

Weeping Water

Earl Oldham was a business visitor in Omaha Tuesday. G. R. Binger was a visitor in Lincoln Tuesday to look after some business matters.

Howard Rasmussen has accepted a position with Fred Reicke over on highway 75 between Union and Murray. Henry Lempke, the painter and decorator has been finding much work in his line, and had to secure extra help to get caught up with the work.

Harold Lehman and wife who have been visiting here for a time with the mother of Harold, departed for their home in the west on Monday of this week.

Chris Rasmussen has been over to Nehawka working in the mixing of grasshopper poison. Much of this is now being used for the attempted extermination of the hopper pests. Mr. and Mrs. William Collier of Lincoln were guests for the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Fitzpatrick, where all enjoyed a very fine visit. The guests were former residents here.

Harold Meyers and family and Mrs. Helen Clarke, a sister of Mr. Meyers departed last Monday for northern Minnesota where they are to spend a number of weeks in the cooler climate.

Mrs. Andrew Olsen will be hostess Friday of this week at her home when she will have as guests Mrs. Joan Carter, Agnes Rough, Anna Hart for a delightful luncheon and a session of cards.

P. H. Miller and son, Pete are to drive to Arriba, Colo., starting Saturday evening, where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, Mrs. Johnson being daughter of P. H. Miller. They will return home Tuesday.

Home From England.

Fred Allen, who has been spending some seven weeks in England, his boyhood home, returned home last Sunday evening. He spent most of the time in England visiting his mother who has reached an advanced age. He reports her as being only in fair health, but was greatly pleased to have the visit from her son.

Has Peculiar Accident.

In a ball game at Nebraska City between the Weeping Water CCC boys and a team from Auburn, Richard Keckler was selected as umpire, and being just behind the catcher, with "Smokey," the pitcher of the Weeping Water team sending the ball through the air, which was fouled by the batter, the ball striking Umpire Keckler on the shoulder, fracture of the collar bone. Mr. Keckler is suffering a great deal from the fractured collar bone.

Enjoy Picnic at Valley.

The party of relatives of the E. E. Day family which were gathered at the Day home last Saturday in a family reunion, were over to Valley Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Switzer where they enjoyed a picnic dinner in the park, after which most of the people departed for their various homes. The picnic was also attended by the Edward Fredrickson family, friends of the Day family.

Attend Red Cross Meeting.

Among those of Weeping Water interested in the workings of the American Red Cross attending the county convention at Murdock last Monday were Mrs. Ray Norris, Mrs. Emma Rawalt of Avoca, Miss Agnes Rough and Mrs. Lloyd Behrends, they all being members of the Weeping Water branch. They report a very interesting and profitable meeting.

Jans Mogensen Passes.

Jans Mogensen was born in Denmark on April 27th, 1855, where he made his home for the greater part of his life in his native land, a large portion of it in Copenhagen, coming to America in 1915, about 23 years ago. Mr. Mogensen was married November 18, 1877. There were ten children, two having preceded him in death. The wife also preceded the husband in death some twenty years ago. Grandfather Mogensen has made his home in recent months in Weeping Water and before this made his home on the farm with his son, Otto. He was a member of the Lutheran church a greater part of his life.

The funeral was held from the Methodist church in Weeping Water last Tuesday afternoon. Interment was at Oakwood cemetery.

Mrs. I. W. Teegarden Passes.

Word was received from Long Beach, Calif., home of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Teegarden, by Lloyd Wolcott, telling of the passing of Mrs. Teegarden at that place last Friday, where later the funeral was held and interment made. Mrs. Teegarden will be remembered by her host of friends here, where she as Miss Fannie Grace, was employed as sales lady for many years.

To Beat the Hoppers.

John A. Stander of near Manley was in town Tuesday morning securing some binder twine in order to cut his oats, which he said should be slightly ripen, but in order to get ahead of the grasshoppers he decided to cut it.

Hold Picnic at Crete.

The Ben Franklin Stores, of which the Elmer Michelson store in Weeping Water is one, there being many over the country, were given a picnic at Crete last Sunday when the owners and workers in the stores got together with games and all sorts of amusements, with a real old-fashioned picnic dinner at the noon hour. Mr. and Mrs. Michelson and their force at the store were over to enjoy the occasion.

Dies at Falls City Saturday.

