Eight Grade Students of County Honored

Promotional Exercises Are Held at the High School on Saturday Afternoon.

The high school auditorium was the scene Saturday afternoon of a very interesting and impressive ceremony in the promotional exercises of the eighth grade Cass county students. The exercises were arranged and under the direction of Miss Alpha C. Peterson, county superintendent and who had prepared a very fine program to honor the young people. Betty Barr of Union opened the program with a very delightful piano

Mrs. E. H. Wescott gave a very delightful and original setting in music of the child in school, taking from the first grades to the high school climaxed with leading the audience in singing of two songs.

Superintendent L. S. Devoe of the Plattsmouth city schools, gave the welcome to the visiting students and their families of the city of Plattsmouth and the local schools.

Little Miss Clementine Woster was presented in a delightful recitation given most charmingly.

The address to the class was given by L. M. Hauptman, of the Nebraska State Teachers association and formerly superintendent of the Alvo schools. Mr. Hauptman discussed many of the problems that will confront the young people when they enter the high school and prepare to advance in educational lines. He offered much in the way of inspiration to the young people in his remarks gathered from his teaching experiences in the past.
