

NEW BOOKS

The second installment of books bought with the money given by school children has arrived and are on the shelf at the library. They are "Mystery of the Empty Room," "Riddle at Live Oaks," "Tinker of Stone Bluff" and "Ranching on Eagle Eye."

HOLDS SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION

Lute M. Savage, grand custodian of the grand lodge of the A. F. & A. M. of Nebraska, was here today to visit Plattsmouth lodge No. 6. A. F. & A. M. Mr. Savage conducted a school of instruction for the officers of the lodge this afternoon and evening.

AN APPRECIATION

We wish to express our deepest gratitude to the members of the Plattsmouth fire department for their excellent work in saving our home from destruction by fire. Their services will always be remembered. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spidell and family.

IN SERIOUS CONDITION

The condition of Miss Barbara Zitka who is at an Omaha hospital, suffering from pneumonia, is reported as being very critical and under constant care. Her condition has been such that the use of an oxygen tent has become necessary.

AN APPRECIATION

I wish to acknowledge the many cards, flowers and gifts from the friends in Plattsmouth and vicinity, received during my stay at the hospital at Rochester. These aided greatly in making the hospital stay more pleasant.—Amelia M. Friedrich.
