

MANLEY NEWS

O. E. McDonald was over to his farm near Murray last week, where he went to be present at the threshing and to take care of his share of the grain.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorbold Hansen were in Omaha last Sunday, where they visited relatives and friends for the day, being guests at the home of a sister of Mrs. Hansen.

Herman Rauth and Thorbold Hansen were doubling up stacking the remainder of their grain which was not combined and getting ready for the threshing of the remainder of the harvest.

Lawrence Krecklow was threshing Thursday of last week and getting the small grain out of the way, so he could handle what other work on the farm that might demand his attention. His yields were only nominal.

While other things have been in the dumps and business very slow, August Krecklow has continued to make trailers and dispose of them. He just sold a four wheeler, which went to the state of Washington and is busy on another one just now. Miss Rena Christensen is visiting at the home of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth. Previously, she had visited for a week with a friend at Grand Island. She also expects to visit a number of her lady friends in Manley and Weeping Water while here.

Enjoyed Short Visit Here

Mrs. Elmer Pierson and children who have been guests at the home of Mrs. Alice Jenkins for some two weeks, were joined last week by Mr. Pierson, who remained for a short time and then all returned home to Denver.

Funeral at St. Patrick's Church

Mrs. Dave Ziers, of Louisville, died at the Security Benefit Association hospital at Topeka, Kansas, the fore part of last week, having been taken there but a few days before for treatment. The funeral was held at St. Patrick's Catholic church here, of which she was a member. Revs. Father Robert Salmon, supply pastor of St. John's church, Plattsmouth, and Father Plewa pastor of the local church conducted the services. Interment was in the Louisville cemetery, where the family have resided since the establishment of the cement plant there, in which Mr. Ziers is employed. Besides the husband, the deceased lady is survived by three children, a daughter and two sons.

Given Farewell Party

Father Plewa was guest of honor at a farewell party sponsored by the Catholic Youth Organization and held at Sokol park, north of Plattsmouth. Rev. Plewa is leaving Manley for York, where he is to become an assistant pastor. His stay here is terminated by the early return of the regular pastor, who has been on a vacation trip to Ireland for a visit with his mother. A very pleasant time was had by all.

Wins in Contested Games

In a game which was played at Manley between the Manley team and that of the Oxford school a number of miles east of Manley, the home team was able to win by a score of 13 to 2. One of the features of the game, and which went a long way to build up the score of the home team, was the two home runs which were made by Harvey Bergman, at opportune times.

Making Fair Progress

Mrs. Walter O'Brien, who has been in poor health for some time past, went to St. Joseph hospital in Omaha last week, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. She rallied nicely from the trying ordeal and is reported making very good progress toward recovery.

Entertained Royal Neighbors

Mrs. Alice Jenkins entertained at her home last Wednesday at a card party the fellow members of the Royal Neighbors, with a very pleasant afternoon being enjoyed by all. The event was in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Pierson, who has been visiting here from her home in Denver. She was accompanied by their children and they have enjoyed a very fine visit here as well as the opportunity of meeting various old friends here. Mrs. Pierson and the children left Friday for their home in the Mile High city.

AVOCA NEWS

Miss Phyllis Straub underwent an operation on her foot at Nebraska City a few days ago.

M. H. Lum visited relatives and friends at Verdon, where he formerly resided, last Sunday.

Donna and Fred Lux, of Beatrice, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Straub during the past week.

Major Monte Lum, of Fairbury, a nephew of H. M. Lum, visited his uncle and transacted business here last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cocker and children of Omaha were guests of relatives and friends here for a short time last Monday evening.

Leo McCann and wife moved last Tuesday to the property owned by D. E. Sumner, where they will make their home for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Thomas and daughters, Misses Eileen and Nadine of Shenandoah visited at the W. H. Bogard home here over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Marquardt and their daughter, Mrs. Emma Rawalt were guests of friends in Omaha last Sunday, where they enjoyed a very fine visit.

