MURDOCK ITEMS

W. O. Schewe was looking after business matters in Elmwood Tuesday of last week.

Henry Brockmuller of Waverly visited in Murdock last Wednesday, being a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John H. Buck and family.

Mrs. Wm. Eisele picnicked with her girls' Sunday school class near South Bend last Thursday afternoon, at which place all enjoyed a very happy time.

A. J. Tool, Lacey McDonald and W. O. Schewe were fishing on the Platte river last Wednesday afternoon. We have not been advised as to their luck.

William Vogt is slowly recovering from an attack of throat infection which has kept him from attending to his usual farm work at this season of the year.

Miss Norma Bornemeier has contracted to teach the school in District 19 near Nehawka and will take up her work there about the first of September.

Rev. Earl Weber, who is pastor of a church at East Peoria, Ill., visited here during the past week at the home of his parents, returning in time to occupy his pulpit Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Kissinger and family of Glenview, Nebraska, spent several hours with her relatives August 4th, before returning home. She is remembered by her many friends as being formerly Miss Martha Bornemeier.

Henry Bornemeier and family, of Elmwood, and Joe Kunz and family motored to Webster City, Iowa, last Friday morning to visit their sister, Mrs. Veima Dilger, over Sunday. They returned home Monday after spending a pleasant vacation season.

Sleeping sickness has effected a considerable number of the horses again this year, but so far only a few horses have been lost. Some of the farmers report that their afflicted horses are improving with special care administered early in the sickness.

Wm. Rikli was delivering wheat to the Murdock elevator during the past week. While the price is not high enough to justify sale of the grain, the future outlook is not any brighter, so Mr. Rikli concluded it would be as well to take the grain to market as to let it repose in the bins at home.

Henry Gakemeier, who has had a thick hedge along his farm, disposed of the same to Miss Myrtle Wood, who had the CCC boys cut the hedge and take the posts to her farm to be used in the construction of a fence around the place. Mr. Gakemeier compliments the CCC boys on their work, saying they are all good workers.

At the McCrory filling station a new way of playing horseshoes has been inaugurated. Old tires are piled around the stake at one end of the court, to height of about two and a half feet. The shoes are pitched one way only, to the stake surrounded by the tires, and those that "drop in the well" are counted on their relative nearness to the stake the same as in ordinary playing.

Leona Rueter told the girls about making sandwiches, after which she passed out a very delicious sandwich to all present.

Dorothy Skinner told and showed the girls about making salads and something about simple decorations that add much to their appearance.

Achievement Night has been planned for Friday evening, August 19.

The worst BODY ODOR is P.O.
The worst body odor comes from P.O.—perspiration odor under the arms.
Take 1 minute to use Yodora—new, amazing deodorant cream that works directly on underarm excretions. Normally P.O. constantly producing waste matter that causes body-odor. Nature intended that the kidneys should remove from the blood if good health is to endure.
When the kidneys fail to function as they should, the result is retention of waste that may cause body-odor, frequent headaches, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.
Frequent, scanty or burning passages may be further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.
The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!
Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—constantly producing waste matter that causes body-odor, frequent headaches, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

Last Week's Results

Friday, August 5, the Bluebirds defeated the Pawnees 14 to 10, and the Cardinals won from the Tigers, 14 to 9. Tuesday night the Murdock Firemen defeated the BREX of Plattsmouth, 18 to 6; the Cubs won from the Tigers 7 to 2, and the Cardinals defeated the Pawnees, 12 to 7. Large crowds were present both nights.

Preached at Union Yesterday

L. Neitzel conducted services at the park in Union Sunday, August 14. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rikli and son Vernon accompanied him to provide music for the occasion. Vernon sang a number of solos, with his mother accompanying.

4-H Boys at Crete

Some fifteen 4-H club boys and their sponsor, Leo Rikli, left the fore part of last week for Crete, where they spent several days camping and enjoying themselves. They expected to arrive home by the latter part of the week.

Unable to Accompany Niece

Miss Pearl Staas, a teacher in the schools at Plattsmouth and a niece of Mrs. Wm. Zabel, in planning a trip through the east, asked the aunt to accompany her, but Mrs. Zabel found herself too busy with other work and had to decline, much as she would have liked to go.

Joined in Holy Wedding

A beautiful home wedding took place at the home of Wm. T. Weddell Saturday afternoon, August 6, 1938, when his son Meredith was joined in happy matrimony with Miss Virginia Rose Cook of Lincoln, Nebraska, by the Rev. Harvey A. Schwab.

The bride has been a registered nurse in a Lincoln hospital for several months and has enjoyed her work immensely. But she is equally well qualified to assume her new position in an apartment.

Immediate relatives witnessed the ceremony and wished the young couple success and happiness in their new home in Lincoln, where Mr. Weddell is employed by a capital city business concern.

