Murray

A large number of the Murray ladies were enjoying the May Day tea in Weeping Water Tuesday p. m.

Mrs. Orville Neell who has been so sick for so many weeks continues to show good improvement and is now up most of the time.

Thomas Nelson, the assistant at the Murray lumber yard has not been feeling the best for some time past, but is now feeling much better.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cisney were in Plattsmouth Friday of last week looking after some business matters. They were guests of friends while there.

Ern Carroll of Omaha was a visitor in Murray from last Saturday night until late Monday afternoon visiting with his mother and friends in Murray.

Mrs. Anna Rhoden was hostess last Sunday to her sister, Mrs. Jane Brooks and son, Samuel where all enjoyed a very fine visit and a good dinner as well.

O. A. Davis and wife were in Plattsmouth last Friday where they were cleaning up their portion of the Oak Hill cemetery and putting it in the very best condition.

Fred Beverage, living a number of miles northwest of Murray was a business visitor in Nehawka, stopping for a visit with his friend, W. O. Troop on the way home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Minton of Omaha were in Murray Monday looking after the home here where they have recently had new porch floors laid, and other work done.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore and Wm. Sporer were over to Plattsmouth last Friday where they were looking after some business matters for a short time and visiting with many friends in the county seat.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spangler and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Spangler were in Lincoln Friday attending the "Feeders" Day meeting at the agricultural college. The ladies also enjoyed the special program for women.

Ray Creamer had the misfortune to lose a valuable cow during the latter portion of last week. This was an excellent cow and giving an abundance of milk. The loss comes as a severe blow to Mr. and Mrs. Creamer.

Murray Christian Church

One very pleasing feature of the special all day meeting of the Ladies' Aid meeting was a Mother's day program which was sponsored by Mrs. Addie Hatchett and was a feature well worth attending. A large delegation of ladies from the Plattsmouth Christian church attended the meeting in the afternoon.

Visited in Iowa Sunday.

Misses Olive and Ruth Price of Lincoln, but formerly of Iowa, accompanied by their brother, Gerold Price and his girl friend, all of Lincoln were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Custer Allen, and during the afternoon they with Van

L. L. McCarty Files for Office of Co. Sheriff

Will Submit His Name to the Voters at the Republican Primaries to Be Held in August.

From Wednesday's Daily—
This afternoon L. L. McCarty, well known oil dealer, filed at the office of County Treasurer John E. Turner for the republican nomination for county sheriff, and will submit his name to the voters at the primary on August 9th.

Mr. McCarty is well known in this section of Cass county where he has made his home for the past twenty-six years, being engaged for twelve years as a railroad trainman and for the past fourteen years has been engaged in the oil business.

Mr. McCarty is fifty-two years of age and is married, his family comprising the wife and four children. He is now planning a campaign that will take him into all parts of the county to meet the voters. The new candidate has served as a member of the city council here for several terms.

PRESENT FINE PROGRAM

The chanters of Tangier temple of the Shriners, one of the well known musical groups of Omaha, gave a truly wonderful musical treat to the residents of the Nebraska Masonic Home Monday night.

This organization has been active in Omaha for several years and it embraces some sixteen of the chanters with their director, G. E. Saltzgriver, and Judge Lester Palmer as the pianist. E. A. Fricke is the captain of the chanters.

With the chanters was Dr. Frederick W. Clayton, rector of All Saint's Episcopal church, of Omaha, the chaplain of the group. Dr. Clayton gave a short talk during the program of the evening that was very much appreciated by the residents of the Home.

The program was well chosen and embraced a number of songs of the sea, old time melodies and a popular song group by the chanters. One of the outstanding and inspiring numbers was Sullivan's "Lost Chord."

Miss Virginia Pederson, vocalist, was also heard on the program with a very charming contribution, and a piano accordion selection also added to the well balanced program.

After the visit at the Home the group paid a call on Plattsmouth lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M. which was meeting and gave a number of selections there.

GETTING ALONG NICELY

Rodney Briggs, the young man who was run over by a truck a week ago and taken to the hospital at David City, has been getting along very nicely and was removed to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Briggs late last week where he is continuing to improve. His paper route is being cared for by his sister Pattie who is a few years his senior and who rides the bicycle on which Rodney received his injury. It being easier to repair than the broken leg of Rodney.

NEW BAKER HERE

Ivan Simpson, who has been engaged with one of the large bakeries at Waukegan, Michigan, is now located in this city at the Plattsmouth Bakery and assisting in the preparation of the fine line of baked goods that supply the local market. Mr. Simpson will add a great deal to the staff of the Carr bakery.

SERVES GOOD LUNCH

One of the features of the dog trials Sunday at the Stull farm that was much appreciated was the lunch stand that was conducted by Ralph Timm, assisted by Tom Krisky, they serving a large number during the day.

HONOR REV. ROBERT SALMON

In spite of rather inclement weather some 100 members of St. John's parish assembled at the Eagles hall at 6 o'clock Sunday evening to honor Rev. Robert Salmon, O.S.B., who has been acting pastor of St. John's church during the absence of Msgr. Geo. Agius.

