

Elmwood News

Henry Mollen made a business trip to Lincoln on the bus line the fore part of last week.

Alfred Race and wife and Mrs. R. M. Dennis were looking after business in Plattsmouth the fore part of last week.

Edward Nelson, proprietor of the gift shop was looking after business in Weeping Water Tuesday forenoon of last week.

Minton V. Woods was a visitor in Murdock and also at the farm home of Henry C. Backemeyer, county commissioner, Tuesday afternoon.

While Ronald Schlichtemeier was out of town on a business mission one day last week, business at the garage was looked after by James L. Hayes.

John Wood of Wabash was a visitor in Elmwood last Tuesday, looking after business matters and visiting his brother, Minton V. Woods for a short time.

Grandmother Raney, who operates a hospital in Weeping Water, was a visitor in Elmwood last Tuesday afternoon, being a guest of her friend Mrs. William Flaishman.

T. L. Colburn, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Kansas City during the past two weeks, returned home last Sunday and reports having had a very pleasant time.

William Schewe of near Murdock was a business visitor in Elmwood Tuesday of last week, coming for Dr. Wilson, the veterinarian, as Mr. Schewe had some stock shipped out of the state which had to be inspected.

Asa Fellers who has been at the hospital in Omaha for some time, where he underwent an operation, is reported as getting along only fair. Many of his friends have called on him at St. Joseph hospital.

Edward F. Denny of Avesca was a business visitor in Elmwood last Tuesday afternoon, coming to see Arley Clement, who operates the elevator and mill here, and also having business to look after at the Elmwood bank.

Carl Schneider, of Lexington, was an over-Sunday guest of his wife and the folks here. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reeder and their twin daughters of Plattsmouth also came over to spend the day, making a very happy family gathering at the Harry Williams home.

Entertained at Bridge
Mr. and Mrs. Emil Rosnow entertained the members of the More Intelligent Bridge club last Tuesday evening. At the conclusion of the playing a delicious luncheon was served.

Entertained Friends Sunday
Rev. F. L. Wigart and wife entertained relatives and friends at their home in Elmwood last Sunday. Included in the list of guests were Walter Wigart and family, of Omaha, Harry Greene and wife of Elmwood and Frank Schroeder and family of Wahoo. A sumptuous dinner was served and the occasion enjoyed by all present.

To Return About April 1st
Charles Gerbeling and his son, Floyd, with whom he has been making his home at Plattsmouth during the winter, were in Elmwood last Tuesday for a brief business visit. The father will continue his residence in Plattsmouth until about the first of April, when he will return to Elmwood to make his home during the summer.

Threw Away Her Crutches
Mrs. Herman Penterman, who was severely injured a number of months ago when she tripped on the street and fractured one of her ankles, has been allowed to discard her crutches during the past week. There was a long period from the time of her injury that she was unable to get about at all, and then for the past fortnight or more she has been getting about with crutches. Now that she has been able to discard them and get about freely she feels like a bird released from its cage.

Not the Boys This Time
It has been an unflinching sign for years that when the boys get intensely interested in the game of marbles, spring is knocking at our door. While the youths have not been so prominent, there is another equally reliable sign and that is when the men folks start in playing horseshoe, as they have here the past week. Not only have there been many players, but even larger numbers gathered about to watch the progress of the game—so it would seem that spring is really here.

85th Birthday Anniversary
Mrs. Jennie Rouse, more familiarly known as Grandma Rouse, of Alvo, kept open house one day last week in honor of the passing of her 85th birthday anniversary. Many of the friends of this excellent woman who has resided in Cass county more than half a century and done her part in bringing the country from its raw, sparsely inhabited state to fertile productivity and modern conveniences, called on her to extend their congratulations. Among them were a number from Elmwood who went over, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene and Mrs. Waitz, to greet their old friend and wish her many more happy and healthy years.

Married Sixty Years
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marshall observed their sixtieth wedding anniversary on Valentine day, Monday, February 14. We regret the delay in learning of this important news item and pass it on to our readers now—a month later. In honor of the occasion, they were greeted by many friends. They have resided in Cass county a long time and have had much to do with the development of Nebraska. Even now Mr. Marshall continues very active for a man of his age and within the past week he made a business trip to Lincoln. He is preparing to start out soon on his duties as assessor, an office he has held for some time.

Iowa-Nebraska Company Makes Rate Reduction

Manager Fred I. Rea Announces Lower Rate for Plattsmouth—9th Reduction Since 1924.

Another general reduction in electric rates for customers of the Iowa-Nebraska Light and Power company in Plattsmouth was announced here today by F. I. Rea, manager of the Plattsmouth district. The new rate schedule, announced today, is the ninth reduction the company has made in Plattsmouth since 1924.