L. L. Larson, formerly superintendent of the Avoca schools, but now at Syracuse, accompanied by Mrs. Larson, were brief visitors here last Monday evening.

Jean Pittman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion C. Pittman was a guest of her cousin, Miss Beatrice Chapman, at Nehawka, several days during the past week.

L. L. McCarty and Joe Mrasek, of Plattsmouth, two of the many candidates for the office of sheriff, were visitors here last Tuesday and met many of the voters.

Mrs. C. O. Zaiser was a visitor in Omaha last Monday, going to take their little guest, Miss Mary Lou Kellyan home from a week's visit at the Zaiser home here.

June Everett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Everett of Weeping Water was visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. Rachel Everett, her aunt Leona and her uncle Silas one day last week.

Fred Ehlers and son of Syracuse having been giving the Stone school house (District 77) a complete going over and putting everything in the best of condition for the opening of school in the fall.

Fred Bartellew ho has been in rather poor health for the past several months feeling slightly better at this time, is taking a vacation in Minnesota, where he expects to spend a month with friends.

Miss Dorothy Gollner, who is employed by the government in Lincoln, visited at home over the week end, enjoying the time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gollner and many young friends, as well.

Mrs. Harry Michel entertained the Garden club at her home on Monday of last week when a large number of the club members were present and a very worth while discussion of gardens and garden work engaged in by the members.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corbin celebrated their sixteenth wedding anniversary last Sunday and had with them to help enjoy the occasion Frank Dean and family of Murdock, as well as various friends and relatives of this vicinity.

Threshing in this vicinity is about finished. During the height of the season much grain was brought to the Avoca elevator owned and operated by Fred Marquardt, who, with his regular helper, Earl Freeman, had to have additional help in order to take care of it. Claude Hollenberg and Silas Everett were both working there.

Yields Prove Satisfactory

Albert Schwartz, who lives a short distance south of Avoca, upon the completion of his threshing found he had made a yield of 27 bushels of wheat to the acre, compared with some very small yields in this vicinity. Henry Grauf reports an oats yield of 60 bushels per acre, which is also pretty good compared with the general run.

Home from Vacation

Misses Mueller Shackley and Anna Marie Sailing, two young ladies of this vicinity who have been spending two weeks in the Black Hills of South Dakota, making the trip in their car and enjoying the cool and invigorating climate prevalent there, returned home last week and report having had a splendid time.

Home from Visit in North

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Hall, the former pastor of the Congregational church, arrived home last week from a month spent in South Dakota, where they were guests of relatives and friends. They enjoyed their vacation and were able to see many interesting and grand sights in the neighboring state.

Home Damaged by Fire

The home of Albert Mickles was considerably damaged by fire before the flames were extinguished, Monday, the greatest damage was caused by smoke and water. Some of their clothing was also burned. The fire, of unknown origin, had gained considerable headway when it was discovered.

Visited Friends at Franklin

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel and Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Marquardt made up a merry party that went to Franklin, Nebraska, for a visit last Sunday. There they were guests at the homes of Rev. and Mrs. Fred Hall and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brendel. Rev. Hall was formerly pastor of the Congregational church here, and T. J. Brendel is a brother of Dr. J. W. Brendel. All enjoyed the day most pleasantly and returned home that same evening. Mr. Marquardt says crops all along the way are beginning to show signs of needing rain.

Mo. Pacific Bus Stops

South Bound North Bound
8:20 a. m. 10:20 p. m.
NOTE—5:40 p. m. Stop Discontinued
SWEENEY CAFE
Eagle Building South 6th Street

PLATTSMOUTH TUESDAY, AUG. 2

Russell Bros CIRCUS
GAY, GLITTERING, GLORIOUS GALAXY OF WORLD'S CHOICEST CIRCUS TALENT
EVERYTHING NEW
UTMOST IN QUALITY
GREATEST CIRCUS ON EARTH FOR THE PRICE

