

Elmwood News

Floyd Gerbeling and family were here last Monday for a short visit with Charles Gerbeling, father of Floyd.

Mrs. Milton Beechner and her two daughters of Lincoln are spending a couple of weeks at the home of their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Bess Streeter Aldrich.

Miss Betty Clement departed last Monday for Madison, Wisconsin, at which place she will spend the summer attending summer school at the University of Wisconsin.

Mrs. Ralph Keckler, sister of Mrs. Ralph Greene, accompanied by her son, came over from their home in Weeping Water for a visit at the Greene home last Monday.

Joseph Abrahams of Weeping Water was looking after business matters in Elmwood last Tuesday in connection with his employment by the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph company.

Getting Along Very Nicely
Recently Emil Rosenow and Lester Christian bantered each other and engaged in a friendly scuffle, during the course of which the leg of Emil was quite badly injured—so much so that he had to get around on crutches, but he is getting along very nicely and will soon be recovered.

J. C. Cobb Improving
J. P. Cobb, president of the American Exchange Bank of Elmwood, who has been so poorly for the past several weeks, was able to take a ride last Sunday and receive the benefits of the sunshine and fresh air. If he continues to improve, he hopes to be able to get back to the bank in the near future.

Visited Old Time Friend
When James Greene, father of Ralph and Harry Greene was a pioneer druggist of Elmwood, founding the business now being carried on by his son, he was a close friend of Dr. Hall, now located at Syracuse, Mo. Greene, Sr., died about the first of July, 1898—forty years ago—and each year since then it has been the practice of Ralph Greene to call on his father's old friends about this time. So last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Greene went to Syracuse and spent the day at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Hall.

To Visit Son on West Coast
Mrs. R. M. Dennis is leaving this week for Los Angeles, where she will spend some two months at the home of her son, Leland Dennis, who is a prosperous druggist there. Last year the son sent a ticket for his father, who spent some time in the west, coming back with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Race when they came back from the west. Now Leland has sent his mother a ticket to come out this summer. She will make the trip on the Union Pacific Challenger, that requires but 48 hours to travel from Omaha to Los Angeles.

Conducting Experiments
Harry Linder and Milo Frisby are conducting a series of experiments with grasshoppers to determine the most effective method of exterminating them. They have captured a large number of the hoppers, placing them in different screen containers where they feed them different sorts of rations aimed to destroy the pests, keeping close track of the time and number exterminated so as to determine which is the most effective method. We expect to have a report on their findings this coming week.

Visiting in the West
Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Liston have been spending a week at Evergreen, Colorado, where two of their sons, James Liston and Howard Liston, reside. They tell of enjoying the cool mountain climate, and find life very pleasant there as compared with the sultry days here.

Visited Here Sunday
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greenley of Fremont were guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Deles Derner, where they with their son Frank and wife enjoyed the day very pleasantly. The families have been fast friends for the past more than fifty years. Some fifty years ago in the spring of 1888 Richard Deles Derner with his parents went to near Yuma, Colorado, where they took up a homestead and made their home for some years. Carter Greenley and wife, parents of Charles, were their near neighbors and like the Deles Derner family also lived on a homestead.

Elmwood to Celebrate
With the decadence of the old fashioned Fourth of July, which has become almost obsolete, the people of Elmwood think it just and fitting to set aside a time for the people to get together and enjoy themselves, including those who have moved to other places to live. The business men of Elmwood together with members of the fire department got together last Monday and initiated a movement for the holding of a two day picnic and old settlers reunion, and tentatively decided upon the first week in August. Work of preparing for the event is in the hands of appropriate committees. The exact date has not been settled, but it will be around the first of August. Additional information will be brought to Journal readers in succeeding issues and in the meantime let us admonish you not to pass up Elmwood's celebration—it will be a good one.

