The Taxpayers' League of South Bend precinct, of which Robert Long is chairman and Martin Blum secretary, met Wednesday evening at the Fairland school. Elmer Hallstrom, county commissioner from the second district, was the guest speaker and gave an interesting talk.

Candidates for various county offices were present to meet their friends and the voters of the precinct. After brief talks by the candidates, the meeting was adjourned and the remainder of the evening spent visiting informally, the voters trying to gain a better knowledge of the qualifications, aims and plans of each office seeker.

The average voter, knowing little of most of the candidates whose names appear on the ballot at each election, should take advantage of opportunities such as this to meet and know those who are running for office and thus be the better enabled to vote intelligently and for the best man for the job.

Injured in Auto Wreck Mrs. Ella C. Johnson and her daughter, Mrs. George A. Dvorak, both of Lincoln, were in the Lincoln General hospital late Sunday evening as a result of injuries sustained in an accident between Ashland and South Bend about 8 o'clock that evening.

The ladies were returning to their homes in Lincoln after visiting at the home of Mrs. Johnson's son, Charles Kennedy, here.

Hospital attendants reported Mrs. Johnson was suffering from a severe laceration on the left arm and a possible broken hip. Mrs. Dvorak was the more seriously injured of the two, having her left collar bone fractured and suffering numerous cuts and bruises. Both were affected with shock as a result of the accident, hospital attendants said.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Choquette and son of Lincoln, who were also in the car, escaped uninjured.

The driver of the other car was William Spink of Lincoln. His brother Jack Spink and two ladies were with him, all escaping without serious injury.

PLLEDGES ETERNAL FRIENDSHIP PARIS, France, July 22 (UP)—Eternal ties bind Britain and France in friendship, King George VI said today in unveiling a monument at Villers-Bretonneux to 10,885 soldiers whose bodies were never found.

The king ended his four-day state visit to France at a solemn ceremony in the battle field where on April 24, 1918 the soldiers helped to turn back the last great German offensive.

The king and President Albert Lebrun stood side by side and proclaimed the unity of their peoples.

"We stand on the soil of a great people to whom the events which we recall bind us with ties that cannot weaken" the king said.

From the cemetery the king and queen went to Calais to sail for home at 5:10 p. m. and arrive in London at 9:15.

RECIPROCITY WITH KANSAS LINCOLN, July 22 (UP)—Governor Cochran today announced a reciprocal agreement has been reached with the state of Kansas permitting interstate farm to market truck hauls without payment of permit fees and road taxes.

Under Nebraska's reciprocal tariff, laws first were levied on all trucks entering the state equal to the Kansas tax. The exemptions include only grain shipments between border communities.

Cochran instructed R. W. Cuiwell, chief of the motor vehicle division to ask Kansas officials for the exemption after several complaints were received from farmers in the border area.

James J. Cumiskey, chief clerk of the Kansas crop commission informed Cochran that the exemption of "interstate hauling from farm to market" was possible under the Kansas motor carriers act.