This is a rate reduction which benefits every residential and commercial customer in Plattsmouth as there will be more kilowatt hours available for the minimum of $1.60. In addition a rate of 2 1/2 cents per kilowatt hour for all residential consumption over 50 kilowatt hours. The former rate for this block was 2 3/4 cents per kilowatt hour. An entirely new block of 2 cents per kilowatt hour has been inserted for all consumption over 200 kilowatt hours.

For commercial customers, two new rate blocks have been announced in addition to including more kilowatt hours for the minimum. All consumption over 500 kilowatt hours per month will be billed at 2 1/2 cents per kilowatt hour rather than the former rate of 3 cents per kilowatt hour and a new block of 2 cents per kilowatt hour has been inserted for very large consumptions.

A new and lower power rate schedule has been put into effect which will benefit power users substantially.

The rate reduction is general in the properties served by the Iowa-Nebraska Light and Power company and is in line with the long established policy of the company to reduce rates as conditions warrant. While wages, material, taxes and all other costs of operation are higher, increased consumption has been helpful in making this reduced rate schedule possible. The over all cost of the reduction to the company throughout the entire territory is approximately $200,000.

The new rates become effective immediately, according to the district manager's announcement, and will begin with meter readings after March 25, which means that bills rendered after April 1 will be computed on the new schedule.

OUR PHOTO-FLASHES

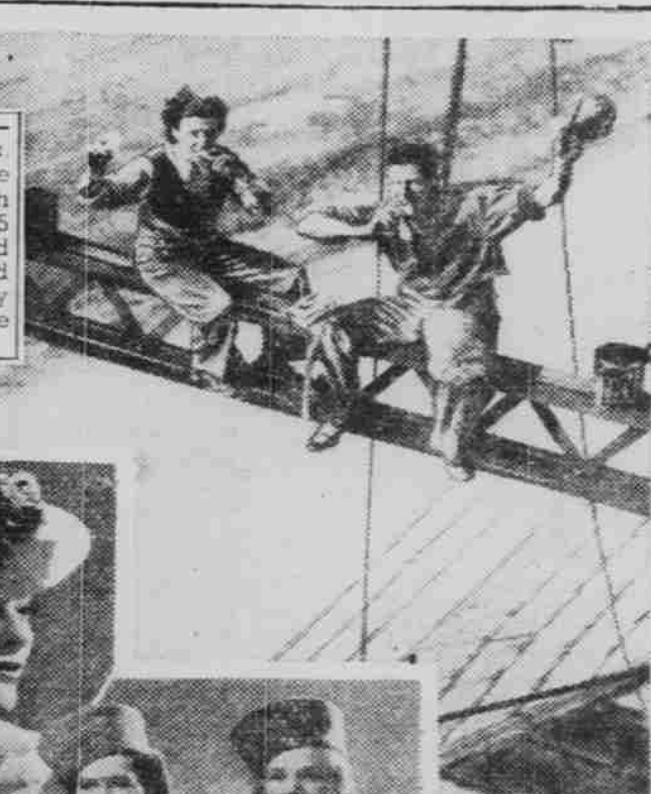

Pres. Roosevelt buys the first sheet of Wildlife stamps, commemorating March 20 to 25 as Wildlife Week. Stamps are sold to the President by Minor Hudson of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, who is accompanied by Fred Jordan, director of Wildlife Week.

Here's Hoping—Betty Grable points to the lucky design in her luncheon, which was suddenly discovered after its purchase.

A Real Partnership—For McPherson, Ga.—Frank Pettibone and his wife Ruth enjoy their lunch 175 feet in the air—and like it! They are said to be the only stepladder couple in the U. S.

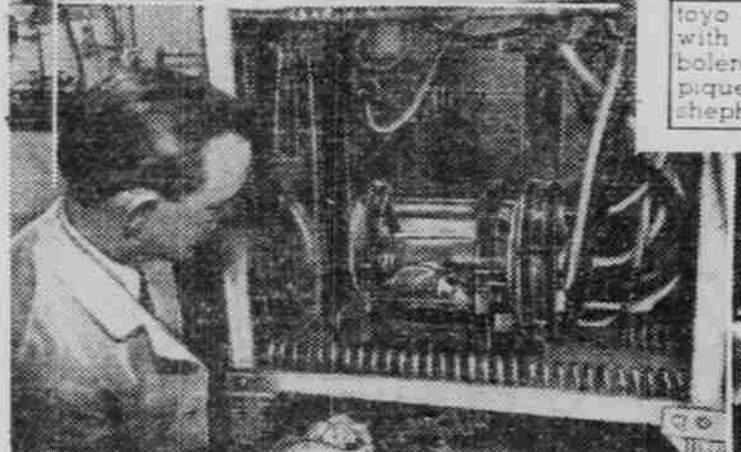

World's Longest Mustache—Quite a stretch! Here is 18 inches of genuine mustache—the proud possession of this British gentleman—who claims it as a world's record.