B. L. Allsman, 54, a dispatcher for the Missouri Pacific at Falls City, who has been with the company for the past 35 years, and a very efficient workman, passed away there last Saturday. His illness was of but short duration. He was brother-in-law of G. R. Binger who when told of the extreme illness of Mr. Allsman hastened to Falls City and arrived but a short time before the passing of the patient. After the death Mr. Binger had to hurry to Wilber, the old home, to arrange for the funeral and burial. Mrs. Allsman, a sister of Mr. Binger, was prostrated by the death of the husband, and had to be supplied with a nurse. The funeral was held Monday of this week at Falls City and the remains taken to Wilber where interment was made.

CAMPING DAYS HERE

A number of Plattsmouth boys are in camp this week—five at Camp Strader at Crete and two at Camp Minis Kuya, the Cornhusker council Boy Scout camp at Lincoln. Camp Strader is the Lincoln YMCA camp. The boys at Strader are Carter Minor, Billy Gayer, Ralph Hill, Jr., Lars Larson and Donald Martin. Those at Minis Kuya are Albert Richards and Bob Webb. This is the second period at Minis Kuya, which opened June 19. At the end of each week's camp period a Court of Honor is held and the boys given their earned advancement at camp in Scouting, thus doing away with regular courts of honor at the different towns through the summer. At the court of honor last Saturday night, Jimmy Mauzy and Cary Marshall were present to receive a number of merit badges, but did not attend the camp. The boys at Strader will be home tonight and Sunday Lars Larson and Billy Robertson go to Lincoln for the third period at Minis Kuya. This will make two camp periods in a row for Lars. Richards and Webb come home Sunday, remaining for two extra meals after the camp ends with the court of honor Saturday night.

Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. James Rebal

All of Family of Eight Children Are Here to Join in Very Pleasant Event.

Sunday the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Rebal was the scene of a very pleasant family reunion, held in honor of the golden wedding of these highly respected residents of the community.

To have enjoyed fifty years of wedded life is not often granted to a couple and to have the added pleasure of knowing that all of their children were able to be with them gave greater joy to the parents.

James Rebal and Mary Triletty were married here in 1888 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wise, then located where the Missouri Pacific depot is built. The ceremony was performed by Judge L. C. Stiles, the young couple then commencing housekeeping at once and have made their home here since that time.

Members of the family from distant points had arrived during the week and Sunday morning the families from nearby points reached here for the observance.

A much enjoyed dinner was served in the early afternoon on the lawn of the home on North 10th street and which featured the large gold and white cake which was decorated appropriately for the golden wedding event.

The guests of honor were presented with a purpose of $100 from the children as a remembrance of the happy event and which also marked the first time in twenty years that all of the eight children had been together at one time. The presentation was made by Fred Rebal, who also led in paying a silent tribute to the parents.

Greetings were also read from friends. The remainder of the day and evening was spent in visiting and renewing the old days when the family were at home.

Group pictures were taken and also motion pictures of the group which will serve as a permanent record of the gala event in the family history.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rebal, Harold and Shirley, of Montebello, California; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rebal, Donald and Dick, of Great Falls, Montana; Fred Rebal, Santa Monica, California; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crouch and Jack, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. James Rebal and Dorothy of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rebal, Jane, Ronald and Mary Jo, A. J. Triletty, Frank Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. James Rebal, guests of honor.

NIFTY NEEDLE MAIDS

The Nifty Needle Maids club met at the home of Opal and Lila Linder. Instead of having our regular meeting we turned it over to Miss Baldwin, who told us about sewing and showed us samples of sewing and materials.

After the meeting Asa Marie Bodeker, the recreation leader for that meeting, had a short program for us. After the program delicious refreshments were served by our hostesses.

Young People Wedded at M. E. Church Waverly

Miss Blanche Anderson Is Married to Mr. John Schlaphoff of Near Murdock.

The wedding of Miss Blanche Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Anderson of Waverly, to John Schlaphoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schlaphoff of Murdock, took place at the Methodist church in Waverly last Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Powell, assisted by Rev. Schwab of Murdock read the marriage lines in the presence of 125 guests. Baskets of flowers and plants and tapers lighted by Mildred Schlaphoff, formed the background.

Mrs. Alma Ebmeier was at the piano and the bride's sister, Marian Anderson sang preceding and following the ceremony. The bride wore white satin trimmed in lace and her trailing veil was also trimmed in lace. The bride's bouquet was of pink roses and sweet peas.

