

Prepare for Kittenball Here This Summer

Four Teams Organized to Start Season With Opening Games Here on May 23rd.

The kittenball season in this city will be started officially on Monday, May 23rd, at Athletic park, it was voted last night at the meeting held at the Recreation Center.

There have been four teams that have paid their entrance fees, the Methodists, Catholic Youth Organization, Red's Independents and the BREN-Norfolk team.

The teams will be limited to signing fifteen men apiece and it was impressed that this quota be adhered to by the managers.

The umpires selected for the season were Charles Ault, Ernest Schubeck, Charles Fulton, V. E. Handley and Frank Krejci.

It is hoped to have additional teams added to the league and any team that contemplates entering should see M. S. Kerr, secretary-treasurer and place their entry fees before the next meeting which will be on May 20th.

BLOCK, BRIDLE INDUCTS RECORD GROUP OF MEN

Block and Bridle club, animal husbandry, state university honorary, initiated 32 college students into its ranks Tuesday, May 3 in Ag Hall at 5 p. m., with initiation followed by a dinner and business session.

Richard Spangler, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Spangler of this city, was one of the students to be initiated into the club.

This group of initiates is the largest group ever to be initiated into the Block and Bridle club. Only men interested in animal husbandry who are sophomores or above, and who have high scholastic averages are admitted to the honorary.

VISIT INJURED LAD

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reichstadt and son, Bruno, were in Omaha Sunday to spend a few hours and visited with Granville Sigler at the hospital where he is recovering from his injuries sustained Friday in an auto accident. The young man is doing very well now and it is hoped that he may soon show definite signs of improvement and it is thought danger of complications is now past.

their home. They had as their guests Mrs. Walter Hamly and Robert Davis from Fort Albert, British Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. Hy Ruhman, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reynolds and James Richmond, all from Union.

Many Enjoy Book Review—The Fontenelle chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution entertained Tuesday afternoon at the parlors of the First Methodist church, with a book review given by Miss Stella Clark, of Reserve, Kansas.

Miss Clark reviewed "The Life I've Lived," by Steel, which covered the romantic life of Robert Louis Stevenson, the great novelist of the late nineteenth century. The story was very interesting and was presented in a delightful manner that brought real life to the story of the English author.

Mrs. Robert Reed gave a group of piano selections and Mr. Lee Meyers, of the high school faculty, was heard in several very delightful vocal numbers.

The parlors were arranged handsomely with decorations of the spring flowers and table decorations carried out the patriotic colors of red, white and blue.
