

Mynard Church Hosts to the S. S. Convention

Sunday Schools of County Will Find Hearty Welcome at Convention at U. B. Church.

Next Tuesday, October 18, the Cass County Council of Christian Education will convene in its 38th annual session at the United Brethren church at Mynard.

The program begins at 9:45 in the morning with a musical prelude and continues throughout the day and evening, with a splendidly balanced offering of helpful, inspiring talks and discussions, and uplifting music —both congregational singing and solo and group numbers.

Miss Elsie Wik, state secretary of Sunday school work, is the featured speaker for the day sessions, appearing at 10:30 in the morning and at 3:30 in the afternoon. Miss Wik will be new to conventioners this year, having taken over the work which was carried on so many years by Rev.
John C. White, who has accepted a pastorate in the eastern United States.

Also appearing on the daytime programs are Attorney C. A. Rawls, a past president of the association, and Prof. Milo Price, history instructor in the Plattsburgh high school. In addition to these speeches and the music features, a time has been set aside for group discussions. These groups will be led by the Revs. Mc-Clusky, Schwab, Weber and Calloway.

The evening program will begin at 7:30 and will feature a short concert by David Fowler, violinist and music instructor of the Plattsburgh schools, and the Masonic quartet, followed by an address on the theme of the convention, "Mending Their Nets" by Rev. J. C. Lowson, pastor of the Plattsburgh Methodist church.

J. Howard Davis, president of the association, and Mrs. Evelyn Franke, secretary-treasurer, will be on hand some time in advance of the hour for the morning program to begin, to care for the matter of registration.
Group singing will be directed by Rev. Paul Dick, host pastor.

The ladies of the Mynard aid society are preparing to care for the physical needs of the group in an efficient and pleasing manner. Both dinner and supper will be served in the church basement.

Every effort is being made locally to the end that Mynard may be fully prepared to make its guests feel the sincerity of the welcome the community is offering on this occasion.

JOLLY WORKERS CLUB

On Friday the Jolly Workers club held their meetin' at the home of Mrs. Fred Buechler. This being the birthday of the hostess, each member presented her with a lovely towel.
After the business meeting was held, the ladies enjoyed several games of pinocle. In the playing first prize went to Helen Meisinger, second to Emma Kaffenberger, third to Adelia Meisinger. Mrs. Buechler served a delicious lunch.

CHIEF BACK ON JOB

Chief of Police William Barclay, who has been taking a short treatment and rest in the past two weeks, was back on the job Sunday and attending to the day patrol of the business section of the city. The chief is feeling much better and ready to carry on as usual.