Miss Gladys Anderson was maid of honor for her sister and her dress was of pale pink lace over satin. Mrs. Wesley Benson, of Aurora, also a sister of the bride was one of the bridesmaids. She wore a deep pink lace over satin. Miss Doretta Schlaphoff, sister of the groom, was the other bridesmaid. She wore dusky rose lace over satin. All three attendants to the bride wore shoulder corsages of pink roses and sweet peas. Flower girls were Virginia and Mary Leigh Benson, nieces of the bride. They were dressed in pale pink tulle. Myron Oehlerking was the ring bearer for the double ring ceremony. He was dressed in all white and carried the rings on a white satin pillow trimmed with pink roses.

Elmer Schlaphoff was best man and Erwin Schlaphoff and Clifford Anderson were ushers. After the ceremony the reception was held in the church basement. Flowers, tapers and pink and white crepe paper formed the decorations. The wedding cake, decorated in pink and white formed the table centerpiece. It was surrounded by tall pink candles.

The bride's going away dress was of black silk crepe trimmed in white and with it she wore white accessories.

Relatives and friends from Aurora, Nebraska and relatives from Illinois came to attend the wedding.

Bible School Lesson Study! Sunday, July 3rd By L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

"Joshua! A Choice of Loyalties" Josh. 1:1-9; 24:14-21.

The series of lessons for the coming three months will be devoted to studies of Old Testament characters—about 500 years of Jewish history from Joshua to King David. The aim is: Through a study of success and failure in the lives of some of Israel's early leaders, to find guidance and enrichment for present day living, and aspiration for closer fellowship with God and for fruitful service in His kingdom. Last year, the second and third quarter took us from the creation to the exodus of Israel—a period of 1,500 years. We now continue our studies where we left off then, and begin with that famous leader, Joshua—a man tested and tried and trained under Moses, that matchless leader who talked with God face to face. We have met Joshua before, when Moses sent twelve spies into Canaan. Joshua and Caleb were with them and brought in a minority report. Next we see him selected as the successor of Moses. (Read here Numbers 27:15-23). He was from the tribe of Ephraim—Joseph's son; his father's name was Nun. He was about 80 years old when he took charge of leading the people into the promised land, and served about 39 years, dying at the age of 110. There are few blemishes in his character; once he was too jealous for what he conceived, Moses' honor. (See Numbers 11:28). As a bold and courageous man, he suffered a loss in battle, when he became much dispirited. (See Josh. 7:4-8). His name means "Jesus" as in Matt. 1:21 and Heb. 4:8, 9. He is a type of Christ, in bringing Israel into the promised land—giving them their inheritance. He shines as a bright star among the noble luminaries with which God has decorated His church; and his resolution may well be taken as the humble decision of all who bear the name of Christ: "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

Joshua does not speak to God direct as Moses had done, but the priest Eleazar is God's mouthpiece or spokesman—through Urim and Thummim—the meaning of this is not clear, it may be that they were probably stones of unusual brilliance, attached to the breastplate of the high priest.

As a God-appointed leader, Joshua is charged with the task to lead the people into Canaan. So must all our leaders, preachers and teachers be

God-elected—God-called people in whom dwells the Holy Spirit, which cannot be acquired through education, but is the gift of God, as at Pentecost. There would be more fruit—success—in the work, if the above were the case. Ignorance and illiteracy is a great handicap for a preacher and teacher; but being filled with the spirit, he may be a great power in the kingdom, while education minus the Holy Spirit would only be as "sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal."

Verse 5 should be a great encouragement to any leader: "I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee," should be enough for anybody to go forward and do his best. Joshua would meet war-like people in Canaan. The Israelites knew no war; therefore he had to rely on God for success. Success could only be assured if the people were like-minded with Joshua—but idolatry was their besetting sin, inherited from their forefathers back in Mesopotamia, later in Egypt—the golden calf, the gods of the Amorites, Baalim. Israel was never clear of idolatry until after the captivity.

The greatest work of Joshua was the covenant he made with the people and God. It took a great man in whom the people had confidence, to sway them toward God, while they were prone to go the other way. But his logic and example had the desired effect; it was also reasonable. So must the teacher present God's claim to men that they come to the same conclusion as these people.

Verses 16 and 17 show a determination that sounds almost heroic. But it means more to serve God than make a resolution. Joshua knew the people; they were persuaded and convinced that he was right, but no man can follow and live with God, if the heart is not right. God is holy, hence the heart must be clean, before he will dwell in it. He is a jealous God and will not accept a divided heart. It means more to be a Christian than people are made to believe. These people decided for God—but their heart was not cleansed. There is no accepting Christ without conversion, without the new birth. Joshua knew better than to accept them into the covenant—but the modern preacher will fill the church with dead members, who have never passed from death unto life. Joshua was not modern, but old fashioned.