JULY MONTH OF SLAUGHTER
WASHINGTON, July 1 (UP)—“Any way you take it, July is a month of slaughter.”
The U. S. public health service made that pronouncement today in a dramatic appeal to the American public to beware of the heat of hot summer months, beware of speeding automobiles searching for a cooling breeze—and beware of fireworks.

Fourteen persons died every hour in the month of July 1937 as a result of accidents. One out of every 130 men, women and children suffered a disabling injury. More than 2½ times as many persons lost their lives than were killed in the Revolutionary war.

This simple procedure, in addition to use of the utmost caution, is recommended by the service: “Whenever an injury occurs, get a doctor as soon as possible.”

TAKE OVER BRIDGE
OMAHA, July 1 (UP)—The ownership of the Douglas street bridge changed hands today with the board of governors of Ak-Sar-Ben receiving the title from the Omaha and Council Bluffs Street Railway company.

First tolls that will go to make the bridge free were received at 10 a. m. A few minutes earlier in the offices of the Omaha National bank three checks totaling $2,350,000 were signed and paid over to representatives of the street railway company by George Brandeis, president of the Ak-Sar-Ben board of governors.

The deed was handed over and copies were immediately filed with the register of deeds in Douglas and Pottawattamie counties.

HALL CASE DISMISSED
LINCOLN, July 1 (UP)—An action for damages brought by the state banking department against Phil L. Hall, Jr., former president of the failed Greenwood State bank, and others was reversed and dismissed by the supreme court today.

The department charged Hall and his wife, who was a clerk and bookkeeper in the bank before it went into receivership in January 1934, with alleged fraudulent and dishonest actions in operating the bank.

The supreme court said the suit was barred by the statute of limitations requiring such actions be brought in four years and stated there was no attempt at concealment of the facts by the defendants.

River navigation will open up a new industrial field in the smaller Nebraska river towns.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Buskirk, a son, Monday, June 27, at the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln. The little one only lived a short time and was laid to rest June 30.

Mrs. Ed Fisher returned home Thursday after caring for her mother, Mrs. Johnson of Omaha, who had the misfortune to break her arm. Her mother accompanied her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Merriman of Prairie Home are the proud parents of a baby girl born Wednesday, June 29, at the Bryan Memorial hospital. She was formerly Marie Franks, daughter of Walter Franks.

A number of relatives and friends came with well-filled baskets and surprised Paul Kelly in observance of his birthday last Sunday evening. Everyone had a good time and wished him many happy returns of the day.

A number of girls enjoyed a surprise party given for Betty Ann Card in honor of her birthday by her mother Sunday, July 3. Everyone had a good time and wished Betty Ann many happy returns of the day.

L. C. C. Meets
The L. C. C. met at the home of Mabel Newkirk Thursday, with Alice Lemon, Mabel Boucher and Edna Clymer assisting. Each table received a prize. The prize-winners were Angie Lemon, Merie Holt, Minnie Stradley and Vivian Cope.

The next meeting will be held on July 25th.
Dorcas Has Fine Program
A large crowd attended the meeting of the Dorcas Society at the Christian church last Friday. A clever program was presented, consisting of a school by the Dorcas ladies, a mock wedding by the little folks, a reading by Lucille Kelly and a pantomime of “Darling, I am Growing Old,” by Nannie Coleman and Mabel Boucher, a violin solo by Shirley Anderson and music by Mrs. Lee Knolle and Vieta Card.

A refreshing lunch was served in the dining room by Mrs. Joe Kyles and Mrs. Roy Comstock. The next meeting will be held July 8 with Mrs. Schroeder, Fannie Sayles and Mrs. Hoenshell entertaining.

Homer H. Lawton continues busy at Lincoln with painting and decorating work.
Joseph Zoz recently purchased a truck and will engage in stock and grain hauling.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig were in Lincoln last Tuesday, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Skinner of that place.
Nels Petersen has been ably assisting with the harvesting work at the home of Alvin Bornemeier during the past week.

