Platters Win from Weeping

Wooster Leads Locals in Scoring While Miller Stars in Defense Local Reserves Win.

From Wednesday's Daily-

Plattsmouth high's second triumph last evening, by a score of 34 to 19. tures of the Home. Paced by their scoring demon, Ray Wooster, the local boys had little T

After getting off to a bad start Ray found his basket eye and proceeded to sink 8 field goals and a free one for a grand total of 17 points. He was followed by his stalwart guard Reed, who showed well on defense, Many From Classes of Other Years and Miss Mayme Schwenneker. while also registering six points. John Jacobs, the Platters' flashy forward also sank three field goals for his contribution of six points, fol- From Wednesday's Dailylowed closely by Bob Hayes who aca gift shot. The great guarding of Miller, local star, was one of the features of the cil, presided. game as his fast and aggressive play broke up many of the visitors' plays and his judgment aided in making which was very much enjoyed as good many of the local scores.

Molden, known in the baseball circles as "Smoky," was the spark and Theodore Libershal, sang. in the Weeping Water attack, playing every minute, and displaying the alumni and Joe Hendrix, of the of the group of angels who formed chairman, and D. D. Wainscott, county asking you to help the wounded much of that never-say-die spirit, and class of '36 gave the response for also totaling nine points. Patterson, the alumni. a bid for scoring honors with his of '37 with a vocal solo. Donald the other visiting forward also made two goals and two free tosses.

proved too baffling for Weeping Wa- played a duet. ter, and as a result they fell in line as another victim of the blue and school and presented gifts to all the white's hustling cagesters.

Reservse Win 16 to 11 The Plattsmouth "future stars" garet Vallery assisted him. were too much for the Weeping Wathis team 16 to 11.

on to the ball at crucial moments group sang some Christmas carols, the Weeping Water boys were a very led by Lee Meyers, after which the stubborn bunch, and held Platts- mixed chorus sang Hallelujah Chorus mouth to eight baskets, four by Noble, three by Minor and one by accompanist during the program. Yelick. Shiffer was impressive by his hard fighting throughout the en-

Box score of first team game: Plattsmouth-

13

	16	2	5	34
Weeping Water-
	FG	FT	PF	TF
Molden, f	4	1	0	9
Patterson, f	2	2	0	- 6
Proll, e	1	0	0	2
Johnson, g	0	0	1	0
Everett, g	0	0	2
Aneberry, g	1	0	1	2

Referee-Ossian, Nebraska City; Scorer-Armtrong; Timer, D. Arm-

Sheriff Homer Sylvester was out and Mrs. E. C. Wilman. ty. A man driving a Chevrolet car holiday with relatives. with an Oklahoma license plate, had Miss Catherine Kimsey will be by the speaker. come to Nebraska City with a num- at Stella for the holiday and Miss ber of Buff Orpington chickens and Florence Beighley will spend Christ- sang, "O Holy Night" by Adams, the had tried to sell them. He claimed he mas at Greenwood with her relatives. accompaniment being played by E. son by the name that had been given relatives at Winnetoon. at Nebraska City.

Notice to the Public lowa where they are to enjoy vacation period with old friends.

Donat and Sharpnack liquor stores vacation at Seward with his rela- most attractive in the evening when will be closed from 10 a. m. to noon, tives. but will be open the remainder of program .- ANNA HARRIS, Teacher. home at Avoca for the holiday.

BOX AND PLATE SUPPER

VISIT MASONIC LODGES

William A. Robertson, grand master of the Nebraska Masons and William F. Evers, superintendent of the Water, 34 to 19 Masonic Home have visited two of the lodges in this section of the state of the season, was at the expense of lodge 163, of Greenwood to inspect a scrappy Weeping Water quintet the lodge and also to give the pic-

On Monday they visited Beatrice lodge No. 26, A. F. & A. M. where Mr. Robertson made his official visit and Mr. Evers gave pictures of the Home and its residents.

trouble downing the visting cage- Homecoming Program at the

Are Present to Enjoy Program and Visit Students.

