Summary of Recent Lutheran Convention

Eleventh Biennial Convention Brings Out Many Interesting Features—Rev. A. Lentz Delegate.

By PASTOR A. LENTZ, of Christ Lutheran church, who was elected as a delegate to represent the synod of the Midwest:

Predictions that Lutheran unity would ring through sessions of the United Lutheran church's eleventh biennial convention, Baltimore, Md., Oct. 5-12, proved correct, the spirit of the delegates reflecting opinion that the temper of our age compels all religious groups to evaluate their right to exist and serve the people, not in terms of historical accomplishment, but in ability to serve the present and future ages sanely, broadly and through the power of Christ within the church. Dr. Ralph

Rev. Frederick H. Knubel, D. D., New York City, President U. L. C. A. since 1918. Re-elected to presidency for 11th term at Baltimore Convention.

H. Long, New York City, in his review of the National Lutheran Council's activities as a common agency for 20 years for Lutheran cooperation, said: "The changes which are taking place in social, the economic and the political world make greater cooperation, based upon the firmer solidarity of the Lutheran church absolutely imperative. 'Unless the Lutherans of America coordinate their efforts and cooperate more extensively they will lose opportunities which today are theirs.'"

Enthusiasts for immediate organic union found spiritual unity stressed above superficial mergings. To demonstrate conviction that the desired unity will be achieved only through unanimity in essentials, of which pure worship based on Scripture, is pre-eminently basic, the convention gave its final public service over to celebration of 50th anniversary of the Common Liturgy of English and German speaking Lutheran churches in America. This liturgy, which the Rev. Dr. Luther D. Reed, Philadelphia, declared "drew the then three general bodies together," in 1918, has in turn been adopted in Iowa, Joint, Ohio, Norwegian Synods and Swedish groups, and has recently been translated into Telegu, Japanese, Spanish, and Italian.

Convention business ran parallel to such feeling toward "unanimous will for unity"; as the Rev. Dr. Knubel had stated as our chief objective. The officers were returned to office in endorsement of their policies developed through two decades of united church history. Dr. Frederick H. Knubel, New York, elected president by the merger convention in 1918; Dr. E. Clarence Miller, L.L.D., treasurer, also first elected in 1918; and the Rev. Dr. W. H. Greever, elected secretary in 1918 to succeed the Rev. Dr. M. G. G. Schever, deceased.

The Anniversary Appeal, being conducted by the Board of American Missions in celebration of 20th Anniversary of the United Church, was reported as now having gathered $410,000 toward Church Extension funds which Dr. H. Torrey Walker, Philadelphia, predicted will increase to $1,000,000 by the 1940 convention. The work of this board, which in the biennium called for an outlay of $1,600,000, and is carried on in about 25 languages by 555 congregations in the United States, Canada, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, was displayed in the convention pageant, "God in the Midst of Her," presented by young people of the Baltimore area, and by an exhibit of motion picture, photograph and radio materials.

Finances showed U. L. C. A. biennial income of $3,161,628, and outlay of $3,025,658. The Foreign Board made an anniversary announcement that in ten years the $500,000 indebtedness is wiped out, $107,000 in past two years, and that the board's annual outlay of $800,000 is expended with over 96c of every dollar going direct to foreign work, only 3.9 per cent of expense of board being for administration.

A revision of the Ministerial Pension system was decided upon, a contributory plan of 5 per cent from pastors and congregations being proposed. This, however, requires favorable action from 500 of the 3,500 United church congregations, as well as approval by the 31 synods before in effect.

The proposal regarding adoption of the term "Bishop" had no support and was quickly disposed of, an action which in some minds pointed to settlements of the proposal for all time among American Lutherans.

As was expected, very earnest debates featured report of Commission on Relationships to American Lutheran Church Bodies, particularly since this involved a declaration touching the authority of the Bible as the standard of Truth as God's Holy Word. The resolutions of the special commission upon this question covered eight points, necessarily involving theological definitions and declarations based upon confessional standards. Condensed as briefly as possible, and phrased in newspaper terms, the news editor of the convention, Charles K. Fegley, summed the items as follows:

1. The spring from which the saving power of God continuously flows into the lives of men;
2. The only source of truly Christian doctrine; and
3. The only rule and norm for Christian life.

Theological education, under study by a special commission, came before night session Tuesday when after spirited debate final action took form of resolution to appoint a commission on theological education, but to define "control" as within province of curricula, standards of scholarship and kindred matters, but not in such matters as ownership. Budget discussion wound up by adoption of $2,000,000 a year as recommended by executive board. Special resolutions called for revived interest in securing full quotas from congregations also in view of altered demands, for a study of needs with view to revise percentage quotas to boards and benevolent agencies.

The convention decided to give to the world a simple statement of its belief in the authority of the Bible and adopted a statement entitled "God's Word and the Scriptures."

Stated briefly the declaration in its eight points says that the Bible

Rev. Dr. Walton H. Greever, New York City, Secretary U. L. C. A. since 1932. Re-elected to 4th term at Baltimore, Md.

has its authority in a standard of Truth because it is God's word; that in most important sense God's Word is the message concerning Jesus Christ and the meaning of His teaching—life, death and resurrection for the religious life of men; that in a wider sense God's Word is that revelation of Himself which "began with human history and came to a climax in Jesus Christ; that this entire revelation of God is faithfully recorded and preserved in the Bible and is a complete whole; that His Word is infallible in all matters that pertain to His revelation and men's salvation and that the whole body of Scriptures in all its parts is God's Word; that there is a difference between the Old and New Testaments, the measure of importance being the closeness of relation to the Gospel of Christ; that the present accepted books of the Bible became the Scriptures through the church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit; that the whole of the Bible is inspired, but that we cannot venture to describe the mode or method of this inspiration but accept it as a fact of which faith assures us.

Holding these things to be true, we believe that the Scriptures are:

1. The spring from which the saving power of God continuously flows into the lives of men;
2. The only source of truly Christian doctrine; and
3. The only rule and norm for Christian faith and life.

The 1940 convention will be held in Omaha.
