Glen Hoback, the operator, was working in Nebraska City during the past week while some of the force there were on vacation. He returned home to Union the latter part of the week.

Miss Anna Bauer was very seriously ill last Saturday at her home and had to be attended by the family physician and was under the care of a nurse. She is better however at this time.

Dan Fowler, formerly engaged in the newspaper business in Union, now making his home in South Omaha, engaged in the same line, was visiting in Union last Sunday, guest of Henry H. Becker and family.

Miss Ruth Morris, who is attending school at Peru was a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Morris over the week-end and with the family visited at the home of Silas Morris at Ashland.

Robert James was visiting and looking after business at Kenosha Monday, also visiting at the Wyoming church where Joe Bauer was erecting an addition to the church building for the ladies aid as a work room.

John Guerra, who injured one of his knees when he slipped and fell and which has been keeping him from his work has been showing improvement of late and is so he can get about at this time, but the leg is giving him some trouble yet.

Reports from Lincoln where King Clarke is receiving treatment for his health and where he has been for some time past, is to the effect that he is showing good improvement, but will be required to remain at the institution for some time yet.

Enjoyed Football Game.
A number of people of Union, they being Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hathaway, James Fitzpatrick and wife, who occupied one car, and Messrs. Eugene Roddy, Superintendent Bugby and Dr. R. R. Andersen made a merry party who went last Saturday to Minneapolis to attend the Minnesota-Nebraska football game. Minnesota won the game 16 to 7, but the Union party enjoyed the trip and game very much.

Calvin H. Taylor Visits Union.
C. H. Taylor of Los Angeles, but formerly county attorney of Cass county and a native of Union, is visiting in Union at this time. He is practicing law at Los Angeles. He came to Omaha last Saturday night and visited with Mrs. W. L. Taylor and sons Wilson and William of that place. Sunday they brought Calvin to Union where he has been visiting. Mrs. Taylor and sons visited for the day here Sunday and returned home in the evening. While here C. H. Taylor is visiting relatives, staying at the homes of W. H. Porter and Joseph Banning, being brother of both ladies. He expects to remain for some time.

Depart for the North.
Mrs. Burr Stanley of Wayne, formerly Miss Winona Dysart, drove down to Union last Sunday and was accompanied home by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dysart, who will spend the winter at the Burr Stanley home. They all departed for Wayne Sunday.

Sang at Funeral.
Messrs. C. H. Whitworth, D. Ray Frans, Mrs. L. B. Mougay and Miss Augusta Robb made up a mixed quartet who sang beautifully a number of hymns at the funeral of Miss Josephine Pitman at Weeping Water Monday afternoon. Mrs. Ora Guerra accompanied the singers at the piano.

Union Lady Answers Call.
Miss Josephine Pitman was born at Nebraska City on December 26, 1862, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Westley Pitman, and with the parents moved to the homestead northwest of Union when she was a small child. She lived on the farm during her childhood, and with the coming of the Missouri Pacific railroad to Union in 1888 engaged in the millinery business for a time and also conducted a cafe in the former home of Dr. Wallace, known as Rest Haven where they also conducted a hotel, and later purchased the Rest Haven hotel at Weeping Water which she conducted for a number of years.

For some time she has been making her home with her brother, James S. Pitman, and some three weeks ago, on account of her poor health was taken to the hospital in Lincoln

THE AWFUL PRICE YOU PAY FOR BEING NERVOUS

Quivering nerves can make you old and haggard looking, cranky and hard to live with—can keep you awake nights and rob you of good health, good times and jobs.
What you may need is a particularly good women's tonic—and could you ask for anything whose benefits are better proved than famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Let its wholesome herbs and roots help Nature build up more physical resistance and thus help calm your aching nerves, give more energy and make life worth living again.
More than a million women have reported benefit—why not let Pinkham's Compound help YOU, too, to go "smiling thru" trying times like it has other grateful women for the past 3 generations? IT MUST BE GOOD!

where she passed away last Saturday. The remains were taken to the Hobson funeral home at Weeping Water. The parents with four children, brothers and sisters of Miss Josephine, preceded her in death, while the following remain to mourn her passing: Mrs. Hattie Shryder of Portland, Ore., a sister, James Pitman of Union, Edward Pitman, Los Angeles, brothers, and Birdie Gal-laway of Palmyra, a sister.

The funeral was held at Weeping Water last Monday. Interment was in East Union cemetery.

Card of Thanks.
We take this means of expressing our gratitude to all our relatives, friends and neighbors for their kind assistance and words of sympathy at the time of our sorrow, the death of our loving sister.—Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pittman.

Acted as Pallbearers.
The funeral of Miss Josephine Pitman, which will be noted elsewhere, was held at the Hobson funeral home in Weeping Water last Monday afternoon. Pallbearers selected to bear her remains were those well known by her during her life, they being, Charles Swan, Moss McCarrall, Paul Swan, Clarence Willis, Clifford Garrison and Frank Bauer.

