

WALTER JURGENSEN HERE

Walter H. Jurgensen, former lieutenant governor, was in the city for a few hours Tuesday afternoon and last evening, looking after some business matters and visiting with friends.

SUFFERS FROM FLU

James Holy, one of the local city mail carriers, is confined to his home since Sunday as the result of an attack of the summer flu which has made necessary his taking an enforced vacation from his work.

Clearing Stock to Make Room for Fall Goods

Final Mark-Downs at Ladies Toggery This Week-End—Values that are Almost Unbelievable

The Ladies Toggery this week announces the most drastic reductions to wind up its clearance of summer stock and make room for new fall stock.

In the summer dress line, regular values to $5.95 are cut to $1.95—those that sold to $3.95 are now $1.49 and former values to $2.95 all go at $1. Size and style ranges are still complete enough to insure satisfactory selections if you come by Saturday.

The summer hat stock still has a lot of good numbers in most head sizes. Hats that sold as high as $2.49—in one final close-out at 15¢.

Summer blouses, another highly seasonal item, values to $1.95, are all cut to 29¢.

Regular $1 values in summer gloves, your choice, 49¢ pair.

Musling panties, 69¢ values, on sale Saturday at 29¢.

Regular 50¢ brassieres, 29¢.

It is impossible to list the many other values you will find Saturday at the Toggery. Special price tags in all departments tell the story of phenomenal savings—prices not even equalled when corn sold at 9 cents a bushel. Your dollar will buy more at the Toggery's "Clean-Up" sale than ever before, so join the throng of shoppers that will be there Saturday. 18-sw; 19 dy

HERE FROM CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Mary Sprecher and grandson, Lawrence Sprecher, Jr., of Los Angeles, are visiting here and in Omaha with the relatives and old friends. They were in the city Sunday to visit at the home of former Mayor John P. Sattler, grandfather of Lawrence, and also with Mr. and Mrs. Jess F. Warga and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herberster.

HOLD CHURCH SERVICES

From Monday's Daily—Today marked one of the most impressive church days in the Catholic world, the feast of the Immaculate Conception. Masses were held early at 6 o'clock at the St. John's and Holy Rosary churches, this early mass permitting the attendance of the working people unable to attend the later masses of the day.

LEAVE ON OUTING

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Soennichsen departed Sunday for a motor trip that takes them to Chicago for a visit with friends for a short time and then on to Wisconsin where they expect to spend a short time in the lake country and enjoying a rest.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Henry Hild and son returned home from the hospital Monday.

INJURES KNEE

Ray Hitt, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hitt received treatment yesterday at the offices of Dr. L. S. Puoclik for an injured knee. The small boy was playing on a wagon when a wheel came off, throwing him to the sidewalk. He received a deep jagged gash on his right knee which required four stitches.

PURCHASES NEW DOG

Fred Lugsch, the popular dry cleaner, has just purchased a fine thoroughbred cocker spaniel, a very fine animal and he is expecting to train the pup for hunting and retrieving and which will make him a very valuable asset. Mr. Lugsch will look after the training in person.

HAS ARM BROKEN

Jill Woodbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Woodbury, of Nebraska City, had her right arm broken on Saturday. She was playing at the home of a neighbor, swinging on a pipe and fell, breaking the arm.

VISIT IOWA CITY

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Egenberger and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carter and Beverly Ann left for Iowa City on a vacation trip. They will visit with the Misses Marcella and Jessie Hotz, nieces of Mrs. Egenberger.

"I'M TOUGH!
I EAT QUAKER OATS
EVERY DAY!"

WHY is it you so often find the sturdiest, healthiest youngsters and grownups have been "brought up" on Quaker Oats? Because oatmeal is the richest of all whole grain foods in strength-giving proteins. Proteins, you know, are the vital food elements best for building muscle, firm flesh, and lasting strength. It's richer than other thrifty cereals too in phosphorus for teeth and bones, in iron, and in important Vitamin B₁, the nerve-digestive-appetite vitamin which children and everybody need supplied to them every day! So serve delicious Quaker Oats often to help fill out your growing boy or girl with the sturdy "tough" kind of muscular flesh and improve your own general well-being. Quaker Oats saves money, too... often cuts breakfast costs to half of more expensive foods... and you can have it ready in only 2½ minutes! Get a package of Quaker Oats at your grocer's today!
