Largest Showing of Corn Ever Made at Fall Festival and Secure Fine Prizes.

The 1938 corn show of the King Korn Carnival was closed Saturday night and leaves behind the record of being the largest ever held here and the finest exhibits of this staple crop of Cass county.

The show room which has heretofore been ample, was crowded with the exhibits of the corn and other products of the farm and attracted the attention of hundreds during the show. Visitors from other points were enthusiastic in their commendation of the fine showing and the quality of the corn.

The show was under the direction of James Hall as superintendent and Karl Grosshans, John Hobscheidt,

Art Hanson and Miss Laura Mrasek as the supervising assistants. The list of prizes for the show is as follows:
