The Hartmans have taken an apartment in Omaha and will reside there. The forced resignation of Rev. Hartman comes as a great disappointment to members of the congregation, many of whom have grown to manhood and womanhood under his pastorate and will greatly miss him at the church services and activities. Mr. Schlueter has faith in conditions for the coming season and believes the farmers of this vicinity are due to raise bounteous crops of small grain and corn. Mr. Gerbeling said as he sat and watched the progress of the beautification of the home, that "when the women folks take charge of anything, the best thing to do is to just keep still and watch the proceedings." Which is what he did.

DEATH OF COUSIN AT MITCHELL, SOUTH DAKOTA

From Saturday's Daily— Mrs. Elmer Webb received a message late yesterday conveying news of the death of her cousin, Mrs. Arthur Reiersen, at Mitchell, S. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Reiersen visited at the Webb home twice last winter, first while en route south for a tour of Old Mexico and again on their way home.

They had planned another southern trip early in March that was to have brought them this way and had their car packed and ready to start, when Mrs. Reiersen decided to make a visit to one of the stores for some forgotten article. As she stepped from the elevator onto a mat, she slipped and fell, shattering the bones in one of her arms. She was rushed to a Mitchell hospital and although the message did not state, it is presumed this fall was the contributory cause of her death.

The deceased lady was formerly Elma Holst, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holst, of West Point, Nebr., where her father was for many years engaged in the hardware business. Following the death of her parents, she went to Mitchell to reside with an aunt, and there met and was married to Mr. Reiersen. She was an accomplished musician and prior to her marriage had conducted a musical conservatory at Mitchell, teaching piano.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a brother, Fred, of West Point, Nebr., numerous cousins and more distant relatives.

It was just a year ago this week that she and her husband stopped here en route home from their Mexican trip.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at Mitchell.

CASS COUNTY BULLETIN NO. 2

I have noticed auto drivers allowing fender riders and this form of occupancy of a car is absolutely prohibited in the state of Nebraska. The Nebraska safety patrolmen have been assigned to watch this practice very closely, and drivers of the vehicle will be held responsible.

The stop sign violators have been doing better than a few weeks ago so lets keep up the good work and keep our younger generation physically fit.

Now is a good time to have your brakes and lights adjusted for increased mileage will be traveled this summer and an automobile out of control is more dangerous than a loaded firearm.—Cass County Director, Nebraska Safety Council, Plattsmouth, Nebr.

FUND IS RECOVERED

The famous campaign fund which was purloined from one of the local councilmanic candidates a few days ago, was recovered Wednesday afternoon by Chief of Police Joe Libershal in a daring raid on a parked car on South Sixth street.

The box with the fund intact was found in the luggage carrier of a coupe that had been left parked by its owner and followed a hot tip received by the candidate and the officer as to the identity of the party that might have the box.

It is needless to say that the box is now safely stowed away under lock and key until time to unloosen it in the city campaign.
