of Miss Peterson and Miss Gerda, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sterner being here with their families. Other members of the group were Miss Mildred Sterner, Mr. and Mrs. Searl Sterner and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Worrest, all of Bradshaw, Neb. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hanni of Omaha were here to visit Miss Marie Kaufmann.

Attend Wedding at Lincoln—
Miss Audrey Mabeus, daughter of Mrs. Christens Mabeus of Randolph was united in marriage to Ralph Bruse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bruse of Albion last week at the Wesleyan Foundation. Rev. Robert E. Drew read the marriage lines in the presence of fifty guests.

The wedding was one of the greatest beauty.

Miss Irma Pittman of this city was maid of honor at the wedding and Miss Lois Giles, also a school friend, assisted at the serving table.

The bride has visited here often at the Pittman and Giles homes and has many friends who will learn of the wedding with interest.

Celebrate Silver Wedding—
Saturday evening a large group of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Garnett in celebration of their silver wedding. Mrs. Pearl Johnson of Avoca and Mrs. George Clark of Beresford, South Dakota acted as hostesses. Mrs. Harold Gaines was in charge of the guest book and the gifts.

A musical program, consisting of vocal and piano solos, was offered by Frank A. Cloidt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Streeter of Lincoln, Donald Harmon of Avoca, Mrs. Garnett and Mrs. Johnson. Rev. J. W. Taenzler then conducted an impressive wedding service appropriate to the twenty-fifth anniversary with the members of the original wedding group participating. After the ceremony, refreshments were served and the guests departed after giving their best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Garnett.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Lulu Buss, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carsten, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hill, Mrs. A. T. Harmon, Mrs. Pearl Johnson and family and Donald Harmon all of Avoca; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Streeter and son Truman of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Day of Weeping Water and Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of Beresford, South Dakota.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Give Shower for Bride—
Mrs. Wallace Terryberry, formerly Miss Marjorie Wohlforth, was the honor guest last evening at a miscellaneous shower tendered by Rosemary Cloidt, Marjorie Piteh, Joan Moore, Anna Marie Rea and Patricia Cloidt at the Rea home. The time was spent most pleasantly at games and in which prizes were won by Cleda Koukal, and Virginia Dare Sollee. Delicious refreshments were served at an appropriate hour.

Attend Reunion—
Mrs. Robert B. Hayes and daughter, Miss Jean, motored to Sac City, Iowa, Sunday, the childhood home of Mrs. Hayes. She was a guest at the reunion of the graduates and former students of the Sac City academy, a former Baptist church school and later used as a high school by the city. There was a very large number present and including a member of the first class to graduate, that of 1896.

Social Workers Flower Club—
The Social Workers Flower club met at the home of Mrs. A. J. Snyder the past week with Mrs. F. W. Nolting and Mrs. J. A. Pitz assisting. The usual business meeting was held with several members and six guests present. Several contests were played, directed by the leader, Mrs. Mike Kafenberg. Prize winners were Mrs. George Mumm, Mrs. H. A. Peterson, Mrs. James Lepert. Consolation prizes were won by Mrs. Phillip Lepert, Mrs. John Meisinger, Mrs. Fred Spangler.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Meisinger. Guests at the meeting were: Mrs. Fred Heitzhausen, Billings, Montana, Mrs. Arthur Bruce, Marion and Louise Lepert, Mrs. Raymond Halth, Lucille Meisinger.

Dinner for Newlyweds—
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvdor Tilson was the scene of a very delightfully arranged dinner party Monday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Terryberry of this city.

Mrs. Tilson, sister of Mr. Terryberry, had arranged a very delicious dinner and which was featured by the large wedding cake.

Among those attending were Mrs. Charles H. Warner and daughter, Miss Helen, Mrs. P. H. Wohlforth and son, Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Evers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Warner and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Terryberry, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hutchison and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meisinger and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wetenskap and Mary Katherine, Mr. and Mrs. John Cartel, Mr. and Mrs. Terryberry, guests of honor and Mr. and Mrs. Tilson.

Attend Lincoln Meeting—
Mrs. Frank Cloidt and daughters, Maxine and Frances, departed Monday for Lincoln, where Miss Frances, honored queen of Bethel No. 24, Job's Daughters, will attend the grand guardian's council and also be a guest at the home of Miss Barbara True, hostess also to Miss Mary Gayer and Janet Westover of this city. Miss Maxine was a guest of Miss Eva Livermore, an old school friend.

W. C. T. U. Meeting—
The W. C. T. U. meeting was held yesterday at the country home of Mrs. Stephen Wiles. Mrs. D. S. Sumner led the devotions which were taken from Psalms, Hosea and II Peter.

