

MAIL CARRIER ARRESTED

From Wednesday's Daily—
This morning the state highway patrol stopped M. P. Weeldon, carrier of the U. S. mail from the local postoffice to the depots and Oreapolis and filed a complaint against him in the office of County Attorney J. A. Capwell.

The complaint signed by Harold D. Smith, patrolman, charged Mr. Weeldon with driving onto a state highway without bringing his car to a full stop as provided by law.

The defendant was given a fine for the offense which was later suspended and he to pay the costs.

PLANT CLOSES

From Monday's Daily—
The packing plant of the Norfolk Packing Co. was closed today owing to the death of A. E. Stewart, manager of the plant here. The business office attended to what business was necessary but the rest of the plant was closed.

VISITS AT LINCOLN

Mr. and Mrs. George Hall and son, Wilbur, were at Lincoln Sunday, spending a few hours there with Robert Hall, a student at the University of Nebraska.

FUNERAL OF JOHN L. SMITH

The funeral services of John L. Smith, long time resident of the vicinity of Nehawka, was held at the U. B. church there on Sunday afternoon. The services were very largely attended by the old friends from that portion of Cass county to pay their last tributes to the memory of the departed.

Rev. A. B. Small, pastor of the United Brethren church conducted the services and paid a fine tribute to the long and useful life of the departed friend and neighbor.

Mrs. Eugene Nutzman and Mrs. Kuntz gave several of the old hymns with Mrs. Hansen as the accompanist.

The pall bearers were Albert Lloyd, Conrad Johnson, Anderson Lloyd, Alfred Dean, Frank Marler and Edward Kniss and the interment at the Otterbein cemetery.

HAS DELIGHTFUL TRIP

From Tuesday's Daily—
Mrs. Henry Herold returned this morning from a most delightful visit in the east and south that has covered several weeks. Mrs. Herold spent a great deal of the time at New York City with her son, Matthew Gering Herold, member of one of the leading law firms of the national metropolis, and her daughter Ursula.

After visiting the points of interest Mrs. Herold started homeward and enjoyed a five day trip by water from New York to Houston, Texas, the vessel not being in sight of land at any time on the coastwise journey. She enjoyed thoroughly the ocean voyage and felt much refreshed when reaching Miami, the first port. Mrs. Herold also visited at Houston, Texas, with Mr. and Mrs. John Wellington, Mrs. Wellington being formerly Miss Hattie Latham of this city and a girlhood friend of Mrs. Herold. The Wellingtons had located at Houston when it was but a city of 17,000 and now has a population of 300,000 and the metropolis of Texas.

Mrs. Herold en route home stopped to visit her youngest son, Henry Robert Herold, at Oklahoma City and then came on to Plattsmouth and the old home.

The visit was one she long will remember very delightfully.

RIVERVIEW CLUB

The Riverview club met on Tuesday, February 15 at the home of Mrs. Frank Hull. Hostesses were Mrs. Phil and Mrs. Ben Hull.

Eight members were present, also several visitors. The lesson on "Patterns and their Uses" was given by the leaders.

A shower was had for one of the club members. A delicious lunch was served.

The next meeting will be on March 15 with Mrs. R. Patterson.

CLUB REPORTER.

OBSERVE ASH WEDNESDAY

From Monday's Daily—
Ash Wednesday, the first day of the Lenten season, was observed today in the local churches both in the morning and the services this evening at the houses of worship.

The opening of lent was observed with special services at the St. John's and Holy Rosary Catholic churches and the St. Luke's Episcopal church this morning and with the placing of the blessed ashes.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of thanking our friends for all their kindnesses shown us at the time of the death of our son and brother. Their thoughtfulness will long be remembered. Mrs. Bessie Copenhagen and children.

BREAK OPEN DOOR

The night police last evening discovered a door at the A. R. Case poultry and cream station broken but as far as can be ascertained nothing had been taken.

HAS A FINE SALE

The sale held Saturday afternoon at the Glen Valley sales yards on Pearl street drew a very large crowd from this section of the country to participate in the sale and to take advantage of the fine array of stock, machinery and other articles that were offered for sale.

Rex Young, veteran auctioneer, conducted the sale in his usual able manner and good prices and excellent stock and machinery were offered to the patrons at good prices.

MARRIED AT COURT HOUSE

Saturday afternoon at the court house occurred the marriage of Miss Sally Ann Marino and Paul Andrew Schwartz, both of Omaha. The young people motored to this city to have the ceremony performed by Judge Duxbury who carried out the rites in his usual impressive manner.

SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

Rex Bourne, who has been confined to his home since Friday, is reported as showing some improvement but is still forced to remain in bed. He is suffering from a rupture and which makes necessary his remaining very quiet for some time.