A fine Christmas and homecoming counted for five with two goals and program was presented yesterday afternoon at the high school. Robert Woest, president of the student coun-

E. H. Wescott of the class of '97 spoke on "The Christmas Spirit," all his talks are. The boys' quartette, Dick Hall, Richard Cole, John Jacobs Robert Woest gave the welcome to

Harriett Goos represented the class

Cotner of '35 played a saxophone solo. Then he and Raymond Wooster Santa Claus then visited the high high school teachers. Jim Sandin played the part of Santa and Mar-

The girls' sextette, Helen Hiatt, ter second stringers, as they bested Shirley Petersen, Frances Cloidt, Shirley Seiver, Eleanor Minor, and Although they were unable to hold Betty Voboril, sang. Then the whole from the "Messiah." Jean Knorr was

The program committee consisted Carty, Ronald Rebal, John Bestor, Edwin Hiber and Ralph Stava.

There was a very fine attendance FG FT PF TP of the alumni from the classes of munity and which was attested by recent years to enjoy the program the many friends gathered for their 5 and to meet the members of the stu- last tributes. dent body of the present school.

From Wednesday's Daffyfrom out of the city departed last tragedy of life.

evening and today for their homes to celebrate the Christmas vacation participated in the services. which started Tuesday afternoon uary 3rd. Superintendent and Mrs. L. S. De-8 3 4 19 voe and children are to spend the Omaha for the services. holiday at Lincoln with relatives.

mie, departed this morning for Lincoln where they will be met by relawas farming near Murray and the Miss Dorothy Glock will be with H. Wescott. matter was accordingly reported to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. the Cass county sheriff. A search Glock at Plainview while Miss Garnet program chairman and the club had failed to give any trace of any per- Claire will spend her vacation with as guests Herbert and Clement

Coach and Mrs. Clark Boggess er, Elmer Sundstrom. departed this morning for Red Oak, lowa where they are to enjoy the HAVE ATTRACTIVE DECORATIONS

Lee Meyers of the music depart-On Saturday (Christmas Day), the ment of the schools, will spend the ing the last days before Christmas

Omaha with relatives.

Thursday evening, December 23, Island for the vacation and Miss very attractive electric lighted tree District No. 60, Murray. Christmas Birdle May Johnson will go to her that helps make Main street bright-

Candle Lighting Services Bring Christmas Story

Methodist Church Filled with Large Group of Worshipers to Witness Beautiful Scenes.

With reverence and beauty the year preceding the Christmas day. Candles were lighted in the win- gains offered. dows of the church and on the platform and where was presented the High School . The musical numbers were given by the choir of the church with solo parts by Edgar Wescott of Lincoln Mrs. W. L. Heinrich served as story of the birth and adoration of the Christ child.

the reader of the story. The role of Mary, the mother, was taken by Mayme Schwenneker and that of Joseph by Roy Schwenneker. The three kings who came with Joan Hall, Jacqueline Lamphere and vation program. Herbert Babbitt.

and James Yelick. Mrs. Howard Davis was the leader

ner, Louise Walters, Mary and out. Thelma Capper.

FUNERAL OF BARBARA ZITKA

From Wednesday's Daily-

of Dick Hall, chairman; Ben Mc- the church was filled to its capacity. posed.

brought a great sorrow to the com- gram in Plattsmouth precinct.

Father J. R. Sinkula, pastor of The members of the teaching force tion to those who have faced this 36th birthday.

and will continue until Monday, Jan- cemetery in the west part of the were served, then the guests depart- The house was badly damaged and A large number were here from happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Price and Jim- ROTARIANS HEAR A FINE TALK Puls, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Friedrich,

Rev. J. C. Lowson, pastor of the in the vicinity of Murray Sunday Miss Hazel Korbel and L. R. Ger- Stewart cafe. Rev. Lowson took as and the guest of honor, Raymond has spent the years here in operation to investigate a chicken stealing ner are both returning to their homes his subject, "The Power That Holds Hild and family. case for Sheriff Ryder of Otoe coun- at Crete where they will spend the Things," a message of the Christmas season that was very ably presented

Preceding the talk Frank A. Cloidt

Judge A. H. Duxbury was the Sundstrom who were with their fath-

Street decorations are now makthese handsome trees are aglow with Miss Jean Ray is at Chadron for varied colored lights. The H. M. the holiday period and Miss Lois Soennichsen Co., have their large Brandhorst is to spend her time in tree arranged now and which sends out its colorful greeting, while across Miss Frances Schmitt is at Grand the street the Pease shop also has a

TRADING VERY BRISK

The business houses of the city did a very fine business on Saturday afternoon and evening, the large crowd here for the Santa Claus observance taking advantage of the occasion to look after their shopping for the holiday.

