FUNERAL OF FORMER RESIDENT

From Tuesday's Daily—
Funeral services were held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Castle Roper & Matthews chapel at Lincoln for J. J. Adams, 68, of Sheridan, Wyoming.

Mr. Adams is a former resident of Plattsmouth and Lincoln and a veteran employe of the Burlington railroad and since leaving Nebraska has been making his home at Sheridan.

Mr. Adams was married in this city to Mrs. Florence Waddick who survives his passing as well as three children by a former marriage and two step daughters.

The burial was at Wyuka cemetery at Lincoln. Those attending the services from this city were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Egenberger and Robert M. Walling.

SHOW EXCELLENT WORK

The members of the 4-H clubs that represented Cass county at the Nebraska state fair at Lincoln, returning with many very high honors are deserving of a great deal of praise for their earnest work that won them rewards in several lines.

The winners of the prizes were here for the King Korn Carnival and gave demonstration of their work and which had won them the highest awards.

SUFFERS INJURED ARM

John L. Hadraba was injured Tuesday at his work at the local shops when a small piece of steel penetrated the upper part of his left arm and inflicted a nasty wound. It was necessary to have the steel removed at the hospital at Omaha and will make it necessary for Mr. Hadraba to be on the retired list for several days.

CARD OF THANKS

The Plattsmouth Garden club wishes to thank the King Korn Carnival committee for its fine co-operation and assistance in making the flower show a success. We thank the exhibitors of flowers, the Stitch and Nibble club, guests at the Masonic Home who brought beautiful hand work, teachers who displayed school work, and all others who assisted in any manner.

VISITS SCHOOL FRIEND

Miss Chloe C. Baldrige, of the state superintendent's office, is in Washington where she is attending a meeting of teachers from nine states to take up important problems of teaching.

En route east Miss Baldrige stopped here for a visit with Miss Alpha C. Peterson, county superintendent of schools, and an old friend and associate in school work.
