

SOCIAL

From Thursday's Daily— Celebrates Birthday—

Mrs. S. E. Kerr, a long time resident of Plattsmouth, celebrated her eighty-third birthday anniversary yesterday at her home on Pearl street. Mrs. Kerr has been a resident of this city for 56 years.

Mrs. Julia Reeser of Glenwood and Mrs. James Rishel, daughters of Mrs. Kerr, spent the afternoon with her and were joined in the evening by their families for a dinner in honor of the occasion. Mrs. Alice Andrews, another daughter, and her daughter Mina and son Gene, who have been spending the summer in New York, returned to help celebrate the anniversary.

From Friday's Daily— Delta Deck Club—

Mrs. Lillian Livingston entertained the Delta Deck club last evening at her home. Mathilda Soenichsen won the first prize, Amelia Martens second and Janet McMaken third.

Entertains Guests—

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tritsch and son, Robert, entertained a number of friends Thursday evening at a swimming party and picnic luncheon at the Merritt park north of the city. The guests were Lieutenant James Richardson, U. S. A., of Hawaii, formerly of Nebraska City, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Kenner and Billy of Nebraska City and Mrs. Len Henry of Los Angeles.

W. H. M. S. Meets—

The Women's Home Missionary society was entertained yesterday at the home of its new president, Mrs. V. T. Arn. Mrs. J. C. Lowson gave the devotionals on Paul's journey, taking as her theme, "Victorious Living, the Life of a Christian."

Since this was the first meeting of the year, plans were made for the year. The enigmas, or quizzes, were then given with Mrs. T. B. Farmer in charge. Mrs. R. B. Hayes brought the study courses to be used for the year, presented them and gave an outline for the members.

Delicious refreshments were then served by the hostess. A very good number was present at the meeting.

From Saturday's Daily— Honored on Birthday—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lippold of Omaha were in Plattsmouth Thursday evening, coming down to celebrate the birthday yesterday of Mrs. Lippold's mother, Mrs. Fannie Crosser. They brought with them a freezer of ice cream and a beautifully decorated birthday cake and spent the evening with Mrs. Crosser, making a delightful surprise for her.

Surprise Mrs. Crosser—

A group of ladies from the Christian church aid society surprised Mrs. Fannie Crosser yesterday afternoon at a handkerchief shower in honor of her birthday. A dainty luncheon was served. Those attending were Mrs. L. D. McKinney, Mrs. O. C. Hudson, Mrs. Roy Carey, Mrs. J. W. Taenzler, Mrs. E. G. Ofc, Mrs. J. H. Graves, Mrs. Charles Manners, Mrs. Hal Garnett.

Visiting in City—

Betty Ann McKissick, who has been visiting for the summer at Riverton, Iowa, is here to enjoy a visit at the home of Dorothy Jean Turner, a school mate during the residence of the McKissick family here. She will remain over the week-end.

Give Farwell for Friends—

The Neighborhood Pinochle club, of which Mr. and Mrs. William Swanda have been members, are regretting very much to part with this estimable family who are leaving Sunday for their new home at Burwell.

On Monday the Swanda family family were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Woest.

Friday evening the club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie W. Niel, the event being a covered dish fried chicken supper in honor of the departing friends. After the delicious repast the members joined in playing pinochle and in which Mrs. Augusta Haupt was winner of the first prize, Mrs. Florence Coleman, second, while for the men Mr. Swanda was the winner of first and Charles Manners of the second prize.

The club members joined in presenting a very attractive gift to Mr. and Mrs. Swanda as a token of the many pleasant associations here in Plattsmouth.

Entertain for Niece—

Misses Mia and Barbara Gering entertained Thursday evening at a delightful garden beefsteak roast at the home on North Sixth street, the event honoring their niece, Miss Ursula Herold, of New York City, who is spending a part of the summer here. The guests were later entertained at a theatre party. Those to enjoy the occasion were: Alice Louise Wescott, Phyllis McKenzie, of Chicago, Helen Wiles, Helen Farley, Mrs. Charles Tunnell and Miss Herold.

LOCALS

From Thursday's Daily— Mr. Vernie Younker of Roca, Nebraska was visiting in Plattsmouth yesterday with the John Alwin family.

Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Lowson were dinner guests Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Cramer.

Attorney C. E. Tefft of Weeping Water was here today to attend to some matters of business in the county and district courts.

D. C. West and grandson, Jack Wunderlich, of Nehawka, were visiting in Plattsmouth Wednesday, Jack playing tennis on the court here while Mr. West attended to business matters.

Miss Eleanor Minor is in Lincoln where she is visiting friends.

Miss Phyllis McKenzie, of Chicago, who has been here as the guest of Miss Alice Louise Wescott, returned Friday to her home.

MOVE TO BURWELL

From Saturday's Daily— Mr. and Mrs. William Swanda expect to leave tomorrow for Burwell, Nebraska where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Swanda has been transferred to that station. Their many friends will regret to see them leave and wish them much success in their new home.