It was one of the very best days so far in gift lines and as well as the staple goods. The excellent prices which were On Tuesday they visited Unity story of the Nativity was presented advertised by the local merchants in Sunday afternoon at the First Meth- the Journal afforded a very good odist church, featured by the candle- shoppers guide and which gave the lighting services which is held each residents of the community a chance to take full advantage of the bar-

Meeting for Discussion of

Large Number Attend Meeting at the Court House to Hear Proposals of 1938 Plans.

the shepherds to pay their tribute the land owners and farmers of sacred treaties. were enacted by Judge A. H. Dux- Plattsmouth precinct and Cass county bury, L. S. Devoe and J. Howard were here to participate in the dis- because I am sure that if your coun-Davis, who had as their attendants, cussion of the agricultural conser- try were in such a state that my lowa, the nuptials being very quietly has been selected by the county com-

The shepherds were Allan White, 125 to 150 of the interested parties do something big for your country, Robert Hayes, Stephen Devoe, Robert and was called to order by E. H. and so do I, but as I am too young to Spangler, precinct chairman.

their group around the manger where ty agent, gave their impressions of the Christ child lay. In this group the proposed plan which will pro- I am greatly interested in Red ing for Kansas for a short visit with Have Excelled in 4-H Club Work." there were Ruth Ann Hatt, Jane vide benefits for the farmers who sub- Cross work and I enclose a Red Cross relatives and from there go to Baton | Junior Kiser, Oren Raymond Pol-Persinger, Anna Mary McMaken, scribe to the provisions of the 1938 letter which I earnestly request you Rouge, Louisiana, where they will be lard, Malcolm Pollard and Robert Alice Zatopek, Shirley Mason, Alice conservation program now being to spare a few moments to read, beand Catherine Grosshans, Charlotte formulated in congress but the exact suffering and how you and your the latter a sister of Mr. Krejci. dates for trips to the 1938 4-H Club Palmer, Opal Byers, Katherine Bar- details of which are not clear until friends can help us. Your generous Following their honeymoon they Week at Lincoln awarded by the kus, Maxine Broman, Charlotte Cot- the conference measure is reported and immediate help will be heartily will return to Sheldon, Iowa, where Crete Mills to outstanding dairy,

The church was filled to its been suggested seemed to be the most on this letter and are sending it to capacity and many from out of the discussed feature among the mem- leading, important and prominent institutions of northwestern Iowa. sponsored by Ball Bros. company is city were here to enjoy the fine pre- bers of the farm group, many oppos- club presidents in the United States. The groom was born and grew up trying for the state award which is ing any regimental legislation.

John Halmes discussed the marketing features of the bill relative to club. price standards to be set or maintained.

The funeral services of the late Others to speak were Attorney D. Barbara Jane Zitka were held this O. Dwyer, Searl S. Davis, Miss Minnie morning at the Holy Rosary church Guthmann on the compulsory feain the west part of the city where tures of any law that might be prothe 19th year of her youth has the chairman of the conservation pro- was destroyed by fire at an early belonging to Arthur D. Emerson, of bers.

PLEASANT SURPRISE PARTY

The time passed pleasantly in play- ond floor. The interment was at the Catholic ladies. At a late hour refreshments noticed.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. in that neighborhood. P. A. Hild, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mr. and Mrs. John Hild and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hild and family the Rotary club on Tuesday at the Iola Rosencrantz, Dorothy Ruffner

Phone news Items to No. 6.

TO DISTRIBUTE TOYS TO SCORES OF CHILDREN

The American Legion Auxiliary's distribution of toys is intended to reach every child who might not be visited by Santa this year. The rejuvenation of toys collected at the Cass Theatre matinee and received from other sources will be completed by tomorrow. Recreation Center employees have put in long hours to get this task completed and will have everything ready in ample time.

Anyone knowing of families on whom Santa might not otherwise call are urged to phone their names and addresses to Mrs. Otto Keck, 659-J, or Mrs. Elmer Webb Webb, 139-W, by tonight, giving if possible, the names and ages of

China Boy's Letter to Rotary is Interesting

President E. H. Schulhof Receives Interesting Letter From Hankow, Now China Capital.

