

BACK IN ACTIVE WORK

James H. Herold, who has for the past several weeks been here visiting with his relatives and friends, has been placed in charge of the conduct of the sales department of the Farley Furniture Co. This is a very familiar ground for Mr. Herold as for a great many years he was at the head of the furniture department of Rudge & Guenzel of Lincoln, one of the largest establishments of its kind in the state. Later he was with a large furniture house in Minneapolis until leaving that city.

HAS FOREARM BROKEN

Albert Young, of Murray, is wearing his arm in a sling as the result of an accident sustained Monday. Mr. Young was in a car with his right arm out of the car window when a car backing up caught the arm and caused the fracture.

HERE FROM CHICAGO

Mrs. Ben Hankinson and son of Chicago, were here Monday for a short time and visiting with old friends and neighbors when the family made their home in this city.

SECURES PAINTING CONTRACT

The board of education at their meeting Tuesday afternoon let the contract for the painting of the exterior woodwork on the high school building. The contract was let to H. L. Kruger as the lowest bidder and who will start soon on the work.

BIRTH OF SON

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Toman are the happy parents of a fine eight and a half pound son, born at their home on Friday, September 2nd. All are doing fine.

Graves Family Has Reunion at Omaha Park

Descendants of Family of William and Mahala Graves Observe Annual Get-Together.

The members of the Graves family to the number of twenty-eight and representing residents of Cass, Lancaster, Sarpy and Douglas counties, met on Monday at Elmwood park in Omaha.

This group was a part of the descendants of William and Mahala Graves, who at an early day had moved from Mills county, Iowa, to the frontier town of Rock Bluffs in the fifties.

Though the parents have long since passed away there are still two of the original family living, Mrs. Mary Burnett and Judge C. L. Graves of this city.

Officers were re-elected for the coming year, they comprising the following:

President—Judge C. L. Graves. Vice-President—Harry E. Graves, Lincoln. Secretary-Treasurer—J. H. Graves, Assistant Secretary—Treasurer—Andy Graves, Bellevue.

The party enjoyed a fine picnic dinner prepared by the ladies of the party and after which the time was spent in visiting and games among the members of the group.

DISTRICT COURT NOTES

An appeal has been filed by the defendants in the compensation award case of Donald Robinson vs. Ralph Dean and the Travelers Insurance Co. The compensation court of Judge Charles E. Jackman gave the plaintiff a judgment of $8 per week for a period of not more than 300 weeks. The disability was claimed as the result of monoxide gas poisoning while the plaintiff in the employ of the defendant Dean, was engaged in insulating a house.

A suit to quiet title, Peter Mumm, et al vs. Charles Sullivan, et al, has been filed in the district court. W. A. Robertson and C. E. Martin appear for the defendant.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

J. A. Edgerton, one of the old residents of the city, who has been at Omaha for a short time to undergo an eye operation, was returned home Monday. Mr. Edgerton has had two of the operations in the hope of restoring his sight and it is hoped that in a short time he may have the full use of his sight. He was brought home by his daughter, Mrs. Ruby Lester, with whom he has made his home.

RETURN TO ILLINOIS

Burton Lamphear and Robert Finnegan who have been visiting Burton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Birt Lamphear and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Hyde returned to their home in Downer's Grove, Illinois. They were accompanied by Burton's sister, Barbara, who will make her home with an older sister and enter high school there.

HERE FROM SOUTH DAKOTA

From Monday's Daily—Mr. and Mrs. Emmons Holy and family, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, spent the week-end here at the home of Mr. Holy's father, James Holy, Sr., and family, returning this evening to their home. Mr. Holy is engaged in the upholstery business at Sioux Falls and where he has been quite successful.

Firemen Name Officers for the Ensuing Year

Dr. O. Sandin Renamed as Chief and Vernon Ann, Jr., Selected as the President.

From Wednesday's Daily—The members of the Plattsmouth volunteer fire department met last evening at the city hall to hold their annual election of officers for the department. There were a large number in attendance at the meeting and a great deal of interest taken.

Dr. O. Sandin, who has for many years served as chief of the department was elected again to that position and his confirmation by the city council recommended.

Other officers of the department named were:

President—V. T. Ann, Jr. Vice-President—Herbert Schutz. Secretary—John Svoboda. Treasurer—Robert Jacobs. Assistant Chiefs—Henry Jasper, Carl Ofc.

First Truck Driver—Carl Schneider. Second Truck Driver—William H. Schmidtman. Third Truck Driver—Clement Woster.

Chemical Man—Fred Lugsch. Foreman Hook and Ladder—Robert Bestor.

It was decided to take up with the city council the matter of rearranging the interior of the fire department room on the first floor of the city hall so that a small club room might be provided for the firemen and which would add to the interest of the members.

HERE FROM PACIFIC JUNCTION

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long of north of Pacific Junction, were here Tuesday night in company with several other boosters for the kitchen-ball game in which the Plattsville precinct team was playing.

They report that John A. Long, of Louisville, father of Mr. Long, is at an Omaha hospital as the result of an injury sustained in an accident. Mr. Long was working around his place and accidentally stepped on a stick that threw him off balance and he fell over an empty gas drum and with the result that he sustained an injury that may make necessary an operation.
