

MURDOCK ITEMS

Vernon Rikli worked at the state fair last week.

Vernon Schewe went to the Platte river last Monday and enjoyed several hours of fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig were at Fremont Labor day, where they enjoyed a very successful fishing trip.

Jacob Funk and family of Omaha attended the funeral service of Mrs. Wilhelmina Baur last Sunday afternoon and met many friends before their return home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Wesley and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rhodes and baby of Omaha were present at the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Baur, last Sunday, September 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baur of Cambridge, Nebraska, visited relatives here and attended the funeral service of the late Mrs. Baur. They returned home last Monday.

I. C. McCrorey of Murdock and Marion McCrorey of Elmwood were over to the Wabash cemetery, where they cleaned up the lots in which relatives are buried, last Wednesday.

Warren Rikli entered the meat judging contest at the state fair last week and won second place in the judging and placing of cuts of beef and pork, which gave him 322 points. His closest competitor won with 324 points.

Mesdames Leo Rikli and W. H. Zabel were selected to sing at a program, which was held in Lincoln Thursday of last week, which was planned as a forerunner of an evangelical campaign of the church which is just now being launched.

Plan Preaching Mission
Rev. W. L. Muncy, Jr., of Savannah Avenue Baptist church, St. Joseph, Mo., addressed large audiences at the Murdock Evangelical church Tuesday, September 6, as the guest speaker in the opening series of the Evangelical Preaching Mission for the Nebraska Conference ministers and lay representatives from twenty different fields in eastern Nebraska gathered for this special preparatory institute, prior to the launching of the conference wide preaching mission in the immediate future.

Other members of the team consisted of the two district superintendents, also the Rev. G. Hulsebus of Cozad and the Rev. M. G. Vance of Fullerton, Nebraska. The team left Murdock early Wednesday morning to attend other institutes during the week at Archer, Cozad and Alma.

Mr. Muncy declared that the mission of the church today is to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, relying on the help of the Holy Spirit and to meet the spiritual needs of men. She is to be undegridged by benevolences, the ministry of intercession and a vital personal evangelism. "Depressions and booms have not brought revivals but the preaching of God's Word. The world needs and craves the message from God."

A fellowship supper and program was enjoyed at 6:00 o'clock.

the passing of their mother. The beautiful floral tributes and comforting messages in song are sincerely appreciated. The helpfulness of the church and the many kind words of sympathy will be long remembered.—Mrs. Louise Reuman, Mrs. Rose Panska, Mrs. Ella Gakemeier, Miss Helen Baur, Mrs. Henrietta Lupardus, Mrs. Jennie Mulliner and Miss Ruth Baur.

Obituary of Mrs. Baur
Mrs. Wilhelmina Christina Baur, nee Walther, born May 26, 1866, in Trevorton, Pennsylvania, passed into eternity at her home in Murdock, Nebraska, September 2, 1938.

She secured a limited education in the early years of her life in the home state and then in 1884 on October 19, she entered into marriage with Gottlob Baur at Trevorton, Pennsylvania.

The couple came to Nebraska in May, 1887, and lived for several years in the city of Omaha. In 1894 they settled in Ithaca, Nebraska, remaining there until 1913, when the family moved to Murdock, Nebraska, where the husband became engaged in the mercantile business.

Seven children remain to mourn the departure of Mrs. Baur: Mrs. Louise Reuman, of Omaha; Mrs. Rose Panska, Mrs. Ella Gakemeier and Miss Helen Baur, of Murdock; Mrs. Henrietta Lupardus and Miss Ruth Baur of Murdock. Six grandchildren likewise mourn her passing, together with an extended circle of friends.

Mrs. Baur's brothers and sisters all preceded her in death, as well as children who died in earlier years. Her faithful husband took his departure June 4, 1937.

The deceased dedicated her life to Jesus Christ and joined the Evangelical church in her girlhood days back in Trevorton, Pa. When she moved to other localities, the church relationship was transferred to the Evangelical church in the respective communities. She joined the Murdock Evangelical Ebenezer church in 1913 and maintained an active relationship until her departure. She was a member of the local Women's Missionary Society and supported the Christian enterprise as she could.

The earthly sojourn of 72 years, 2 months and -- days was spent in the sunshine and shadows of life. Earth's heavy burdens may take their toll of joy and strength, but they do not rob the faithful soul of life's essentials, when God has spoken peace to a surrendered life.

Funeral services were held at the Murdock Evangelical church Sunday afternoon, September 4, by her pastor, Harvey A. Schwab. The text was taken from Psalm 17:15. Mrs. Leo Rikli and Mrs. Emma Ward accompanied by Miss Doretta Schlaphof, rendered favorite hymns of the deceased.

Interment took place in the Emmanuel Evangelical church cemetery northeast of Murdock.

Wheat turned out but fair and the prolonged dry spell cut down the corn yield a great deal.

Pilgrim at Myard Sunday
The Pilgrim spent last Sunday with the "friendly" church at Myard, of which Rev. Paul Dick is the pastor. The Sunday school, not to be judged by quantity, but rather by quality, had a fine session. The writer never met a more earnest, attentive and eager group to teach—this was indeed a rare privilege.

Rev. Dick's musical talent is a great asset to the church. We met some of our old friends, among them Charlie Cook, hale and hearty and still on the way. It was a day long to be remembered.

Open House for Grandma Rosenow
On Sunday, September 18, 1938, open house will be held for Grandma Rosenow at the home of her son, Frank Rosenow, three miles northeast of Murdock in honor of her ninety-fifth birthday. All friends invited to call from 2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.

To be Married Wednesday
The approaching marriage of Miss Bernice E. Rikli to Edgar A. Kuehn of Malcolm, Nebraska, was announced at a miscellaneous shower given in her honor Saturday afternoon, September 3, 1938, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heineman.

