From Thursday's Daily—
Entertained Lincoln Guests—
 Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Devos had as guests for dinner last night Mr. and Mrs. Jack Devos of Lincoln.

Celebrate Anniversary—
 Mr. and Mrs. Don Seiver entertained Tuesday evening at dinner Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Lawson and daughters, Ruth and Helen, it being the nineteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Seiver and Rev. and Mrs. Lawson. They learned a short time ago that both couples were married on the same day nineteen years ago. Rev. Lawson had just returned from his service in the British army and Mr. Seiver was home from service in the United States navy when they were married. Another coincidence of the families is the fact that Florence Lawson, a daughter, is just a day older than Shirley, the eldest daughter of the Seivers.

Entertains Hospital Friends—
 Miss Amelia Friedrich entertained a number of the Sisters from the Immanuel hospital at Omaha Wednesday and the event was one of great pleasure to the members of the group. The home was arranged in decorations of the early summer garden flowers and made a very pleasant setting for the occasion.

The visitors brought with them a very beautiful bouquet of cut flowers which were presented to Miss Friedrich. A very delicious two course luncheon was served at an appropriate hour.

Those who were here were Sisters Tina Peterson, Allie Gassman, Augusta Anderson, Emerentia Persson, Elizabeth Anderson, Veda Johnson, Mina Carlson and Agnes Suibergson.

Kooky Kooks Club—

The Kooky Kooks club met Wednesday, June 8 at the home of Alta Marie Phillips. The members sang some songs, then the meeting was called to order by the president.

The roll call was read by the secretary, Lela Covert. Nine members were present and two were absent. The teacher, Miss Kathryn Barkus, then read the promotion.

The girls judged chocolate cream pudding. Betty Mae Barkus and Ruth Woest brought the pudding. No 2 won because it had the better flavor and shape. Ruth Woest demonstrated how to measure.

The next meeting will be held at 2:00 Friday, June 10. Alta Marie Phillips will demonstrate how to make drop cookies.

Stirek-Benk Nuptials—

At 9 o'clock June 4 at St. Wenceslas church in Omaha Miss Besie Stirek of Plattsmouth was wed to Mr. Joe Benak, Jr., of Omaha. Their attendants were Miss Rose Vosicka of Omaha, Mrs. Milton Benak of Omaha, Miss Mildred Dvoracek of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Louis Stirek of Plattsmouth and the little flower girl, Miss Delores Kubat of Omaha.

The bride was dressed in white satin with a pearl beaded neckline. Her train extended eight feet and her veil, which was also beaded with pearls at the head, extended twelve feet. She wore white satin shoes and a pearl necklace. She carried a lovely bouquet of roses and sweet peas, tied with a white satin ribbon.

Her bridesmaids were dressed as follows: Miss Dvoracek was dressed in pink satin and lace. Her accessories were blue and she carried an assorted bouquet of blue flowers, tied with pink satin ribbon. Miss Vosicka was dressed in blue satin and lace and wore pink accessories. She carried an assorted bouquet of pink flowers tied with a blue satin ribbon. The little flower girl, Delores, was dressed in aquamarine with white accessories. She carried a gold basket filled with rose petals of all shades. Among the rose petals nestled the two wedding rings. Along the handle of the basket, sweet peas of all shades were twisted.

The groom and best man wore suits of dark blue.

A lovely wedding breakfast was enjoyed by the wedding party at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Benak in Omaha. The wedding luncheon at 2 o'clock was enjoyed by the wedding party and relatives at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stirek at Plattsmouth. The wedding dinner and dinner dance was held at the Bohemian National Hall in South Omaha. The dance was private and only persons who held invitations could attend. An estimated 375 persons were invited. The music was furnished by the well-known Bohemian orchestra, Eddie Vasek and his boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Benak, Jr. are now residing in their new home in Omaha.

From Friday's Daily—

Entertains K. B. Club—
 Mrs. Avis Shellenbarger of Omaha entertained the K. B. club last night at the home of Mrs. Frank Gobelman. The home was beautifully decorated with roses. Mrs. J. F. Wolf won the first prize. Lovely refreshments were served.

W. F. M. S. Meets—
 The Women's Foreign Missionary society met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. M. E. Kerr. There was a good attendance of the members at the meeting. Mrs. Roy Schwenneker gave the devotionals, after which the business meeting was held. The minutes were read and the treasurer's report given. Plans were made for raising more money for the apportionment for this year which will close in August. A report was given on the Standard Bearers, who have been under the leadership of Miss Dorothy Glock during the school year and now are under the president of the missionary society.

Mrs. E. W. Thimgan gave the lesson on "The Church in the Center of the Christian Community." She gave reports on the Edinberg Council meeting in 1910 and a council meeting at Jerusalem in 1928, leading up to the council meeting which was to have been held at Hangchow, but because of the bombings in that area, has been moved to Madras, India. An especially interesting part of the lesson was the report on the change which has come in missionaries, their work, qualifications and status in foreign communities, and the responsibility of missionary society members as home base members.

A lovely luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Kerr, at the close of the meeting.

Bonnie Bakers—

The Bonnie Bakers met Thursday at 10:30 in the city park. The meeting was called to order by Miss Solomon, the leader. The next meeting will be held at the home of Ruth Lasen. Dolores Gradoville and Betty Jo Libershal will demonstrate how to make muffins. Rose and Catherine Brink will demonstrate how to make lemonade.—Rose Brink, news reporter.

Entertain for Mrs. Roy Young—
 A miscellaneous shower was held recently for Mrs. Roy Young at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Group, Louisville, Neb. The house was decorated in rainbow colors, the color scheme being carried out in the masses of spring flowers, and lunch decorations. The bride received many useful and beautiful gifts.

A kitchen shower was held for the newlyweds at their apartment on South 6th street, Plattsmouth, when a number of friends called and surprised them. A dainty lunch was served at the close of a pleasant evening.

Mrs. Young was formerly Dorice Marie Group, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Group, Louisville.

Mr. Young is a son of Mrs. Charles Haines of Plattsmouth, and is employed at the Norfolk Packing company's plant, where he is a machinist. They were married May 21st at Papillion, by Rev. H. Moelering, Lutheran pastor. They were attended by a brother and sister-in-law of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Young.

The bride was dressed in dusty rose crepe with white accessories. Mrs. Tom Young wore brown. The groom and his brother wore dark business suits.

Mrs. Roy Young is a granddaughter of two of Cass county's oldest families, Mr. and Mrs. John Group, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hell of Louisville.

From Saturday's Daily—

Frank reports the condition of his brother John, who is in the Veterans hospital at Knoxville, Iowa, as very serious, at this time.

Frank planned to look up Ercole Salerno at the Wadsworth hospital today. Salerno has been there some ten days and may have to remain for an indefinite period.

MAY ASK THAT SEWER MOUTH BE EXTENDED

Extension of a sewer outlet near Argo avenue beyond the mud flat created by river dikes may be asked. Harvey Risk told the planning board Thursday night that the sewer constitutes a nuisance and a menace to health because the outlet does not extend to the river proper.

Risk said the city flushes out the ditch from the sewer outlet to the river once a week but that property owners in the section are affected by the stench.

It was suggested that Risk confer with the city commission and the street department. He said that extension might be rather expensive but that it is almost necessary.—Nebraska City News-Press.