A very interesting letter has been eceived here by E. H. Schulhof, the president of the local Rotary club. oming from a Chinese youth at Hankow, China, the seat of the present government and some 400 miles west Mills county with the exception of ships, trophies, feed, etc. In many of Nanking, the fallen capital city. Mrs. Detlef. The letter follows:

The Muncipal School Hankow, China, Nov. 7, 1937.

You will perhaps be surprised and at the same time glad to receive from Chinese schoolboy a letter written Conservation in your own language. My name in English is Lee Shen-Chen.

You must have read from the broadcast what has been taking place in China during the last few months. My country is fighting not only for her own existence, but laso for the Monday evening a large group of maintenance of world peace and which I respectfully ask you to read country is today, when you were of celebrated. The meeting was attended by from my age or if you had a son of my Edward Steinkamp, the county present, I am helping the Interna- groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. basis: 50 per cent on project and 50 by asking you to help the wounded and the suffering.

The compulsory features that have memory of my fellow countrymen. one and hope you will read this let-

and all members of your club. Your Little Chinese Friend, in the west. LEE SHEN-CHEN.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME

The residence on west Vine street, at once given. The fire had a good one seriously hurt.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Sunday was the sixty-seventh INVESTIGATE CHICKEN STEALING tives and go to Martel where they First Methodist church, was the Mrs Esther Whitley, Robert Puls, birthday anniversary of B. W. Livwill visit Mrs. Price's parents, Mr. speaker at the weekly luncheon of Malinda Friedrich, Marie Thomason, ingston, one of the prominent residents of the community and one who of farms.

The family is now living at the Rising farm near Cedar Creek and here the pleasant family dinner was staged and at which the guest of honor was showered with well wishes from the members of the group.

During the day Mr. Livingston received a call from his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Dr Rising at Los Angeles where they have been making their home for several months.

HERE FROM WASHINGTON

A. W. Farmer, who is engaged with the Farm Security Administration at Washington, D. C., is home to spend Christmas with his parents, past several years, first with the re- Mr. and Mrs. James Nowacek, Sr. settlement administration and which is now merged into the farm security You always get fairest treatdepartment. He expects to return to ment from your home town mer-Washington the middle of next week. chant.

RETURNS FROM SAD MISSION

Mrs. Frank Detlef of this city has returned home from Glenwood, Iowa, where she has been during the last illness and death of her father, Fred Tuchenberger, 89, one of the long time residents of Mills county.

Mr. Tuchenberger has been in fail- Reports and Stories Filed in the ing health for some time and passed away on Thursday and the funeral services were held Sunday at Glenwood with the interment at that newspapers or heard from radio Joseph A. Krejci and Miss Dorothy award of trips to the National 4-H Evans of Orange City, Iowa, Married at Sioux City.

Plattsmouth Young Man Weds an Iowa Girl

of this city and Miss Dorothy Evans, the highest honor a 4-H member can of Orange City, Iowa, occurred on attain, the competition is very keen.

day were guests of honor at a family at $75 per year awarded to two 4-H do anything big for my country at dinner party at the home of the members in the state on the following

Krejci in the west part of the city. per cent on essay written on "Value

CARS HAVE SMASHUP

Monday afternoon the Ford coupe offered by the Omaha Chamber of The death of the young girl, in E. H. Spangler was re-elected as occupied by the O. R. Wilcox family, of Louis Schiess! and a Dodge sedan Commerce for girls room club memhour Sunday. The fire was discovered Omaha, crashed on the Louisville Stuart Mills of Murdock is trying shortly after three o'clock Sunday road six miles west of this city, dam- for a Club Week trip offered by the morning by neighbors and the alarm aging both cars a great deal but no Omaha Union Stock Yards to corn

Last Sunday evening a group of start and was burning freely when Mr. Schiessl was returning home trying for a similar trip given by the church, celebrated the requiem relatives and friends gathered at the members of the fire department from Plattsmouth and was just start- the Sioux City Stock Yards to high TEACHERS LEAVE FOR HOLIDAYS high mass of the church and in his the home of Raymond Hild on Pearl reached the scene. The fire appar- ing to turn toward the driveway ranking swine club members. sermon brought words of consola- street and surprised Raymond on his ently started in a small closet be- leading into his farm on the south | The Blue Ribbon Baby Beef club, neath the stairs leading to the sec- of the highway when the car driven James Schafer leader, and the Early by Mr. Emerson came from the west. Bird Poultry club, Oren Pollard lead-The Holy Rosary soladity of which ing pinochle of which W. H. Puls None of the family was home at The impact of the cars was so great er, are competing for state trophies in the various sections of the state the deceased had been a member, won high score for the men and the time of the fire and it had been that both were turned around and awarded the outstanding baby beef Mrs. P. A. Hild high score for the burning for some time when it was the right front of the Schiessl car and poultry clubs in the state by the almost demolished.

