

Wedding of Former Local Girl in Iowa

Miss Ruth Huncke Is Bride of Mr. Roland Willey in a Very Charming Church Wedding.

The marriage vows of Miss Ruth Huncke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Huncke, and Roland Willey, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Willey, were exchanged at a ceremony at First Methodist Episcopal church at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, December 31, Dr. W. T. Smith read the service in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Before the ceremony Miss Lois Ackerman sang "I Love Thee," by Grieg. She was accompanied by Mrs. James E. Jamison, who also played nuptial music during the ceremony. The choir of the church sang Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal party entered the church.

Bride in Spruce Green.

The bride wore a spruce green lace dress over taffeta made redingote style and gold sandals. She wore a band of gold gardenias in her hair and a brooch given to her by her grandmother, Mrs. Enger, who wore the pin on her wedding day. She also wore a ring worn by her great-grandmother on her wedding day. The bride's bouquet was of yellow Pernet roses.

Miss Winifred Willey, sister of the bridegroom, who served as bridesmaid, was attired in a zinnia rust taffeta dress, made floor length, and gold sandals and accessories. She carried an arm bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Sherman Harmer was the bridegroom's attendant, and Kenneth and Clyde Huncke, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

Reception in Church Parlors.

A reception followed in the church parlors, and among the 75 guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Heinrich of Plattsmouth, Neb.; Mrs. A.

F. Sanders of Cedar Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Bell, Miss Helen Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Bell and family of Donnellson.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Willey were graduated from Burlington high school. Mr. Willey is employed in the composing room at The Daily Hawke-Eye Gazette. They are residing at 805 South Tenth street, Burlington.—Burlington Hawke-Eye Gazette.

ASSISTANCE PAYMENT INCREASE

LINCOLN, Jan. 12 (UP)—Old age assistance payments increased approximately 12 per cent last month over the preceding month State Assistance Director Niel C. Vandemoer announced today. The total number of recipients last month was 25,763. They received a total of $429,569, an average of $16.67 per person. The average payment in November was $14.95, in October, $13.89.

The assistance department was able to increase the payments by obtaining permission from Governor Cochran and State Auditor W. H. Price to use more than the quarterly budget specified.

The increase extended also to aid for dependent children and the blind. The average for dependent children increased from $23.78 to $25.49 from the previous month. The average blind grant increased from $19.17 to $19.55.

INCREASE CONTOUR FARMING

LINCOLN, Jan. 12 (UP)—Because of the abnormally low precipitation last fall a large increase in contour farming and basin listing was predicted by H. E. Engstrom, state coordinator for the soil conservation service here today.

"More Nebraska corn rows will be run around hills in 1938 than ever before," said Engstrom. "Increased yields due to contour farming in 1937 will help boost the spread of the soil and moisture conserving practice in 1938. Last year many farmers reported increases of 10 to 20 bushels per acre on contour tilled fields than on acres not so drilled."

Weeping Water

Lieutenant Powell of the CCC camp was over to Lincoln last Tuesday to look after some business for the camp. Mrs. Alice Hay of near Elmwood was a visitor in Weeping Water, was enjoying a visit with friends and looking after some business matters.

The Friendly Ladies were meeting at the home of their fellow member Mrs. Emerson Dowler on Wednesday of this week where they had a very fine meeting and program.

Onis Wright of Omaha, formerly of Weeping Water, was a visitor in this city for the day last Monday and was looking after some business matters as well as visiting his many friends.

R. I. Compton of Yates Center, Kansas where he has been making his home for some years arrived in Weeping Water to visit with friends and look after some business matters for a few days.

Guy Buchanan and family living south of Nehawka were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Askew where both the guests and host and hostess enjoyed the visit very much.

Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Stuart of Eagle where the doctor is a practicing physician were the guests for the day and a very fine dinner in Weeping Water last Sunday, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Prall.

Back to Home in West.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Oldham who were visiting in Weeping Water and started home on Monday morning of last week, arrived at their destination on the following Wednesday at midnight, being on the way just three days. They made the trip via the northern route, which is considerably farther and while they enjoyed their visit here greatly they were glad to be back home again and at their work there.

