ENTIRE NEW LINE OF ATTRACTIONS WITH GIBBS

When the W. A. Gibbs Shows come to Plattsmouth Sunday for a week's engagement on the Chicago avenue show grounds, an entire new line of attractions will be in evidence. This is Gibbs' third consecutive year to play here under Legion auspices.

Major White and the stone man, two former featured attractions, are not with Mr. Gibbs this year. Instead the super-attraction is the bird show, according to Ralph Gibbs, who arrived in Plattsmouth Tuesday to put out the advertising. This attraction is packing in the crowds everywhere, he declares. Second in drawing ratio is the minstrel show. Of course there is the athletic show that always tops everything in Plattsmouth. This feature like others on the Gibbs retinue is in new hands, featuring two of the best boxers and wrestlers on the road.

The riding devices will be pretty much the same as in past years, including the chairplane, ferris wheel, carousel, revolving barrel, merry-go-round and Kiddy ride.

Legion officials say the Gibbs aggregation is the finest traveling show concern they have ever done business with, and are pleased to have them back for the third consecutive year. It is Mr. Gibbs' plan to carry a clean and attractive program of entertainment and he has always been quick to respond to complaints of any nature regarding the conduct of any of his employees.

The shows, traveling overland, will arrive here Sunday from Falls City and be set up ready for opening Monday night, July 18. The week of July 25 they will play at Nebraska City.
As usual with Gibbs, there will be no gate charge and admission to the midway is free.

DEMONSTRATION OF C AND JAY MOTOR CONDITIONING

Does your motor leak, power, pickup—eat gasoline and oil? All of these common ailments, it is claimed can be corrected by the "C and Jay" scientific method of motor conditioning, to be demonstrated Friday and Saturday of this week at Hild's Phillips "66" Service Station by a factory trained representative.

Special equipment to test the compression of your motor before and after treatment will show what has been accomplished by this conditioning process, that can be accomplished while you wait. The C and Jay process frees the gum, wax, sludge and sticks carbon from rings, valves, oil, rings and crankcase and purges the parts—top and bottom—giving more mileage and saving gas and oil. The process is guaranteed, and any car owner not entirely satisfied with results may have money refunded. It contains no mica, graphite or harmful acids, prevalent in some so-called carbon removers, and users are protected from motor damage by product liability insurance written by Lloyds of London.

The factory man will be here two days only. See the ad elsewhere in this issue of the Journal.

GLACIER PRIEST WILL TRAVERSE ALASKAN NORTH

CHICO, Cal. (UP)—Father Bernard Hubbard, famed "glacier priest," will leave his base on King's Island in a week or so for northern Alaskan native villages in search of scientific data.

In a letter to his brother, Capt. John Hubbard of Chico, the noted scientist and explorer said he would make the voyage in a primitive boat, equipped with a 22-horsepower motor, and will be accompanied by three members of the expedition and three Eskimos.

Father Hubbard, who has been on isolated King's Island studying the life and language of Eskimos, said in his letter he would "go over the top of Alaska into Canada and back this summer" in his hunt for scientific data.

"This trip should bring us into contact with all Eskimo tribes of northern Alaska," the letter read. "I expect to get back to Nome in August and then may fly to Juneau and get back to the states in September."

He revealed that while in the Arctic he will search for some signs of the Russian trans-polar fliers, missing since last Aug. 13, on an attempted non-stop flight from Moscow to the United States.

TRAIN-RACING DRIVERS IN UTAH TO BE CURBED

SALT LAKE CITY (UP)—In Utah it is not only foolish to race a train to a crossing—but it is also against the law.

Highway patrol officers point out that a motorist who takes a chance at a crossing of the roads and the rails may be haled into court on criminal charges—if he lives.

A law enacted by the last session of the legislature states:

"Whenever any person driving a vehicle approaches a railroad grade crossing and a clearly visible electric or mechanical signal gives warning of the immediate approach of a train, the driver of such vehicle shall stop within 50 feet, but not less than 10 feet from the nearest track of such railroad, and shall not proceed until he can do so safely."