A. C. Wilson, of Omaha, who was ed wishing Raymond many more sparks from the building for a time riding with Mr. Emerson, sustained Pollard have filed reports of their seemed to endanger other properties a cut on the forehead and one over activitis in Wild Life Conservation to the eye where he had struck his head compete for prize trips to the 1938 against the windshield, while Mr. Wild Life Conservation camp at Schiessl had his right leg bruised and Seward. Several other club members skinned up and made getting around are competing for prizes of feed a matter of difficulty. Wilson was awards donated by the Crete Mills treated here at the office of Dr. O. C. in countles filing the largest number Hudson and later went on to his of final reports in the various livehome in Omaha.

Sheriff Homer Sylvester and Deputy Sheriff Cass Sylvester were call- their accomplishments and wish for ed to the scene of action and marked them success in their efforts to win out the details of the accident.

SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

The reports from the Immanuel From Wednesday's Dallyhospital at Omaha are to the effect that Alvin Meisinger, well known young farmer of this community, is a dancing party at the Eagles hall, rallying very nicely from a recent ap. a large group of the young people pendectomy. Mr. Meisinger is im- attending and enjoying the dance. proving very rapidly and which has been most pleasing to the large circle guardian of the bethel and a numof friends.

HERE FROM COLLEGE

John Kelly and Faustine Nowacek Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Farmer. Mr. from the St. Benedict college in Farmer, who was formerly clerk in Atchison, Kansas are here to spend Lois Giles and James and Cecil Comthe office of County Judge A. H. Dux- the holiday season with their parents, stock have all come home from the bury, has been at Washington for the Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly and University of Nebraska for the

Cass County 4-H Clubbers Try for Awards

State Club Office at Lincoln for the Tests.

A large number of 4-H club members from Cass county have filed He is survived by the aged widow, reports and stories in the state club who is 82 years of age, three daugh- office at Lincoln, for consideration ters and two sons, all residing in of special awards of trips, scholarcases eliminations had to be made in the county where more than one member competed for the same prize, as the county is entitled to only one candidate for each award.

Ruth Ann Sheldon of Nehawka and Clyde Althouse of Eagle who have outstanding 4-H records over a period of years have filed their reports to be given consideration in the Club Camp at Washington, D. C. in June 1938. The state will be represented at this camp by two girls and The marriage of Joseph A. Krejci two boys and as this is considered

Saturday afternoon at Sioux City, Miss Dorothy Tyson of Nehawka mittee to try for a scholarship offered Mr. and Mrs. Krejci came to this by Nebraska Westleyan University. ity following the wedding and Sun- This is a four-year scholarship valued The newlyweds departed this morn- of a College Education to Those Who guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Griffin, Schneider are Cass county's candiwelcome and forever remain in the Mr. Krejci is an instructor and poultry, swine and baby beef club Boys in our school have decided athletic coach in the Sheldon junior members. Miss Doris Anderson who This is why I am sending you this here and graduated from the local a trip to Club Week with all expenses one and nope you will read this let-ter and its enclosure to your Rotary school in 1925, later graduating from paid. Idella Buell of Murdock has Peur, where he was an outstanding filed her report and story which en-Merry Christmas greetings to you athlete and since graduation has been titles her to compete for a trip to engaged in the teaching profession Club Week given by the Omaha Chamber of Commerce to high ranking county clothing members. Whipple Leonard of Plattsmouth is the county candidate for a similar trip club members and George Oberle is Gooch Milling company. Irene Tyson and Oren Raymond stock projects.

We congratulate these members on a share of these state awards.

HAVE PLEASANT DANCE

Last evening the local bethel of the Joh's Daughters entertained at

The event was chaperoned by the ber of the Masons and their wives. Music was furnished by the Avalon ## orchestra of Omaha.

HERE FROM UNIVERSITY Herbert Minor, Edward Hadraba, Christmas holidays. Stuart Porter came home from Tarkio.

Your courtesy in phoning news to No. 6 is appreciated.