Under 4 1/2 lbs., lb. 10c
Leghorn Springs, lb. 9c

These are the very best prices I can get for you this week. If you have large, heavy Springs, I advise selling them, as they soon will be classed as Stags and bring much less.

EGGS, fresh, large. 24c
Pullet Eggs, doz. 19c

Large eggs must weigh 55 pounds or more to case of 30 dozen eggs.

CREAM

With the advance of colder weather, your Cream will begin to get heavy, so set your separator back to test 35 to 40. Stir your Cream each time new cream is added. This will make it possible to take a more accurate sample and the results will be much better for both of us. We're interested in seeing you get top prices always!

PLATTSMOUTH BAKERY

HERE FROM NEW YORK

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Giles had a very pleasant surprise Monday afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Munsil of Ellenburg, Depot, New York, drove into Plattsburgh in their Packard sedan bearing a Clinton county, New York state license plate.

These friends are from their home town in northern New York and have been neighbors for years to both the Giles and Sheldon families. Mr. and Mrs. Munsil were on a business trip to Ames, Iowa. They were impressed by the size of our midwestern states, saying that they could have driven across the whole of New England, while crossing Iowa.

Mr. Munsil is a firm republican, having served several terms as a member of assembly in the legislature at Albany, New York.

It was just recently that Mr. Munsil was one of the committee who helped place Attorney Thomas E. Dewey as a republican nominee for governor of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Munsil with Mr. and Mrs. Giles and Eleanor drove to Nehawka Monday evening where they were all entertained at a very delicious dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sheldon.

Sheldon Giles of Glenwood, Iowa, came to Plattsburgh Tuesday morning to meet these friends from Ellenburg, New York.

ATTEND FUNERAL SERVICES

From Monday's Daily—Mr. and Mrs. Emmons Ptak and Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Sharpnack, were at Lincoln today where they attended the funeral services for Mrs. Mable S. Harris, 36, sister of Mr. Sharpnack.

Mrs. Harris died at the family home, 3400 C street, Lincoln, on Friday night at 10:30 following an illness of several months duration.

Mrs. Harried died at thebagkq She is survived by her husband, Guy M. Harris; two daughters, Marilyn and Carol; parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sharpnack, Lincoln and two brothers, George of Lincoln and Fred H. of Plattsburgh.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 1:30 at Wadlow's chapel in Lincoln with Rev. Walter Aitken officiating. Vera Upton sang at the service and with Bernice Blinde as accompanist at the organ. Chapter 148 of the Eastern Star had their ritualistic services at the grave at Wyuka.

BUILDING NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. John Gochenour are building a fine new home on the hill west of their old home, on Gochenour's Island. They were forced to evacuate their old home due to the flood waters and much property was damaged. The new home is situated on the hill, well out of reach of future flood waters.

HERE FROM LINCOLN

Sunday guests at the Arthur Troop home south of this city, were Mr. and Mrs. Jack von Gillern and children, Jack Raymond and Roger of Lincoln, who enjoyed the fine dinner and outing on the farm. Mrs. von Gillern was formerly Miss Kathleen Troop.

RECUPERATING HERE

Miss Betty Rainey, of Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rainey, is here to recuperate from a recent operation for appendicitis. She is at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puls and family.

HERE FROM IOWA

From Tuesday's Daily—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Conis of Perry Iowa, were here today to visit with Mr. Conis' brother, George Conis and family. They later motored to Nebraska City, accompanied by George Conis, to visit at the Gus Stavron home.

ROTARY ENJOYS AN EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Rotary education served as the theme of the Rotary club at their weekly luncheon Tuesday and which was provided as one of the important features of the Rotary year.

Judge A. H. Duxbury had charge of the program and had arranged ten questions on Rotary, its purposes and objectives of the organization, the answers being given by different members and showed the interest that it had taken in the work of the great international group.

Frank A. Cloidt presented a communication from the headquarters of the International Rotary, relative to the organization of a Rotary institute, participated in by groups of five clubs in closely united sections of the districts.

President Arthur Troop of the club gave a very interesting account of his visit at Lincoln where Paul Harris, the founder of Rotary was the chief speaker.
