

450,000 Residents of State Have Licenses

Expected That Larger Number Will Be Enrolled in December by Patrolmen.

LINCOLN, Dec. 1 (UP)—State officials estimated approximately 450,000 Nebraskans held drivers operation licenses today as the original 90-day period for obtaining permits ended.

R. W. Culwell, chief of the state motor vehicle registration division had expected 600,000 licenses to be issued. He said he did not know whether this figure would be reached during December.

Culwell said the examiners would adhere to the increased fee for renewals (from 75c to $1) at least until Saturday after he was informed that County Attorney Edmund Nuss and County Treasurer A. J. Theobald of Hastings believe the state is without authority to raise the renewal charge after November 30.

County Treasurer Theobald said he was considering a plan whereby he would charge $1.00 for renewals but would set up a fund from which he could refund the 25c to drivers should the question be settled in confirmation with the views of the county attorney and himself.

SHERLOCK HOLMES' TACTICS IN CRIME CALLED DEAD

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP)—Crimes are not solved by "story book methods of master mind detectives," Carey Pickard, special agent of the Memphis Federal Bureau of Investigation, said in an address here.

"Crimes are solved by plain common sense, hard work, everlasting perseverance and attention to the small things," Pickard said. "The federal bureau of investigation does not catch criminals by pipe smoking Sherlock Holmes methods."

Pickard pointed out that few men are able to pass requirements necessary to become a federal agent. To qualify a person must be between the ages of 23 and 35 years, have graduated from a law school or had legal experience, and qualify as an accountant.

DRAW LIFE TERM

SIDNEY, Neb., Dec. 1 (UP)—Orville Childers and William Bomon, confessed slayers of William Moore, were sentenced to life imprisonment on the third jury ballot last night on charges of first degree murder.

Moore, pioneer Sidney resident, was found brutally murdered in his home Nov. 12. In their confession, the two men said they intended to rob Moore, but were forced to kill him when he surprised them.

They will be taken to the state penitentiary in Lincoln today. The jury brought in its sentence after two hours of deliberation. For two ballots, the vote ran eleven to one for life imprisonment. On the third ballot, the vote was unanimous.

THREE WAIVE CLAIM TO $45,000 ESTATE

ELYRIA, O. (UP)—An inheritance of $45,000 was refused by three beneficiaries of the estate of Frank Caley, when three children of the deceased brought suit to break the will.

Caley left $5,000 to his housekeeper, and the rest to a nephew and a neighbor.

His children charged their father was not of sound mind when he made the will. All the beneficiaries agreed.
