City Caucus' Select Candidates Last Night

Name Candidates for Justice of the Peace and Assessors in Their Meetings

Last evening the republican and democratic caucuses were held at the court house to name the candidates for justice of the peace and assessors for the various wards.

The democrats held forth in the district court room while the republicans met at the office of Sheriff Homer Sylvester near the court room.

The democratic meeting was presided over by J. Howard Davis, the city chairman and Frank J. Libershal served as the secretary of the meeting.

On motion, Charles L. Graves, present justice of the peace, was endorsed by the caucus as a candidate for the position, as it has been the custom for many years to name the sitting justice regardless of political affiliation.

The wards then presented their choice for assessors to the caucus and which endorsed the nominees, the following being selected:

First Ward—John A. Libershal.
Second Ward—James Rebal.
Third Ward—P. A. Hill.
Fourth Ward—Ed Kohrell.
Fifth Ward—Ray Herring.

The committeemen and women were empowered to fill any vacancies that might occur.

Republican Meeting
George L. Farley was selected as chairman and Albert Olson as clerk of the republican caucus and the body at once moved to the nomination of Justice Charles L. Graves for re-election to his post.

As there were no representatives of the first and second wards present at the caucus, it was decided to leave nominations for assessors in these wards vacant for the present.

In the other three wards the present assessors were re-named for the coming election, they being as follows:

Third Ward—M. M. Allen.
Fourth Ward—John E. Schutz.
Fifth Ward—Edward Gabelman.

East Rock Bluffs
The voters of East Rock Bluffs met at the school house, the republicans meeting at 4 o'clock just after the close of school and the following were named:

Justice of the Peace—Gene Exline.
Assessor—Frank Hull.
Road Overseer—Harry Bussington.

The democratic meeting was held Wednesday night and was called to order by Mike Kaffenberger, committeeman. George Brinklow was made chairman and Perry Nickles secretary. The following ticket was named:

Justice of the Peace—To Fill Vacancy, Joe Shera; for full term, Gene Exline.
Assessor—W. A. Wheeler.
Road Overseer—James Fitch.

It was decided to have a meeting later in the campaign and with some able speakers.

Plattsmouth Precinct
The caucuses of Plattsmouth precinct were held at the Taylor school house where both the republicans and democrats gathered last evening and placed tickets in the field for the fall election.

At the republican meeting Howard Wiles, committeeman, presided and the following were named:

Assessor—W. S. Wetenkamp.
Road Overseer—Charles C. Barnard.

The position of justice of the peace was not filled by the caucus.

The democratic caucus was held with Leonard Born, committeeman calling the body to order. The following were selected as candidates:

Assessor—George W. Snyder.
Road Overseer—C. W. Stoehr.

The democrats followed the republicans in not making any nomination for justice of the peace.

Eight Mile Grove
The democrats of Eight Mile Grove met last evening with H. A. Meisinger, committeeman, presiding and the following were named:

Justice of the Peace—Louis Beuchler.
Assessor—Harry A. Meisinger.
Road Overseer—Henry Thierolf.