The bride-to-be was showered with many useful gifts for her new home by her many relatives and friends. Dainty favors, given with a delicious luncheon, gave the date of the wedding as September 14, 1938, at 4:00 p. m. in the Murdock Evangelical church.

Miss Rikli is an enterprising young lady, who has been reared and educated in this community. She is president of the Murdock Christian Endeavor Society and is a faithful member of the organization and church.

Her many friends wish her much success and happiness.

Will Make Home in South
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hornbeck and family were visiting in Murdock a number of days last week, and last Sunday Louis and his brother, I. G. went to Elmwood to attend the funeral of the late J. P. Cobb, who was a close friend of the Hornbeck brothers.

On Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hornbeck departed for Knoxville, Tenn., where they plan to make their home in the future and where Mr. Hornbeck will have his headquarters in looking after the interests of the Modern Woodmen of America, for which he is National Order. They expected to get settled in their new home before the opening of the school year.

Home from the Hospital
Mrs. Della Eikerman, who has been a patient at the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln the past couple of weeks and who underwent an operation there for the removal of a goiter, was able to return home this past week and is feeling much better.

Visited Here Over Labor Day
Gayle McDonald and family, of Hampton visited over the week end and Labor day at the home of Bryan McDonald in Murdock. Gayle and Bryan and A. J. Tool, all of whom love to fish, made up a party that went over near Fremont where the fishing is said to be very good, and were successful in making some very fine catches.

New Roof for Callahan
With an experienced carpenter in charge of the work, a number of the members of the Callahan church were busy last week tearing the old roof from one side of the church building and laying a new shingle roof thereon.

Vacationing in the West
Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool and Mrs. Hannah McDonald departed Sunday for the west. Their first stop was at Bridgeport, Nebraska, where they spent a couple of days, and from there continued on to Wheatland, Wyoming, where they have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gustin. From there they will go to Boise, Idaho, to visit the Henry Guthman family. They expect to be gone about a month, during which time Mrs. Mary E. Bradford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tool is looking after business at the bank.

MANLEY NEWS

John A. Stander was a business caller in Omaha Tuesday.

Miss Mary Murphy spent several days last week in Omaha, where she was a guest at the home of relatives.

Harold Schliefer was called to Omaha last Tuesday, where he had business matters claiming his attention.

Charles Ingram and Aug Pautsch, of Louisville, were looking after business matters in Manley Wednesday forenoon.

August Krecklow has been under the weather during the past week, but managed to keep going and now seems to be improving.

Walter Mockenhaupt and wife were in Omaha last Sunday, going up to spend the afternoon with the mother, Mrs. Mary Mockenhaupt.

Electrical service at the John C. Rauth home was put out of commission early Monday morning when lightning struck the line near the transformer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coons of Loup City were visiting in Manley last Monday, coming to visit George Coons, a brother, and Mrs. Alice Jenkins, a sister, and also meeting many old time friends while here.

Charles Murphy and his sister, who have been conducting a rooming house in Omaha for some time, have disposed of the same. While his sister was visiting in Omaha, Charles came to Manley and is spending a few days with his brothers, Joseph and Paul Murphy. Since disposing of his business interests in Omaha, Charles is undecided just what he will do.

Long Time Journal Reader
On our last visit to Manley, Oscar McDonald came saying, "I want to pay my subscription to the Journal today," which he did, and also remarked, "This is the 36th time I have paid subscription to the Journal, as I began taking the paper 35 years ago. It seems I could not get along without it now."

In the 35 years Mr. McDonald has been reading the Journal many changes have taken place. Back in 1903, when he started, there were no highways and very few if any autos in these parts. This strange, new contraption that was just making its appearance was known as a "horseless carriage" and was a sight, indeed, compared to its modern day successor.

Throughout the years, the Journal has served its readers faithfully with news and it is a pleasure to hear from those who say they couldn't get along without it. We hope to make it better as the years come and go, and can assure you, Mr. McDonald, we shall be very pleased to serve you another 35 years.

Some Ancient Relics
Oscar McDonald was exhibiting at his place of business last Wednesday a watch that was made in Germany in 1795, with the spring in a barrel and a chain drive. While the chain was very small it was much like the chains which operate our present day bicycles. This old watch was given to him years ago by a friend in payment of an account and he has since retained this prized possession. Another relic is a deck of cards which Herman A. Gast purchased in Germany to beguile away the time as he came across the ocean to Murdock in the year 1870.

Farewell Reception
A farewell reception was given at the M. E. church Thursday evening for Prof. H. E. Warren and family, who are moving to Valparaiso. A social good time was enjoyed and ice cream and wafers were served. The Guild presented Mrs. Warren a pair of pillow cases.

The Warren family will be greatly missed in Greenwood.

Attended Convention at Columbus
There were a number of citizens of Manley and vicinity at Columbus for the recent state democratic convention, among them John C. Rauth and wife, Herman Rauth and wife, Walter Mockenhaupt and wife and Harry Haws.

Nominees for the position of committeewoman for Cass and Sarpy counties included a party from Ashland, Mrs. Mabel Gillespie of Gretna and Mrs. John C. Rauth of Manley. Mrs. Rauth received the highest number of votes and will make the party an excellent committeewoman in the coming election.

Mrs. Mockenhaupt in Hospital
Mrs. Mary Mockenhaupt, who sustained a fractured hip when she lost her balance and fell, is in a serious condition at St. Joseph hospital in Omaha, where she is being cared for her daughter, Miss Sue Mockenhaupt, a graduate nurse. The severity of the fracture, coupled with her age, make her condition serious. The husband, Christian E. Mockenhaupt,

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder may be burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!