On a Good Will Tour

Henry A. Tool has received a communication from the Chamber of Commerce at Lincoln announcing the visit they will make here Wednesday, August 17, at 9:30 in the morning. They hope a large number will turn out to greet them. Time will permit only a short stop as they are to visit a number of other Cass, Otoe and Nemaha county towns that day. Their first stop in Cass county will be at Eagle at 8:10, then Elmwood at 9:20 and here at 9:30, on to Weeping Water by 10:30, Nehawka at 11:10 and Union at 11:40. After taking dinner there, they will continue to Nebraska City, visit other towns in that county and arrive at Auburn at 7 in the evening, then back to Lincoln by 9:30 or 10 to call it a day.

Visited Here from West Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Hendricks, former residents of Murdock and vicinity, who have been making their home near Los Angeles for the past three years, arrived in Murdock via auto last Tuesday afternoon, and with adequate moisture of late seems assured of maturing satisfactorily.

Will Have New Roof

The roof of the Murdock hall has developed leaks and is needing replacing. In order to aid in securing a new roof on the building, ladies of the Royal Neighbors of America served ice cream and other delicacies at the kittenball game Tuesday night

Mrs. Hendricks will be remembered by her many friends here as Miss Blanche Marie Eickhoff. They are accompanied by their son Jack, a lusty lad of about three years old. They bring news from Mr. and Mrs. Otto Eickhoff, who are making their home in the west, to the effect that they like the west very well and

Mr. Eickhoff has been able to find plenty of profitable employment.

Strange Things Do Happen

Yes, strange things do happen, even to this Pilgrim. His name is not Doug Corrigan, but it might as well be, for he was scheduled to be in Myrnard last Sunday, and landed—not in Ireland, but in Mantley.

Well, there was a reason and we were not sorry. We received a royal welcome, enjoyed the Sunday school, which by the way is the smallest in Cass county, from 12 to 20 being the regular attendance. Our address to the school seemed to please. We tried to impress the young people with the importance of making their choice for life, like Ruth, and then stick to it. We think, and believe, that God leads his children often in ways hard to understand.

Arrived in Time for Wedding

When Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Schlegle and son of Le Seuer, Minn., decided to take a vacation from farm work and make a trip to the mountains of Colorado, they had no expectation of attending a wedding in Nebraska. They left home early Saturday morning, August 6, planning to spend Sunday with W. T. Weddell and daughter, Ione, in Murdock. Arriving here that night they were surprised to find preparations being made for the wedding of Meredith Weddell to a Lincoln girl, and were among the guests present at the wedding of their nephew. They remained over Sunday and proceeded on their way to the west Monday morning.

Annual Assembly

The Evangelical Conference Assembly opened at Milford, Nebraska, Thursday evening, August 11th.

Many from Murdock attended the opening Missionary days, when they heard a returned Missionary on furlough from Japan speak of the transforming power of the gospel in the Orient. Some who attended the opening days were the Rev. and Mrs. C. Jannen, Mrs. Martha Miller, Mrs. Marie Scheve, H. J. Oehlerking and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Oehlerking, Mr. and Mrs. John Schlapf, and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Miller and family.

The Assembly season this year closes August 21st, after ten days of a well prepared program and many fine opportunities for fellowship among Nebraska people.

August 15 to 20 (this week) are especially for Sunday school and Christian Endeavor delegates and Youth Union activities. Prominent ministers throughout the week bring gospel messages during the morning program. Rev. H. H. Kalas, of Chicago, is leading the camp each evening in stirring evangelistic services.

Report of Murdock Swim Week

There were thirty three here who took the Swim Week training over at South Bend, with a full attendance of those enrolled almost every day.

There were four in the Junior Life Saving class. They were Rhoda Neitzel, Neal McCrory, Bob Gakemeier and Maurice McDonald. Maurice McDonald of Murdock passed the Junior Life Saving test, but by mistake his name was omitted from those announced at the lake.

In rendering the report, Mrs. Hannah M. McDonald, Murdock representative, congratulates the classes for their interest in learning to swim, and also asks that thanks be publicly paid to W. O. Gillespie for the use of his school bus. He drove every day, making it possible for all the children to go. Mr. Gillespie rendered this same service last year. Thanks are also due L. C. McCrory for the use of his car in taking the Life Saving class. He drove five days with Edward McCrory driving two days for him. Those who went in the bus each day to act as chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Eisele, Mrs. H. A. Tool, Miss Pauline Kroh, two days; Miss Arline Zable, Mrs. Wm. Zable, Mrs. H. Lawton, Mrs. I. C. McCrory,

Mrs. L. G. McDonald and Mrs. H. M. McDonald, one day each. Those driving their own cars to serve at the pool were: Mrs. Fred Towle, two days; Mrs. Euna McHugh, James Mills, Rev. and Mrs. Krey, each one day. Mrs. Krey has already volunteered her service for next year, she being an accomplished swimmer.

