

LEAVE ON VACATION
 From Monday's Daily—
 John Kishel and Bill Rosencrans left last night on a two weeks' vacation trip through Colorado and Wyoming. They will visit Estes Park, Pike's Peak and the many other places of interest in these states.

RETURNS HOME
 From Monday's Daily—
 Mrs. Harley Wilkinson of North Platte, who has been here visiting at the homes of her sister, Mrs. Ray Bryant and brother, Joe McNeal, departed this afternoon for her home.

VISIT AT OMAHA
 From Monday's Daily—
 Mr. and Mrs. William Heinrichsen, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. William Heinrichsen, Sr., and Miss Wilhelmina Heinrichsen were visiting relatives in Omaha yesterday. They also visited in Fort Calhoun before returning home.

NEED NOT BE ALARMED
 LINCOLN, July 12 (UP)—State Treasurer Walter H. Jensen said today tax payers need not be alarmed by the deficit of approximately $400,000 in the general fund.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS MEET
 The members of the Catholic Daughters of America held a business session Tuesday evening at the club rooms of the Holy Rosary church on west Pearl street, a very pleasing number of the members being present despite the heat.

MOVE TO OMAHA
 Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Kelley have moved to Omaha where they will make their home at 703 South 31st avenue. They will have charge of the new Tastee Shop opened there by V. F. Kelley.

RETURNS TO CHICAGO
 Dean Patton, of Chicago, who has been here visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Patton, departed Monday for his home. While here Dean was able to meet many of the old time friends.

ASKS FOR DIVORCE
 An action asking a decree of divorce has been filed in the district court by Pearl Hall against Clark Hall. The parties are residents of the vicinity of Elmwood.

WILL ENTER AERO SCHOOL
 Edward Lorenz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil A. Lorenz, departed Tuesday for Los Angeles, California, where he will enter the A. I. T. institute, one of the largest in the country. He will find an old friend at this training school in Herbert Minor, who has been there for several months. He will also have the pleasure of being with his sister, Miss Emily Lorenz, who has been located at Long Beach for the past two years.

DEPARTS FOR THE WEST
 Evelyn Lee Gooding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Gooding, departed on Sunday for Casper, Wyoming, where she will visit for some time at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Speck. It is hoped that the change of climate may prove beneficial as she has been in poor health for some time.

JOB PLACEMENTS GREATER
 LINCOLN, July 11 (UP)—The Nebraska state employment service today reported a 12 per cent gain in private job placements over May and said June was the fourth consecutive month to show an increase.

Jobs were obtained for 3,967 persons in June, about one-third in private industry. Private placements, however, were considerably under the same month last year.

Jobs in public industry increased 37½ per cent due principally to numerous highway and public power and irrigation projects started during the month.

FRANK DARROW HERE

Frank T. Darrow, chief engineer of the Burlington, was in the city Tuesday afternoon to look over the flood conditions in the Missouri valley territory of the Burlington and incidentally calling on the old time friends.

The Burlington has been affected by the high water on the Kansas City-Council Bluffs line in the vicinity of Bartlett, Iowa, and which has caused delay in train service through the necessit for detours.

JUDGE YEAGER HERE

From Wednesday's Daily—
 Judge John W. Yeager of Omaha, was in the city today for a few hours in the interest of his candidacy for chief justice of the supreme court. Judge Yeager is a member of the fourth district bench and one of the ablest jurists in the state. He has held court here frequently and his ability on the bench has been well recognized by members of the local bar.

VISIT AT MASONIC HOME

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Thorp and Wayne Hagmann, all of Thayer, were here Sunday to visit with Samuel Barrett, uncle of Mrs. Thorp, who is at the Nebraska Masonic Home. Mr. Barrett had his visitors as guests at the Home to enjoy the fine repast. This was the first time since March 22nd that the members of the family had met and the afternoon was spent in visiting.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all of our old friends and neighbors in Plattsmouth for their kindly words of sympathy and acts of kindness in the time of our sorrow at the death of our sister. We also wish to thank all those who assisted at the funeral services and made our grief less severe.—Mr. and Mrs. Val Burkle.