"Spiritual Worship"
Ex. 20:4-6; 32:1-8; John 4:19-24.

The first commandment bids us to worship God exclusively; the second bids us to worship him spiritually. But what does it mean to worship; or what is worship? It is the act or feeling of adoration or homage; the paying of religious reverence as in prayer; respect or honor towards a superior—as God. As we deal with the Israelites, we should remember that in Egypt they had seen nothing but idol worship, the old deities with their bestial emblems and of the new foreign gods of the shepherd dynasty.

The tribes had brought small portable images of the Egyptian deities into the wilderness and there were secretly paying them honor, according to the implications in Ezek. 20: 6-8. So were the Canaanites, who were worshipping Baal and Astarte, Syrian deities, who were cruel and obscene. This is the reason why God gave this commandment which is prohibitive. Man is spirit from the divine spirit, therefore the relationship with the Divine. It is the part of man that has intelligence and is invisible and incorporeal. Of the Diety we have the Holy Spirit, the third person in the Godhead, characterized by self consciousness, self-activity and personality; and the absence of material properties; therefore no man can have a proper conception of God's person, and the imagination will produce a distorted picture. In Greek mythology we have some terrible caricatures of their gods. The visible universe is the creature, and not the creator, hence not to be worshipped; the creator must be superior to the creature.

But man degenerated after the Fall, drifting farther and farther away from God, as Paul's picture of fallen man is given in Rom. 1: 18-23, which should be earnestly studied by teacher and pupil. Man's eternal weal or woe is dependant on the proper conception of God. An astonishing incident is recorded in the second part of the lesson, almost unbelievable, after the demonstration of God's power and glory to these people, which is proof that man is an ungrateful creature. See the backsliding chapter, Jer. 3.

Man is unreliable, not trustworthy until he is stabilized and grounded and rooted in love, which is God. (Eph. 3:17). Mitigating circumstances may have to temper our the coming year, they being: Mrs. Ivan Balfour, president; Eleanor Easter, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Audra Stroemer, financial secretary; Mrs. Irene Todd, treasurer. The next meeting of the county association will be held in Union at the home of Mrs. Minnie Kihn on October 27th.

Orchestra Enjoys Picnic.
The Union orchestra which has provided much music for many purposes, enjoyed a picnic at Louisville last Sunday, where they ate their dinner under the shade of some stately trees. Among the party enjoying the outing were P. F. Rihn and wife, Edith Douglas and Robert Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Alda Taylor, James Christensen of Nehawka, Loy Pell, Milo Jay, Byron Stillwell, Albert Mason, wife and daughter, Miss Mildred Burbee, Ralph Mansfield and wife, Fred Tigner and wife.

Visited in Union Sunday.
Mrs. Jennie Frans was hostess to a merry party of friends and relatives last Sunday, Oct. 2nd, at her home in Union. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. Ray Frans and son Jimmie, Mrs. Callie Waukup and daughter Mrs. A. Rudespath and husband, of Rock Bluffs, R. N. Frans and wife, Clyde Frans and wife and Robert Frans, all of Auburn. Mrs. Waukup is a sister of Mrs. Jennie Frans. All enjoyed the day and a very fine dinner.

Had Wonderful Floats.
The Sciota school, taught by Miss Olive Horning, was represented at the county fair by a very unique float whose slogan was "Stars and Stripes Forever," carrying this idea in the construction of the float and teachings. The pupils and patrons of this school as well as the teacher were interested in the making and decoration of the float. Again this school and their teacher made a float for the King Korn Carnival which was worthy of much note.

Mrs. Thomas Murty was called to Plattsmouth last Thursday to look after some business matters and as well was guest of friends while in the city. She also called at the Journal office and enjoyed a pleasant visit with Mrs. Bates, publisher of the Journal.

Welcome Instructors.
The members of the Women's Federated clubs of Weeping Water last Tuesday evening gave a very pleasant reception to the members of the teaching force of the Weeping Water schools. There was a very fine program given and a social hour enjoyed. The teachers were welcomed and given an opportunity to become acquainted with the patrons of the schools, the members of the Women's club and citizens of Weeping Water. The gathering was held at the parlors of the Congregational church.

Entertain at Woman's Meeting.
The ladies of the Woman's club of Weeping Water who are very active group of workers, for the city of Weeping Water and its interests, gave a very fine reception last Tuesday and had as a portion of their excellent program, Mr. and Mrs. Will Stone and son of Lincoln, former students of the Weeping Water high school, and are high class musicians, were featured on the program.

Home This Week.
Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Amick, who have been in the west for the past three weeks where they attended the national convention of the American Legion and Auxiliary will arrive home the latter part of this week. Following the convention they visited friends and relatives on the west coast, including Randall Oldham and wife and Denzil Oldham and wife.