The affair was in the nature of a covered dish dinner with the large variety of tempting dishes served cafeteria style. The hall and tables had been attractively arranged and decorated with the lovely spring flowers.

After the dinner the following program was presented: Miss Betty Voboril who has won such high honor at the high school music contests delighted all present with Schubert's "Ave Maria," accompanied by Miss Jean Knorr. John Clويد followed in his usual pleasing rendition of "Rose of Tralee," by C. Spencer, giving "Gold Mine in the Sky" as an encore. Mrs. Clويد accompanied him. Mrs. Robert Bestor sang most beautifully "The Whole World Knows" by Fritz Kreisler and "The Year's at the Spring" by Robert Browning. Mrs. Robert Reed accompanied Mrs. Bestor.

Walter H. Smith, local attorney, expressed in a capable and sincere manner the heartfelt appreciation of the entire parish for the untiring effort and sacrifice Father Robert Salmon has shown in ministering to the spiritual needs. He said the parish wished to show him honor and appreciation not as a man but as a priest who has tried so earnestly and faithfully to bring a fuller appreciation of the beauties of and fuller realization of the duties and practices of religion; in return he gave Father Salmon the assurance the parish would endeavor to live up to the advice so kindly given. He then presented a small token of appreciation to Father Salmon with the hopes he would often remember his many friends in Plattsmouth.

In response Father Salmon thanked all for their kind co-operation in making his work here pleasant and spiritually profitable, assuring the members they would often be remembered in his prayers.

The most pleasant evening's program was concluded by the junior choir of St. John's church who have received such excellent training from Sister Celestine singing the lovely "Ave Maria" by Rosevic, accompanied by Mrs. John Clويد, followed by closing prayer by Father Robert Salmon.

MAJOR CORN TESTS

Eight major corn variety and hybrid tests will be planted soon in Nebraska. They are to be seeded in Richardson, Cass, Saline, Dodge, Wayne, Madison, Knox and Polk counties.

Fifty-five hybrids and open-pollinated varieties will be planted in each test. All hybrids now being sold in Nebraska will be tested. Next fall farmers will have an opportunity to examine the plots and determine for themselves the relative value of each hybrid and variety.

These tests are conducted each year by the department of agronomy at the Nebraska college of agriculture in cooperation with county agricultural agents and individual farmers. In each test, every hybrid or variety will be planted in six different places in the field in order to overcome errors which might creep into the yield figures because of soil variation within the field. The Cass county test will be on the Jake Hill farm, 5 1/2 miles west and 1 2-3 north of Murray.

Air Mail Week to See Planes Over Nebraska

Fifty-seven Towns of Southeastern Nebraska Including Plattsmouth to Have Part May 19.

Plattsmouth will have its part in the observance of Air Mail Week on May 19th, when southeastern Nebraska will be covered by the mail planes over fourteen separate routes and which will bring fourteen pilots into Lincoln with the air mail from the territory which for the first time is being covered by the air mail. It is expected that in this part of the state that the mail planes will cover 1,681 miles.

In this locality the landing field for the plane will be north of this city at the Stull farm where James L. Hurst, of Lincoln, will bring down his plane to receive an air mail delivery from the Plattsmouth postoffice, the first direct mail shipment by plane from the local office.

The plane pilot will cover Cass county, making a trip of 100 miles in visiting the various towns. The schedule of the plane will be as follows: Weeping Water, 12 noon to 12:05 p. m.; Murray, 12:15 p. m. to 12:20 p. m.; Plattsmouth, 12:26 to 12:31 p. m.; Louisville, 12:43 p. m. to 12:48 p. m.; Lincoln where mail will be delivered at 1:03 p. m.

A plane piloted by Richard Beeter will reach Union at 1:08 p. m. to 1:13 p. m. and Avoca at 1:19 p. m. to 1:24 p. m.

It is expected that the advent of the mail planes will attract a great deal of attention from the residents of the several communities as they make their visits and bring the promise of future air mail service to the smallest hamlets of the country where landing fields may be made available.

ROTARIANS VIEW TRAVELOGUE

The Rotary club Tuesday had the pleasure of a journey by pictures to one of the most beautiful sections of the nation, the southwest and the canyon country of Utah, where nature preserves many of her wonders undisturbed by the hand of man.

George Hoenshell, field representative of the Midland college of Fremont, was here and brought with him a wonderful collection of pictures of the great Bryce canyon, Zion national park of Utah and the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, three of the great wonders of the United States and whose beauty is an ever inspiring treat to the traveler.

Mr. Hoenshell was presented to the club by J. R. Reeder, the leader of the program.

D. R. Thornton, one of the recently elected members of the club was presented and gave his autobiography.

The high school boys who will be members of Rotary for the month of May were present, and greeted by the club, they being Ben McCarty, senior and Warren Reed, junior.