L. A. Tyson and wife, of Elmwood were visiting friends in Murdock last Tuesday evening, driving over for a short stay.
Bryan McDonald and Glen Harder were setting up a new combine that was recently sold by Ray Gamlin to the Woodward Brothers.

A. H. Ward has been assisting Ed Brunkow with his harvesting, getting the work out of the way while the weather is favorable.
Edward Galloway was an over Sunday visitor at Lincoln last week, being a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. O. H. Robson and husband.

Frank Wood of the Farm Bureau department was in Murdock on last Wednesday with a load of grasshopper bait, which he was distributing among the farmers.
Miss Ardythe Luce, of Champagne, Illinois, where she has been engaged as a registered nurse, is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Harvey Schwab at this time.

Mrs. Barbara Goetz is spending some time in Lincoln with her sister, Mrs. Goehry, while Miss Martha Goehry is in a Lincoln hospital, where she recently underwent an operation.
Mrs. J. Johansen, who conducts the Murdock cafe has not been finding the depression hard on her business and is kept busy from morning to night, especially on Sunday, to supply the public with meals.

Wm. Gakemeier and wife, accompanied by their son, arrived from their home in Chicago last week for a visit of a couple of weeks with relatives and friends. Mr. Gakemeier is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gakemeier, of Murdock.

Starting early this week, Charles Stroy and Carl Bornemeier are in their fields with new combines, garnering the wheat crop, and barring bad weather expect to have it all harvested soon. A fair return is expected for their efforts.

J. H. Buck and son have been busy in the manufacture of a truck body for the truck of Andy Zoz, and are hurrying to get the job done, as Mr. Zoz desires to use the truck to haul grain during the harvest season in progress.

Ray Frederick and son, Herman, of Nebraska City, were business callers in Murdock last Wednesday. The Fredericks conducted a seed business at Greenwood and Murray before locating at Nebraska City in that line of business.

Mrs. Henry Heineman went to Lincoln last week, where she secured a room and will remain there during the illness of her sister, Mrs. William Rikil, who is convalescing at a hospital there following a recent serious operation.

Mrs. William Rikil, who has been at the Lincoln hospital for some time, recovering from a major operation, is reported getting along very nicely and will be able to return home in the near future. Mrs. J. Johanson was over to visit her last week.

Mrs. Carl Anderson, daughter of Uncle Fred Deickman, was in Murdock last Wednesday for a short visit with her father and on her return was accompanied home by Mr. Deickman, who will spend some time visiting at his daughter's home.

W. T. Reed, of Auburn, an employee of the T. W. Engle Lumber company there, was in Murdock last Wednesday with a load of lumber to be used in the new home of Lawrence Race, who is entirely remodeling the old place which he purchased from S. P. Lies.

Alvin Oehlerking and family and Harold Lutchens and family visited friends at Friend, Nebraska, June 26th, attending church services with their hosts during the morning hour. Crops in that territory are quite good this summer and promise to make a good yield.

Mrs. William Rikil returned home last Friday evening from a hospital in Lincoln where she had been for the past two weeks. She feels much improved in health since undergoing an operation and regaining physical losses. It will take some weeks of home care though to gain complete recovery.

Miss Mary Bornemeier, who is employed at the telephone exchange in Lincoln, her sister, Miss Elsie of Murdock, and Mrs. Helen Siekjost, who is visiting relatives here, went to Lincoln last Wednesday to spend the day, and in the evening were met by I. C. Hornbeck, at South Bend, who brought them home in his car.

Herbert Bornemeier was delivering wheat to the Murdock elevator on Wednesday of last week. The grain tested 57 pounds to the struck bushel and was yielding about 20 bushels to the acre. There are fields that are yielding more per acre, and then, too, there are fields not making that much, so his is about the average.