Visited With Son and Family.
Rev. B. N. Kunkel and wife, father and mother of Dr. L. N. Kunkel, came to Weeping Water some weeks ago, and picking up Dr. and Mrs. Kunkel drove to the Ozarks of Missouri where they visited friends. They spent some time at the Lake of the Ozarks which was created by damming the Osage river at Bagnell, Mo. The dam stops the current of the river for 130 miles and forms an artificial lake with a shore line varying from high tide or the dam brim full, of 1,700 miles and when allowed to run until the spillway will take no more water the shore line is 1,300 miles. After spending some time there they came to Oregon, Mo. where they visited friends, as that was formerly the home of Rev. and Mrs. B. N. Kunkel.

They drove from Oregon to Weeping Water early Tuesday morning, where they stopped for two hours and then departed for Plainview where Rev. Kunkel is minister of the Methodist church.

To Make Home Here.
William A. Corley, a brother of Joseph I. Corley and who has been making his home at Adams for a number of years and before that was engaged in farming near that place has moved to Weeping Water to make his home. Mr. Corley is a few months past 79 years of age, and thinks it time for a little rest which he is now taking.

Visiting Friends Here.
A. W. Johnson who formerly made his home in Sioux City, Iowa, but who has been residing in Weeping Water, employed at the government quarry, had the pleasure of a visit last Sunday with some former neighbors at Sioux City, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McWilliams.

Huling Coal to Manley.
Fred and Grover Lawrensen of Manley were down to Weeping Water last Tuesday where they had coal for anthracite Pennsylvania coal for Fred Flaischman, who is stocking up before the cold weather sets in.

Death of Mrs. Thomas Dickson.
Mrs. Thomas Dickson, a former Weeping Water resident, died at her home in Weeping Water last Thursday.

For a number of years the Dicksons resided here, until misfortune overtook the family in the loss of a son Woodie, followed later by the death of the husband and father. She moved to Missouri to make her home, and recently was severely injured in an auto accident. Following several weeks in a hospital, during which she was cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Dewey Boedeker, acting as nurse, it was determined that she could not get well, and in accordance with her own wishes, she was returned to her home, where her last days were spent. She is survived by two daughters and three sons.

Enjoyed Opening Night.
Mrs. Joseph Abrahams was hostess to the Knickerbocker club on Wednesday evening of this week. The members of the Knickerbocker club have been taking a vacation from regular meetings during the heated portion of the season, but with the coming of fall they will again hold regular meetings. As the season's opening hostess, Mrs. Abrahams provided the members with a most merry evening. Bridge was featured, followed by a delightful luncheon.

Held Funeral Here.
The funeral of Miss Josephine Pitman, a former resident of Weeping Water was held last Thursday. Miss Pitman conducted the Rest Haven hotel here more than 25 years ago. During the past few years she has not been in the best of health and has been making her home with her brother, James S. Pitman, of Union. About a month ago her condition became so serious that she was taken to a hospital in Lincoln, where she passed away.

The funeral was held at the Hobson funeral home, conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor, of Union, a long time friend of the deceased, and her former pastor.

the weather last week has recovered and was able to make a trip to Nebraska City with the wife and some relatives who were visiting at the Ost home, an uncle and Mrs. Alberta Ost, mother of W. A. Ost.

Plowed Up Main Street.
The Main street of Nehawka which was rocked and graveled afterwards, has by the heavy traffic thereon, been dug into deep holes in places and later continued to get worse until it was found that something must be done with it. So last Monday with the heavy grader, the surface was torn up to the depth of a foot and then smoothed by the grader or maintainer and when so smoothed was flooded with water from the hydrants, hoping that the surface would wear smoother.

Listened to a Missionary.
Several years ago three young men members of the Methodist church went to the mission field where they with youth and buoyant strength thought they would accomplish much for the church. A returned missionary, an aged woman, broken in health, warned them they were not able for the task which they were so anxious to begin. However they went and after now 30 or 40 years they returned with health broken down. One of the three was a speaker at Nehawka last Sunday night. He told how they worked incessantly and there met a fourth missionary also a young man, he being the only one of four who weathered the years with any reasonable degree of health, one in fact dying at the mission field while two others returned and one was the speaker of last Sunday night.

Busy Workers Very Busy.
The Busy Workers, a ladies aid, in working for the church and its principles were meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Vickers, where they were doing work for their society and the church. A very fine luncheon was served.

Truck Hit by Car.
While Lloyd Newbury, who makes his home in Nehawka and works hauling stone, with his truck loaded with some freight for Auburn was passing the road which leads to the east just a short distance north of the McCarthy service station on highway 75, he met a car going in the opposite direction and another car approached from the rear attempted to pass, but hit the rear wheels of Mr. Newbury's truck, causing damage to the extent of some $75 to the truck. The two cars in the mixup were reported to be from Nebraska City.
