LEAVES FOR TRAINING

From Wednesday's Daily—This afternoon Richard Rea, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Rea, departed from Omaha for Chicago where he will enter the Great Lakes naval training station. The young man passed all tests this morning and with a number of other young recruits will leave for the training quarters.

From Wednesday's Daily—Dude Foster, Dave Eaton, and Carl Balfour, all of Union, were in Plattsmouth yesterday.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Tuesday, February 15th, was the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hill, well known residents of this section of Cass county, and in honor of the occasion a group of the relatives were entertained at their farm home.

The snowy weather served to keep a number from making the trip but those who ventured out to the farm had a most delightful time in cards and visiting for several hours. In playing pinochle the high score for the gentlemen was won by P. A. Hill and Mrs. Raymond Hill secured the high score for the ladies.

At an appropriate hour the members of the party enjoyed a very delicious luncheon that brought the pleasant event to a close.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puls, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hill of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gansmer and children of Murray and the Ernest Hill and family, Mrs. Franke and Helen, mother and sister of Mrs. Hill.

Poultry Wanted Friday, Saturday

Low priced eggs has had its effect on the Poultry market. Consequently, Poultry is about 4 to 5 cents lower than the high point ten days ago. If we were to quote you prices today, they might be too high or too low. So, if you have Poultry to sell, ask that you please call or see us for latest spot quotations before disposing of same. Cream and Eggs are steady today. Hides, 2 1/2c straight. We don't trim your hides.