Spring Fashions—(1) A navy blue town frock of fabric tulle with an intricate trim of red patent leather straps and black silk braid embroidery, held with silver metal. (2) A piquant type of blue gray toy sailor trimmed with dusty pink and navy blue reversible ribbon, worn with a blue gray ensemble of soft diagonal weave woolen. (3) Left: A bolero of brown and green mixed tweed with a black wool dress—white plaque at the neckline. The other bolero is of wine and robin's egg blue shepherd's plaid tweed with a robin's egg blue sheer wool dress.

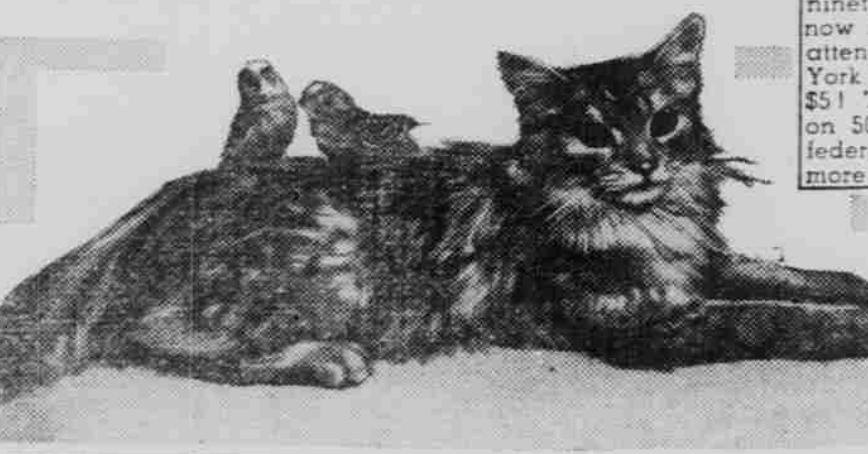

Hot and Cold—Lovely Friscilla Lane sports the latest ski outfit, in sharp contrast to the rattle-dazzle bathing suit worn by another lovely.

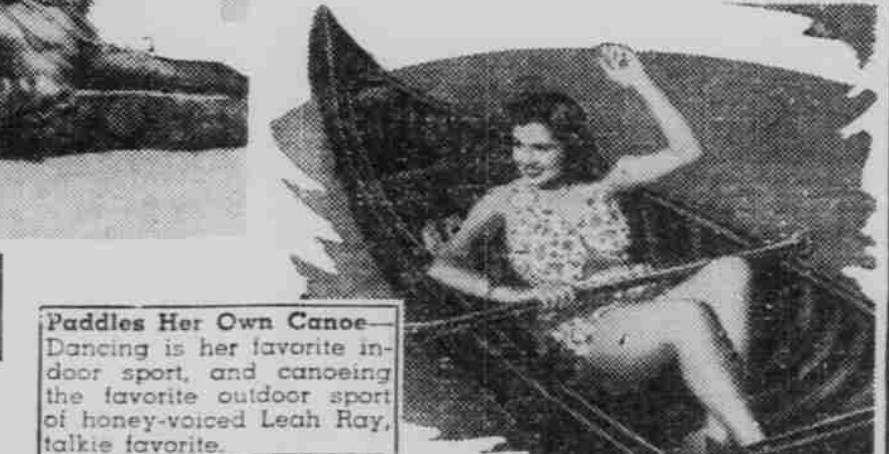

Heart and Lungs of Dog Kept Alive—Gordon Moe, of the department of Physiology at the University of Minnesota, watches the action of the heart and lungs of a dog being kept alive in a special machine, built at the university. Drugs are injected into the blood stream of the heart and the action is recorded for study.

High Finance!—The 100,000,000,000th penny in federal gasoline taxes, paid by Miss Helen Bragg, of New York, at a service station at 11 a.m., February 25th, nineteenth anniversary of the American gasoline tax, now is a collector's item. Pat O'Farrell, service station attendant, sold it for 50 cents to E. A. Adelman, New York numismatist, who immediately put it on sale at $51. This offering price is equivalent to the federal tax on 530 gallons. Gasoline taxes, now levied both by federal and state governments, have cost motorists more than seven billion dollars since 1919.

An Odd Perch—Tom and Jerry, love birds, do their cooling perched on the back of John Silver, a Persian cat, who thus far has not attempted to make a meal of his feathered friends.

Paddles Her Own Canoe—Dancing is her favorite indoor sport, and canoeing the favorite outdoor sport of honey-voiced Leah Ray, talkie favorite.

Now It's Sterile Glasses!—Science has made another very definite advance in protecting the health of hotel guests. For the first time drinking glasses are made 100% safe—microbes are definitely cut. This innovation has been introduced in all Statler hotels, in which every glass used by a guest in his room is cellophane-wrapped after being scientifically sterilized. Top shows white-garbed girls stacking glasses as they come from the machine; circle shows maid placing glass in guest's bathroom.