TO VISIT COLORADO

Mrs. H. P. Goos and daughter, Miss Harriett, with Mrs. J. R. Brown and two daughters, of Cleveland, Ohio, are motoring to Denver and other spots in Colorado to enjoy a short vacation. They will visit many of the mountain resorts before returning home.

(Political Advertising) (Political Advertising) (Political Advertising)

For an EFFICIENT and ECONOMICAL Administration of the Office

VOTE FOR

John M. Meisinger
Candidate for SHERIFF
on the Democratic Ticket

Four years experience as Constable of Cass county, Neb.
Primaries August 9 Your Support Appreciated

WM. P. KRAEGER
Republican Candidate for
Cass County Commissioner
Second District

Your Vote will be Appreciated

VOTE FOR

WALTER H. SMITH
PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA

Democratic Candidate for COUNTY ATTORNEY

Your Support Appreciated Primaries, Tues., Aug. 9

RAY F. BECKER
Candidate for
REGISTER OF DEEDS
Republican Ticket

Your Support Appreciated Primaries, August 9

Vote For

'Joe' Mrasek
Born and Raised In Cass County
Republican Candidate for Sheriff

A Man who will give the Whole of Cass County a Twenty-Four Hour Service . . . at a Reduced Cost!

Geo. E. Nickles
A Business Man
Not A Politician
Democratic Candidate for
Lieut. Governor

Experienced as a Legislator (1933 and 1935 sessions) he stands for economy and sound business for Nebraska.

As chairman of the Finance Committee of the House during the 1935 session, he recommended reductions in appropriations that saved the taxpayers nearly Four Million Dollars from amount requested.

Property Owner and Taxpayer

H. E. "Slatts" Carson
Murdock, Nebraska

CANDIDATE FOR NOMINATION FOR

COUNTY SHERIFF
Republican Ticket

Your Co-Operation at Primary Appreciated!

OUR PHOTO-FLASHES

Around the Diamond—(Inset) Jack Knott, pitcher whom the Chicago White Sox recently acquired from the St. Louis Browns, took sweet revenge by defeating his old team mates twice in one week. (Above) Johnny Aiken, pitcher; Earl Averill, center-fielder; and Bob Feller, pitcher, all of the Cleveland Indians, who have been credited for the team's high standing.

Know Your Screen Stars?—New York City—Here are the doubles for Hollywood motion picture stars who sailed recently for London where they will appear in a forthcoming production. From left to right they are: Carole Dietrich, Margaret Bryson, Virginia Hendel, Sylvia La Mar, Betty Dietrich and Exelle Pouille. Can you name the stars they represent?

Space Defying Thermometer—Los Angeles, Calif.—Dr. John Strong, astrophysicist at the California Institute of Technology, displays his uncanny thermometer, an electric telescope in effect, which, pointed at any distant object such as the sun or even a bathing beauty, takes the object's temperature.

For Campus Wear—Some of the smart collegiate wear that was displayed in the college fashion show held recently in New York. Left to right: An odd jacket and tweed skirt, a plaid skirt and Sutherland tweed jacket, and a reversible corduroy coat with slacks to match.

Camera Shy—This line litter of puppies can't be female—if snubbing a camera is any indication.

Bathing Beauties—Only a generation apart. Clothing designers, as well as industrial designers, have helped to change our ways of life in the past quarter century, as these pictures show. Consumers Information uses the photographs to demonstrate how national advertising has altered the habits of a nation—and we think you'll agree it's for the better.

Paternal Instinct?—It seems that Papa Ostrich was found sitting on the nest when the chicks hatched at the Los Angeles ostrich farm. Marilyn Brown presents proud papa with an orange.

Strong-Man Act—St. Louis, Mo.—Equipped with powerful shoulder blades and unusual muscular control, Lawrence Anderson amazes his neighbors every now and then by pulling a 2 1/2-ton truck along the street in this novel manner.

Hiszoner—the Two Fisted Milker—Governor E. D. Rivers of Georgia won the championship when he and Commissioner of Agriculture Columbus Roberts engaged in a milking contest on the lawn of the Capitol in Atlanta. The governor used both hands while Roberts used one.

Huge-Clipper 'In Taxi Trial—Seattle, Wash.—A view of the largest clipper, the Boeing 314 Clipper, as she took her first taxi trial on Puget Sound.

Disclosing the Record—James Roosevelt (right) son of the President, reveals to Walter Davenport, associate editor of Collier's, all data on his earnings in the insurance business, in order to set clear the record of his income which has recently been wildly exaggerated. All details of Jimmy's business career, including income tax figures, will be presented in Collier's during August.

Sportswear Note—A versatile sweater knitted of mercerized knitting and crochet cotton. It is reversible, the back consisting of plain ribbing.