Arthur Copenhaver Takes Life

Body Discovered by Wife in Shed at Family Home in Southwest Part of the City.

From Wednesday's Daitynear the golf course.

Mr. Copenhaver had arisen as usual and dressed and seemed in his usual health and spirits, going from the house to the barn, and shortly after this Mrs. Copenhaver heard the sound of a shot and ran to the barn. finding the husband lying in a small shed attached to the barn, he being drenched in blood from great gaping wounds in the head.

She at once called help and Dr. O. C. Hudson, Carl Ofe, Edward Ofe, Robert Gray and Ray Misner of the local Red Cross first aid staff hasten-