Hears Former Citizen Had Died.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Prall received the information that a former neighbor and friend, Mrs. John Van Clason of Lexington had died last Friday. Mrs. Van Clason was formerly Miss Rose Chandler and lived in Weeping Water years ago, having their home in Weeping Water and as well some seven miles northeast of town. They removed from here several years ago and when Mr. and Mrs. Prall made their home in the west part of the state they were close neighbors. The deceased leaves five children besides the sorrowing husband to mourn her passing. The deceased was 69 years of age.

Will Visit Here Soon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Homan received a letter from a sister of Mrs. Homan, Mrs. Ruth Clarke who makes her home at Mapton, Washington, where she has been staying with her parents, John S. Hall and wife, whom she reports being in good health, and liking their home in the northwest. She expects to visit here soon.

Jolly Mixers Mix.

The members of the Jolly Mixers were gathered on Tuesday of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Jorgensen where they enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon.

Enjoyed Family Dinner Sunday.

The members of the family of former County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder came to visit at his home last Sunday. They did not say anything about it to Fred but they did bring a good portion of good eats along and say how they did surprise Fred and had a good time on the anniversary of his birth.

Visiting Here From West.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Reed, the former a son of Mr. Ike Reed who some time ago went to the Pacific coast and has been making his home in Los Angeles, arrived in Weeping Water the first of the week and is a guest of his father, as well as at the home of his sister, Mrs. Lenore Luhring.

Interchurch Brotherhood Meets.

At the parlors of the Congregational church of Weeping Water last Monday evening was gathered the Interchurch Brotherhood when they met and enjoyed a social time, with good eats for those who were present to listen to the address of Dr. Flynn, physician at the CCC camp in Weeping Water. Senator Fred L. Carsten and our townsman, Troy L. Davis. The Brotherhood was formerly an auxiliary of the Methodist church, but was reorganized with the beginning of the winter season, incorporating members of the Congregational church and as well citizens of Weeping Water not members of either denomination.

Rock surfaced roads are putting Plattsmouth in closer touch with a rich farm territory.

BIFF PROUD OF PLAYERS

LINCOLN, Jan. 10 (UP)—Coach Biff Jones, returned from a trip to the west coast where he helped tutor an underrated West all-star team into a scoreless tie with a highly touted eastern aggregation, said today he was "glad to get back into the football harness again."

"Spring practice is only a couple months away, you know," he said. The Biffer confirmed a widely held conviction in this section—that mid-west players started in the New Year's battle at San Francisco.

"I was mighty proud of our Nebraska boys, Elmer Dohrmann and Fred Shirey," he said. "In fact, all the players from this section, particularly Mickey Parks of Oklahoma, performed very creditably."

P. F. PETERSEN INJURED

OMAHA, Jan. 11 (UP)—Peter F. Petersen, 75, president of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce was seriously injured today when struck by a motorcycle operated by Elio D'Agosta of Omaha.

Petersen suffered a fractured right hip and a badly cut hand as well as body bruises.

Police were not informed of the accident for several hours. After an investigation the arrest of D'Agosta on a reckless driving charge was ordered. Physicians feared that because of his advanced age Petersen's injuries may prove serious.

"PARTY DRIVING" BECOMES PAYING JOB AT COLLEGE

DENVER (UP)—University students' ingenuity has created a new method of earning money to defray expenses. The latest wrinkle is "party driving."

The "party drivers" guarantee sober driving for students on parties. Denver police have started to arrest several drivers of late whose cars were filled with singing, shouting college students, only to be checked by the explanation—"I'm a party driver."

CHRYSLER RESUMES WORK

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 11 (UP)—Chrysler Corporation resumed production in all divisions today with 55,000 employees back at work after a shut down which started December 23. Corporation officials said the men would work on a 24 or 32 hour week basis depending on the volume of orders.

FOSTER LUMBER MAN KILLED

FOSTER, Neb., Jan. 11 (UP)—William Reikofski, 33, lumber and grain dealer, was instantly killed in an attempt to put dressing on the belt of a motor in his elevator here while the motor was running. Roy Story, bookkeeper, found the body. Reikofski is survived by four sons and five daughters.

JUG OF "CORN" AGED IN SOIL

PUEBLO, Colo. (UP)—Sherman Adams unearthed a gallon-jug of corn whisky, while digging a post hole for a fence at his home here. Adams could not tell how long it had been buried, but reported that it was about the "best" stuff he ever encountered.