After devotions, Mrs. Anna Wiles had the program for flower mission day. She presented each lady with a beautiful bouquet and Bible verses. The ladies responded by reading these verses. All these flowers were to be given after the meeting to the sick and shut-in folks over the city. Mrs. Helen Mardick gave a very interesting talk on the young mother's attitude. The president then talked on plans being made to have the institute here within the next two weeks. A round table discussion was held about these plans.

The meeting closed with the W. C. T. U. benediction after which Mrs. Wiles served delicious refreshments assisted by her daughter, Helen.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Club Holds Dance—
The Modern Youth club held a dance last evening at the Eagle's hall. Willie Henriksen and his orchestra played for the dancers. Although the rain kept a number away those attending enjoyed the evening to the utmost.

Lucky Thirteens—
The Lucky Thirteens held their first meeting Tuesday, June 14 at the home of Mrs. Worth, their leader. The members participated in a food contest, in which Betty Schubeek had the high score.

Shower for Bride—
Among the pleasant events that has honored Mrs. Wallace Terryberry, formerly Miss Marjorie Wohlforth, was a shower given by the ladies of the local exchange of the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph company. This was given on Friday at the exchange building and the bride was presented with many attractive gifts as remembrances of the friends and associates. After the pleasant evening spent in games and visiting the members of the jolly group enjoyed a lunch at the Cohn New Way Castle.

Entertains for Bride—
Mrs. G. H. Gilmore entertained at her home in Murray Friday, June 3, in honor of Miss Evelyn Mead. The occasion was a miscellaneous shower for the bride-elect. The guests included a number of friends of the younger set. Following the presentation of the gifts the guests were invited to the dining room where refreshments were served. Mrs. G. H. Gilmore and Mrs. Charles Mead presided at the table which was artistically arranged with flowers and white tapers.

Birthday Surprise—
Miss Hazel Kelley was honored on her birthday yesterday by a surprise party given by a group of girl friends at her home. Miss Kelley received many beautiful and useful gifts from her friends.

Those present were Harriet Case, Alice Jane Grosshans and Kathryn Grosshans, Norma and Gloria Johnson, Shirley Jacobs, Frances Hadraba, of this city, and Joyce Paulson, Dorothy Johnson and Evelyn Clark of Omaha.

Games were played and prizes awarded to Evelyn Clark, Alice Jane Grosshans, Harriet Case, Shirley Jacobs, and the guest of honor, Hazel Kelley. Delicious refreshments were served.

Golden Rod Study Club—
The Golden Rod Study club held their last meeting at the home of Mrs. Willis Cole with Mrs. Sherman Cole as associate hostess. The lesson was on romantic music and was in charge of Mrs. Charles Barnard. The program consisted of a piano solo by Mrs. Elbert Wiles, group singing led by Mrs. Chester Wiles, a flute solo by Mrs. Elbert Wiles, a vocal solo by Mrs. Charles Barnard, an piano solo by Mrs. Roy Cole, a vocal duet by Mrs. Charles Barnard and Mrs. Sherman Cole, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Chester Wiles.

This was the last meeting of the club for this year. Their next meeting will be in September.

Honor Mrs. Terryberry—
The attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon L. McCarty at the Country club, was the scene of a very delightful social event Tuesday afternoon, the occasion honoring Mrs. Wallace Terryberry, a recent bride.

The home was arranged with the lovely summer flowers by the hostesses, Mrs. McCarty, Mrs. Robert Cappell, Mrs. George Lushinsky and Mrs. Alvdor Tilson.

Mrs. William F. Evers and Mrs. A. O. Moore assisted in the receiving and presentation of the guests, numbering some seventy.

Each member of the party was requested to prepare "Helpful Hints" for the bride as souvenirs of the happy event.

In the contest which was enjoyed Mrs. Raymond Cook received the prize for the most successful.

During the afternoon a mock wedding was staged and which proved the source of much pleasure to all of the party. Those taking part were: Mrs. L. S. Devoe, minister; Mrs. L. W. Egenberger, bride; Miss Pearl Staats, groom; Mrs. W. A. Robertson, maid of honor; Mrs. Will Gorder, best man; Miss Amelia Martens, weeping mother; Mrs. Wallace Warner, father; Mrs. J. E. Wiles, train bearer; Mrs. Alvdor Tilson, ring bearer; Mrs. Chester Wiles, song "Margie" and Miss Estella Baird, the wedding march.

The bride received many beautiful and attractive gifts from the friends in honor of the event.

At the close delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

GIVES INTERESTING TALK

The Rotary club Tuesday had an exceptionally able speaker at their weekly luncheon in Dale Renner, of the contract department of the Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power Co.

Mr. Renner discussed the various Nebraska hydro-electric power districts of the state from an engineering standpoint. His talk was very much enjoyed and gave the auditors a fine understanding of the various districts that are being placed over the state and which at this time are so largely in the public eye.

P. I. Rea, past president of the club and local Iowa-Nebraska district manager was the leader of the meeting.