OUR PHOTO-FLASHES

DIAMOND SPARKLES

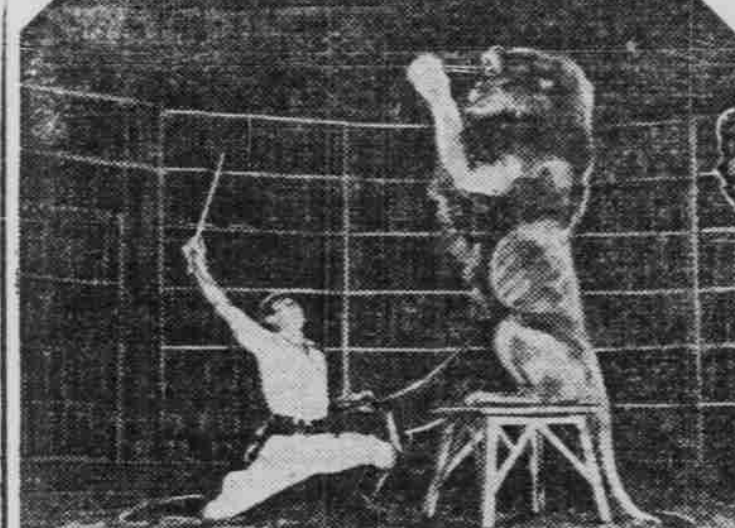

(1) Returning to baseball as coach of the Brooklyn Dodgers, Babe Ruth is shown fulfilling his duties around the first base line. (2) Johnny Vander Meer, the Cincinnati Reds hurler of no-hit, no-run fame, imitates a fountain as he cools off before going to the mound. (3) Frank (Pinky) Higgins, third baseman of the Boston Red Sox, bangs a single over second base to break the consecutive hit record of 11 made by Tris Speaker in 1920.

Miss Sunshine—Long Beach, Calif. — Pretty Miss Louise Shultz won the title of "Miss Sunshine" over fifty contestants during the annual celebration of sun, surf and sand days here.

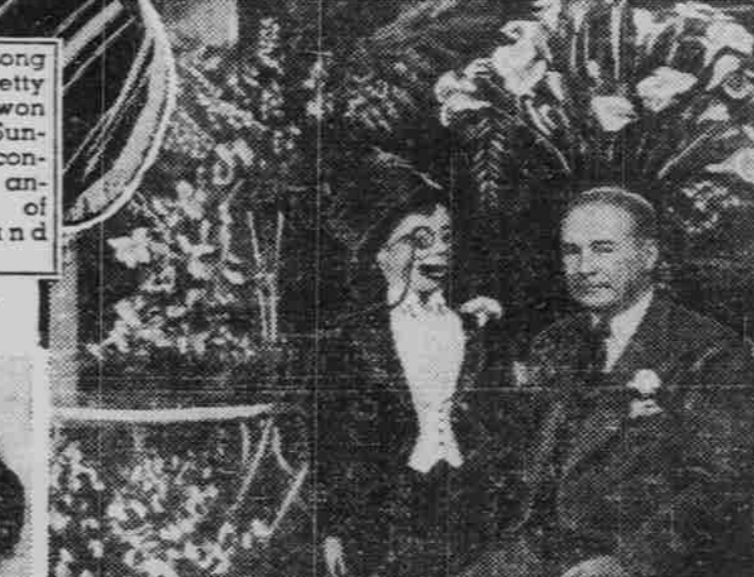

General Electric Exhibit at World's Fair—New York City—The 1939 Fair added another structure to its numerous buildings as the ground-breaking ceremony took place for the General Electric exhibition building. The structure will provide for the generation of 10 million volts of artificial lightning in the Steinmetz Hall wing. Left to right: Grover A. Whalen, president of the Fair; Owen D. Young, chairman of the board of General Electric; and Charles E. Wilson, executive vice-president.

