W. B. BANNING

Democratic Candidate for
STATE TREASURER

Needs no Introduction to the Voters of Cass County or Eastern Nebraska!

Mr. Voter, do you know that there are 83 candidates for State office at the coming primary, and that 52 of them come from Douglas and Lancaster counties. In 1936 there were eight to elect to state office and Lancaster and Douglas counties elected them all and the rural districts did not elect a single one. Time to support a candidate outside of Lancaster and Douglas county.

Vote for W. B. BANNING for State Treasurer

THE PLATTSMOUTH EVENING JOURNAL, 15c PER WEEK.

DEPART FOR WEST COAST

Friday morning a party consisting of Louis Burbee and family, Earl Wolfe and son, Robert, departed from Union, headed for the west coast where they will visit friends and relatives for the next thirty days and expect to make their future home providing employment to their liking is available. Mr. Burbee has already received an offer for his services. Earl Wolfe and son, Robert will look for acceptable employment and should it be found they also expect to remain there.