Mrs. McDonald said: "We hope more parents will be interested next year, and that a greater number of children will be interested in working hard to learn to swim. We will have this same opportunity again next year, and it is none too early to begin making plans for it. It is a wonderful accomplishment, which the Red Cross of Cass county has made possible without cost to anyone—one of the most popular of the many services the organization renders each year.

SEEK WAGE COMPROMISE

CHICAGO, Aug. 11 (UP)—The government today began its effort to compromise the demands of the railroads for a 15 per cent wage reduction and the assertions of the railroad workers brotherhoods that they will strike before submitting.

Mr. William M. Leiserson, chairman of the national mediation board met first with the carriers joint conference committee. He planned seeing the labor spokesman later. Leiserson was accompanied by other members of the board.

Before entering the conference with Leiserson, H. A. Enochs, chairman of the carriers committee commented:

"The condition of the railroads is well known to the public. The roads have overloaded payrolls which must be reduced."

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE

When Elsa Terry, famed opera singer, walks out on a contract to sing in Buenos Aires Jim Guthrie, one of the sponsors of the company, comes to New York to persuade her to reconsider. He meets Elsa through a subterfuge and without revealing his connection with the opera company, pays whirlwind court to her. Through her manager Jim urges Elsa to cancel her Paris engagement and sail for Buenos Aires on the same boat that Jim is taking. Elsa, who has fallen in love with Jim, overhears his plan to "kidnap" her and put her on the boat for Buenos Aires. Convinced that Jim loves her, Elsa falls in with the plan and allows herself to be "kidnapped."

Now Go on With the Story Chapter Five

A steward knocked diffidently on the door of Jim Guthrie's cabin the next morning. He entered and served Jim, who was pacing the floor, a stiff hooker of whiskey. Jim frowned at it and turned to the watchful Pancho. "Well," he said, "there's no use delaying the agony. I might as well tell her." Pancho shook his head. "You're a brave man," he said. "I'm terrified. But it has to be done — 83

Miss Terry" zusa read the message and then turned to Jim. There was a look of agonized disbelief in her face and her eyes quickly filled with tears. Jim jumped from his chair and came to her, deeply concerned. "What is it, Elsa?" he asked softly. "Bad news?" Without a word Elsa handed him the message. It was from Madame Della: "GUTHRIE TAKING YOU TO BUENOS AIRES TO SING STOP IS LARGE INVESTOR OPERA COMPANY THERE STOP ONLY INTERESTED IN MONEY INVOLVED STOP RUDLAND FLYING TO MEET BOAT STOP MY POOR DARLING." Jim looked up at Elsa. "Is it true?" she asked quietly. Jim nodded. "All except one thing," he said. "It didn't do it for my own money — there were other people involved — friends of mine. And there was my pride." Elsa looked at him icily. "What about my pride?" she demanded. "I'm sorry," Jim offered contritely. Elsa flared. "Why?" she asked. "You've done what you set out to do — made love to me — no, that's not fair, is it? You didn't make love to me — you let me make love to you. I made it easy for you, didn't I? She turned away from him to hide her tears. "You must believe this," Jim protested. "I kidnaped you because you cheated on your contract and I wasn't going to let you get away with it. But now we've got on the boat I didn't know — I — I should have told you the truth the moment here goes." Jim strode from the cabin and walked down the hall to Elsa's suite. He opened the door after Elsa's "come in" and found her seated at the breakfast table. Elsa smiled sunnily. "Come in, James," she said. "You're just in time for breakfast." Jim stared at her in bewilderment. "You — you — expected to see me?" Elsa laughed. "Of course, I even kept your coffee hot. Do sit down." Jim threw up his hands and sat down. "I give up," he said. "Who told you?"

"I wonder if anyone in the world is as happy as we are!" (Posed by Melvyn Douglas and Grace Moore)

"You did, darling. I suppose I shouldn't have teased you but I wanted to be kidnaped. You see, it's the first romance I've ever had and I want it to last, Jim." She rose and came around the table to Jim. "I — I don't know what to say," Jim replied. Elsa put her arm around his shoulder. "Then I'll say it for you," she said, leaning down, she kissed him. Jim jumped from his chair, surprised and confused.

"I — I think you'd better dress," he said. "I'll meet you on deck in fifteen minutes." On deck, waiting for Elsa, Jim puffed nervously on a cigarette. This was more than he had bargained for. There was no mistaking that Elsa was in love with him and he — well, he couldn't be sure just what his own emotions were. One thing was certain though: he was heartily ashamed that he had tricked her. It was too late to do anything about that, however. He must play the hand to the end.

The following days on shipboard were idyllic — days of sunshine and gaiety and nights of moonlight and soft breezes. Jim soon discovered his emotions. He was deeply, sincerely in love with Elsa. One night they were sitting in deck chairs, listening to the soft strains of music from the ballroom and watching the moonbeams dance stately gavottes on the water. Elsa sighed blissfully.

"Jim," she said, "I wonder if anyone in the world there are two people as happy as we are?" A page boy came to them and bowed to Elsa. "Radiogram for you,