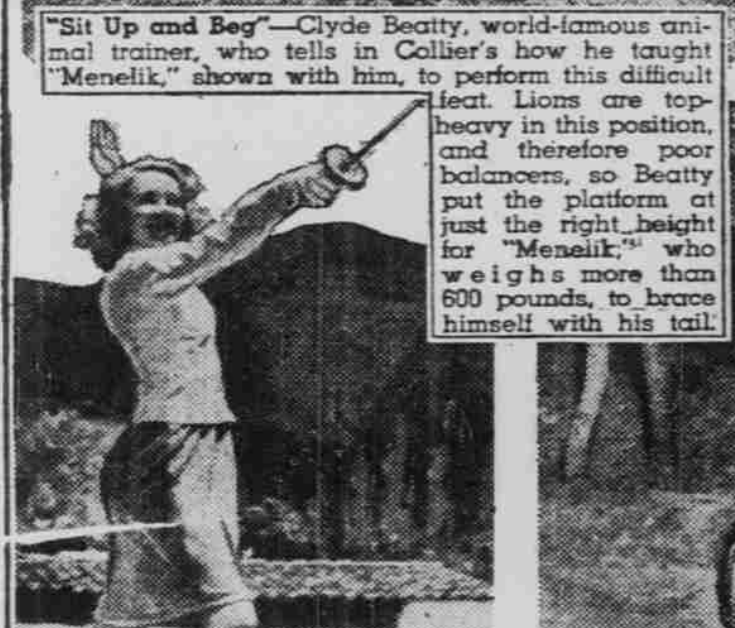

Sit Up and Beg—Clyde Beatty, world-famous animal trainer, who tells in Collier's how he taught "Menedik," shows with him, to perform this difficult feat. Lions are top-heavy in this position, and therefore poor balancers, so Beatty put the platform at just the right height for "Menedik," who weighs more than 600 pounds, to brace himself with his tail.

Hen Lays 1/2 Pound Egg—Christiana Foster, 6 years old, looks with wonder at a V-shaped egg weighing one-half pound laid by the hen shown here. The odd-shaped egg is in reality three eggs.

Say It With Flowers—That's the advice "Charlie Rose," left, gave to Harry Ferris, his human stooge, at a meeting of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association, proving that he's smart even though he is only a dummy. The F.T.D.A. recently was cited by Consumers Information as an example of trade associations which develop new services for the public—in this case a service which fosters romance as well as business.

Wins Annual Fencing Tournament—Arrowhead Springs, Calif. — Miss Maxine Conrad, noted for her beauty as well as for her fencing, defeated over fifty competitors in the annual women's tournament held here recently.

Profitable Pests—Los Angeles, Calif. R. W. Thorpe is perhaps the only wholesale and retail exclusive spider dealer in the country. Starting his business as a hobby, he now supplies laboratories, pet stores and zoos. He has never been bitten yet.

Summer Wear for Milady—(1) A floral pattern crepe gown in many colors. The line of the gown is very thin and simple with a gathered flounce at the feet. (2) A bougainville evening gown of black net. Wide black velvet ribbon is used for the sash and bands on the skirt. (3) Strictly tailored shorts in natural silk-colored shantung with four pockets. The belt is in green and beige grosgrain, and the scarf is in green, white and beige.

Coal Barge—Floating Church—M. Bellanger, a French Abbe, has converted an old coal barge into a floating church in which he preaches the canons of France. Named "Je Sers" ("I Serve"), the church is built of reinforced concrete drawn through the canals by a tug.

Tea Time On The Diamond—George Selkirk and Jake Powell, hard-slugging New York Yankee outfielders, hoist husky beakers of iced tea in a between-innings rest. Powell, right, leads by a swallow.

Shower Greets Shower—Baby doesn't like the water it seems and gives vent to her own "shower" of tears.

Geo. E. Nickles
A Business Man
Not A Politician
Democratic Candidate for
Lieut. Governor
Experienced as a Legislator (1933 and 1935 sessions) he stands for economy and sound business for Nebraska.
As chairman of the Finance Committee of the House during the 1935 session, he recommended reductions in appropriations that saved the taxpayers nearly Four Million Dollars from amount requested.

THRIFT Specials
White Shoes
98c-$1.98-$2.48
Fetzer Shoe Co.
Home of Quality Footwear