From Monday's Daily—

Guests Here Sunday—

The home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Farmer was the scene of a very pleasant house party over the week end when several of the relatives of Mrs. Farmer were here. Mrs. Mary Armstrong of Ogallala, Nebraska, an aunt of Mrs. Farmer, with her son, Ivan Armstrong and family of Asbland, Glen Bookwalter, of North Platte, a brother of Mrs. Farmer and Miss Ethel Clark of Omaha, comprised the party.

Union Guests Here—

Last night Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harris of Union were supper guests at the I. L. Kocian home. Mrs. Frances Bieri was a weekend guest at the Kocian home.

Class Has Pleasant Time—

Elmer Sundstrom's class of boys met with Junior Devoe Saturday night and played games. Later the group of Sunday school boys went to Jacob's cafe where Mrs. Jacobs served refreshments. There were 12 boys present, L. S. Devoe, Rev. J. C. Lowson and the teacher Elmer Sundstrom.

Hold Skating Party—

Last night at the local rink a group of young people had a roller skating party. Afterwards they had refreshments. The members of the group were Leo Meisinger, Lila Jane Elliott, Florence Masters, Gerald Meisinger, Bill Brink and Leona Price.

South Dakota Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gopen and son, Ralph, of Rapid City, South Dakota have been in the city for a few days visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gopen and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Snyder. Yesterday they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Snyder where they enjoyed a day featured by a lovely dinner and a delightful afternoon of visiting, it being 19 years since so many were together on one day. The guests were Mrs. Martha Gopen Willes of this city, Mrs. Anna Gopen Dean of Fort Morgan, Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gopen, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gopen and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cook.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Honor Old Friend—

Mr. and Mrs. Max Vallery entertained Monday evening at their country home, honoring Charles W. Stoehr. Mr. Stoehr is leaving soon for California.

Woman's Club Meeting—

Last night the Woman's club met with Mrs. J. C. Woest. The meeting was opened with devotionals given by Mrs. George Farley who read a Christmas story "The Three Trees." At the business meeting it was decided that gifts should be brought that could be given to the needy of Plattsmouth. Some clothes have been donated by the different clubs of the country and this club decided to make that a project and help get clothes ready to give to the needy.

The program consisted of Christmas carols sung by the club with Mrs. E. H. Wescott leading and Mrs. L. S. Devoe accompanying. Following the singing Mrs. Robert Reed gave a very interesting book review on the book "North to the Orient" by Ann Lindbergh. Guests of the evening were Mrs. J. C. Lowson and Miss Corbie.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and co-hostesses Mrs. James Mauzy, Mrs. John Hallstrom, Miss Wilma Pickard, Miss Wilhelmina Henriksen, Miss Marie Nolting and Mrs. John Alwin. The next meeting will be in the nature of a Christmas party held at the home of Mrs. E. H. Wescott.

Live Wire Club—

The Live Wire club, comprising employees of the Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power Co., held a very delightful Christmas party Monday evening at the home of Mrs. F. I. Rea. The members of the party enjoyed a delicious 6:30 turkey dinner and at which members of the group from the Humboldt offices were guests of the local members.

The home was attractively arranged for the happy gathering and at an appropriate hour, Santa Claus appeared on the scene and announced that he had gifts for all of the group.

A short business session was held and the remainder of the evening was spent at cards, bridge, pinocle and Fan Tan being played by the jolly group. In the playing prizes were won by Mrs. Warren Scharsenberg, Miss Margaret Scotten and Miss Dorothy Svoboda.

From Wednesday's Daily—

Entertainers Class—

Mrs. Val Burkel entertained the Women's Bible class of the Methodist church at her home this afternoon. There are about twenty members in the class.

Junior C. D. of A.—

Last night the Junior C. D. of A. held their meeting at the home of Wilma Swatek. It was a business meeting. After the business had been discussed the girls spent the rest of the evening knitting. The Christmas party will be held on December 22 at the home of Renee Brown.

Hold Dinner Party—

Last evening at the home of Miss Janet Westover, the D. D. club was entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner. After enjoying the well-prepared menu the members attended the local theater. Then they were off to the Tas-Tee shop where Hazel Kelley proved that no matter how cold the weather is outside, ice cream sure tastes good on the inside.

STINGS CAUSE HEART ATTACKS

PORT WORTH, Tex. (UP)—The insect-sting complex of Mrs. R. S. Pope of Fort Worth has physicians puzzled. At 60, she seems in good health until an insect stings here, then her heart goes bad. She has suffered heart attacks for years when stung by bees, wasps, yellowjackets and ants.

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT

Word has just been received announcing the death of Louis H. Vallery at Los Angeles. Death was due to heart trouble, coming suddenly from an attack.

Mr. Vallery was a son of the late Jacob Vallery, Jr., a brother-in-law of W. J. Streight and an uncle of L. O. Minor of this city.

Funeral services will be held at Los Angeles, Dec. 9th and interment made either at Los Angeles or at Fort Worth, Texas, the home of Mrs. Vallery.

FLORIDA BOUND

The snow of last night that blocked the coming of the old time Nebraska winter season was too much for a trio of Plattsmouth young men, who today headed for the southland. The party comprised Tom Kriskey, Robert Slavicek and Don McCarroll.

The party has Florida as their destination and expect to have a great time in motoring through the south with Miami, Jacksonville, Palm Beach and Key West as their objective points.

ATTENDS CLERKS' MEETING

From Monday's Daily—Clerk of the District Court C. E. Ledgway was at Lincoln today where he was in attendance at the meeting of the district clerks' association which is meeting this week. Representatives from all of the counties of the states are expected to be in attendance.

PICK UP WANTED MAN

Sheriff Homer Sylvester Monday afternoon arrested George Marshall, wanted at Glenwood, Iowa, on a charge of forgery. The sheriff was notified that the man was thought to be coming this way en route west and accordingly he was arrested and held for Sheriff DeMoss of Mills county.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS

Mrs. A. F. Seybert has received a message from Pekin, Illinois in regard to the death of her cousin Dude Keil. Mr. Keil passed away yesterday. He leaves a wife, two sons, one daughter and two sisters. The funeral will be held Wednesday in Pekin.

CHEVIES WINNERS

The Chevrolets won three games last night from the Bestor and Swatek quintet. That puts the Chevrolets the winners of the first round. There are possibilities of plenty of competition the second round which will start next week. A schedule will be drawn up this week and the teams will know who bowls who. Ed Thingman was high with a 199 score.

CASE IS DISMISSED

In the trial of the case of the State of Nebraska vs. H. C. Mehlis, on the charge of forgery was dismissed on Saturday afternoon in the county court. The court held that the evidence in the case was insufficient to warrant a conviction and the defendant was accordingly released.

HONOR MEMORY OF FRIEND

In memory of Mrs. V. V. Leonard, by friends at the Masonic Home, a book has been presented to the public library here.

The book is "The Sod-House Frontier" by Everett Dick. It is a social history of the northern plains of Kansas and Nebraska up to the admission of the Dakotas into the union. The author spent five years in the writing of "Sod-House Frontier." In it he tells of every phase of the pioneer life from 1854 to 1890.

This fine book is an appropriate gift given in memory of one who was a pioneer in Nebraska and has experienced the hardships and trials of the early days.
