WITNESS my hand and the Seal of my office at Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, this 19th day of July, 1938.

(Seal) GEO. R. SAYLES,
County Clerk, Cass County, Nebraska.

Surprised Newlyweds.

Noble Kiser and wife, who were recently married, were given a surprise last Sunday by their relatives and friends, who gathered and going to the home of Guy Kiser, where they surprised the young couple. The newlyweds were presented with many gifts that will be useful when they begin housekeeping. A delightful dinner was served and there were present for the occasion Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spangler, Everett Spangler and wife, Mrs. Margaret Todd and son, Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kiser and family, Martin Sporer and family and Chester Sporer and family, as well as William Sporer.

Touring the State.

George E. Nickles, democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, departed last Monday morning for Plattsmouth and Omaha from where he went north, covering the northeastern part of the state in his advertising campaign, arriving at Leigh Tuesday evening and from there making his way north and west, expecting to return through the central part of the state, arriving home Saturday evening. Mr. Nickles is making a thorough canvass of the district through which he is passing and will contact as many people as possible during his week's trip and be ready for further campaigning the coming week.

Visited Friends in Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brendel who have been making their home at Franklin, Nebr., for the past few years where he has been engaged in work for the state, arrived in Murray late last week and remained over Sunday, visiting with Mrs. Margaret Brendel and son, Richard, and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Seybolt, returning to his work early this week. While here they also visited John S. Vallery and family as well as with his sisters.

Moving to Omaha.

Clarence Armstrong and family who have made their home in Murray for some time past, with the change of the working force of the Missouri Pacific of which Mr. Armstrong is a member, they are com-

Attended Funeral of Mrs. Thomason.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Thomason, who passed away at her home in Lincoln last last week was held in Lincoln Monday. The pall bearers were selected from the neighbors here as follows: Lloyd Lewis, W. L. Selbolt, A. T. Hansen, W. R. Young, Thomas Tilson and Earl Lancaster.

Picnicked at King Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Merritt, Lloyd Lewis and wife with their children and his father, J. D. Lewis and John T. Becker and family of Plattsmouth were down to King Hill last Sunday where they picnicked and enjoyed a very pleasant time.

Attend Ashland Rotary

From Tuesday's Daily—Searl S. Davis and son, Stephen, were in Ashland last evening where they attended a meeting of the Ashland Rotary club. Rev. V. C. Wright was the speaker of the evening and gave to the Rotarians a very interesting report on his trip and observations in the southland.

HAS HAND INJURED

From Tuesday's Daily—Donald Balliter, who resides on a farm near this city, suffered the injury of his right hand this morning, having it torn by a hay fork. The injury was such that medical attention was found necessary. The injured hand was dressed by Dr. Wilbur Eaton and the young man returned to his home.

PREACHES AT UNION

From Monday's Daily—Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Lowson were visiting friends in Union last evening where Rev. Lowson preached the sermon at the church service.

IRVIN LECHLITER

Democratic Candidate for CONGRESS

Born on a farm near Auburn. Always a resident of the First District. Graduate of the University of Nebraska and George Washington University Law School. Formerly Secretary of the Law Library of Congress in Washington, D. C.

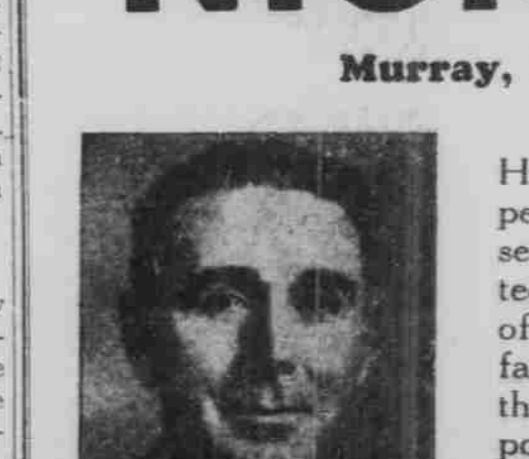

MR. LECHLITER is a liberal and fundamentally in accord with the policies of President Roosevelt. Democrats should nominate a man who will win in November and who will support progressive legislation which is commensurate with the best interests of the First District. Mr. LECHLITER knows the needs of the First District and he knows good government.
