NOTE—The following tabulated vote is not complete, Plattsmouth third ward not yet being counted. Official vote will be announced later.

The primary election of 1938 brought out a great influx of a democratic voters to the polls while the republican vote was comparatively small.

The primary developed some real horse races on the democratic side of the ballot, as in the register of deeds Miss Lillian G. White, present incumbent barely carried the nomination from Mrs. Margaret Brendel of Murray.

In the democratic clerkship race Bernard Wurl and Charles E. Howard, making his maiden bow in politics were tied and will await the mail ballots to determine the outcome.

The race for county attorney on the democratic ticket was a complete victory for Walter H. Smith, young attorney, who opposed County Attorney J. A. Capwell, Smith making a great campaign and with his friends covering all parts of the county for a real victory.

The democratic sheriff's race had attracted much attention from the friends of the large field of candidates and resulted in the renomination of Sheriff Homer Sylvester by a wide margin, Fred J. Hinz being the runnerup. Sylvester support was evidenced in all parts of the county.

In the republican race for sheriff, Joe Mrasek of this city was a winner with H. E. Carson, of Murdock as the next and L. L. McCarty third in the race.

The republican register of deeds fight was also one of the interesting contests of the primaries with Ray F. Becker of Union, winning from Ernest Giles of this city in the finals.

During the campaign a great deal of attention had been evidenced in the contest for member of the unicameral from the third district and in the battle of the ballots W. A. Metzger proved winner of first place in the district of Cass and Sarpy counties. Fred L. Carsten of Avoca being the second man and will make the race in the fall. Mr. Carsten was high in Cass county but his margin was wiped out by Metzger in Sarpy county.

A fine vote was given in Cass county to W. B. Banning for state treasurer and George E. Nickles for lieutenant governor, but both lost out in the state.