Charles Martin, who resides a few miles south of Greenwood, transacted business in Murdock last Wednesday. While here he enjoyed a visit with W. T. Weddell, the two having been near neighbors and friends some 55 years ago. They had not seen each other for 29 years and both men enjoyed the meeting and discussion of old times.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schlaphoff moved into the Wendt property in town last Wednesday, after a brief wedding trip to different points of interest. Mrs. Schlaphoff, formerly Miss Blanche Anderson, of Waverly, taught in the Murdock public school, several seasons. Their many friends welcome them to this community. John is engaged at the present time on a combine owned by E. M. Miller.

Last Tuesday's Ball Game
Tuesday night, Murdock defeated the Weeping Water CCC boys, 14 to 4, and in the second game Elmwood triumphed over the Pawnees, 18 to 16.

Visiting in the East
R. A. Kuehn and wife departed for Schenectady, N. Y., where they will spend the coming month at the home of their daughter, Ruth. At the conclusion of their visit, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Shrader will drive back and bring the folks home.

Gave Enjoyable Recital
Local lovers of music were given a real treat when Mrs. Rex Peters of Greenwood and members of her music class gave a recital at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Race. A large number of the parents and students were present to enjoy the occasion. The class numbers twelve students, all of whom have been making excellent advancement with their studies, as shown by the high class of the numbers they rendered.

Returns from Extended Trip
Louis Hornbeck, who has been traveling auditor of the Modern Woodmen of America for a number of years, has just returned from an extended trip, visiting lodges in different states and auditing the accounts of their officers. On his trip he covered 6,500 miles. Since his return he has been visiting with his brother, I. G. Hornbeck and other friends in Murdock and vicinity.

"Busy Baisters" Club
The Busy Baisters' club met at the home of Mildred Schlaphoff on June 28th. We studied our lesson on how to make pockets. Lavina Cordes gave a demonstration on altering a pattern. The next meeting will be on July 12th at the home of Mrs. Floy Buell. A very delicious lunch was served by our hostess.—News Reporter.

Candidate for Unicameral
Charles Long, who was urged by many friends to enter the race for legislator, before the deadline for filing arrived, tossed his hat into the ring and is now one of the five seeking that office—all of them from Cass county, by the way.

Pilgrim's Progress
The Pilgrim spent a delightful day with the men's class of the M. E. church at Alvo last Sunday. It is always a pleasure to meet this intelligent group of men, who show a keen interest in building the Kingdom of Christ and enriching their mind and soul in the study of the scriptures. The preaching service (only 45 minutes) was enjoyed by the Pilgrim in the beautiful decorated church with their finely arranged program and vested Senior and Junior choirs. It is a great privilege and joy to worship there.—L. N.

Kept Busy with Improvements
Rev. and Mrs. C. Jannen are finding there is much work around their newly improved home, since coming to Murdock early in June, but they are happy to see new improvements taking place almost every day. Rev. Jannen, until his recent retirement from the active work, gave the Nebraska conference 41 years of faithful Christian service, as pastor and district superintendent. During that time he made a host of friends and a multitude of church contacts. Murdock welcomes them to this community to live.

LOUIS NOT TO FIGHT THIS YEAR
CHICAGO, July 1 (UP)—Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis will not meet Max Baer in September and will do no more fighting this year with the exception of a few possible exhibitions, his co-manager, Julian Black said today.

“Joe has been working hard and needs a rest,” Black said. “He has defended his title four times since he won it from Braddock a year ago.” Black said he had talked to Mike Jacobs, New York promoter who has an option on the bomber's services, and that Jacobs had agreed Louis needs a rest.

Baer will remain as No. 1 challenger, Black said, unless he is defeated before 1939. He added that in the event Baer is beaten, Gunnar Barlund of Finland probably would be the next man in line for a crack at the title. Barlund scored a knock-out over Baer's brother, Buddy, last March.

In the event Max Baer remains unbeaten next year, it was understood he might meet Louis next spring at San Francisco during the World's Fair or at Los Angeles.

APPROVE STATE CAPITOL
PORTLAND Ore., July 1 (UP)—The PWA today approved the new $2,500,000 Oregon state capitol and it will be occupied immediately by the state government.
