas was established in 1837 just after the pioneers had won their independence from the Mexicans and established a new republic and which a few years later became a state of the American union.

Representatives from all of the grand lodges of the United States are expected at the Waco meeting to honor the Texas lodge on this notable anniversary.

FUNERAL OF ISAAC GOUCHENOUR

The First Christian church was filled Saturday afternoon by the relatives and friends of Isaac Gouchenour, to pay their last tributes to his memory and to share with the family the sorrow his passing has occasioned.

Rev. J. W. Taenzler, pastor of the church, brought a comforting thought from the scriptures to the bereaved family circle and to the long time friends.

During the services Mrs. Hal Garnett and Frank A. Cloldt gave three numbers, "Going Down the Valley One by One," "Sometime We'll Understand," and "Face to Face."

The departed was laid to rest in the family lot in Oak Hill cemetery west of the city.

The out of town relatives and friends to attend the services were Wayne Gouchenour, Des Moines Iowa; Sam Gouchenour and family Missouri Valley, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hula, Sedalia, Missouri; Mrs. Frank Spidal, Nebraska City; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Abeshair, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Russell, Mrs. Lillian Russell, Pacific Junction; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frel and family, Nebraska City; Mrs. Pet Jensen and family and Mrs. Blanch Winscott of Omaha.
